HYMNS

FOR THE

CHRISTIAN CHURCH,

FOR THE USE OF THE

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST IN BOSTON.

Rufus Ellis

BOSTON:

LITTLE, BROWN, AND COMPANY.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1868, by
RUFUS ELLIS,
in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the District of Massachusetts

CAMBRIDGE:
PRESS OF JOHN WILSON AND SON.

P R E F A C E.

IN the year 1842, the "Christian Psalter" took the place of Belknap's "Psalms and Hymns" in the worship of First Church, and has gained a good report from the congregation as a book of praise. It has been found, however, that a large portion of the contents was rarely or never used, whilst not a few favorite hymns were sought for in vain. Moreover, it was believed that a much smaller volume would abundantly meet the wants of the worshippers. Some two hundred and fifty hymns have been gratefully retained from the "Psalter." The remainder have been gathered from sources open to all, the object being to provide, not a collection of sacred poetry, but a book of hymns for public worship. The compiler has endeavored to fulfil the desire of the congregation, as expressed in the vote of the proprietors at the annual meeting in April, of the present year, by putting into their hands at once an abridgment and an enlargement of the "Christian Psalter," so grafting the new upon the old, and maintaining unbroken the continuity of their worship. May this volume aid them to make melody in their hearts to the Lord!

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

	HYMN
A charge to keep I have	291
A holy air is breathing round	402
A voice from the desert comes awful and shrill	73
Abide with me, fast falls the eventide	173
According to thy gracious word	393
Ah, wretched souls, who strive in vain	299
Alas, how swift the moments fly	317
All earthly charms, however dear	312
All hail the power of Jesus' name	124
All ye nations, praise the Lord	16
Almighty God, in humble prayer	215
Am I a soldier of the cross	303
Amidst a world of hopes and fears	163
Another fleeting day is gone	463
Another hand is beckoning us	438
Another six days' work is done	344
As every day thy mercy spares	446
As pants the hart for cooling streams	201
As showers on meadows newly mown	143
As the hart, with eager looks	202
As the sun's enlivening eye	372
Author of good, we rest on thee	244
Awake, and sing the song	17
Awake, my soul, and with the sun	445
Awake, my soul: lift up thine eyes	298
Awake, my soul: stretch every nerve	285
Awake, our souls: away our fears	283
Away with our sorrow and fear	339

	HYMN
Be it my only wisdom here	304
Be still, my heart, these anxious cares	250
Be with me, Lord, where'er I go	214
Before Jehovah's awful throne	363
Before thy mercy's throne	233
Behold the amazing sight	93
Behold, the morning sun	139
Behold, the mountain of the Lord	70
Behold, the Prince of Peace	106
Behold the western evening light	432
Behold, where, breathing love divine	405
Beset with snares on every hand	165
"Blest are the meek," he said	301
Blest are the pure in heart	302
Blest are the souls that hear and know	117
Blest be thy love, dear Lord	262
Blest day of God, most calm, most bright	350
Blest Instructor, from thy ways	164
Blest is the man who fears the Lord	240
Blest Saviour! Source of grace divine	144
Bread of heaven, on thee we feed	408
Bread of the world, in mercy broken	397
Bright was the guiding star that led	79
Brightest and best of the sons of the morning	86
Brother, thou art gone before us	435
Brother, though from yonder sky	441
By cool Siloam's shady rill	388
 Calm me, my God, and keep me calm	 273
Calm on the bosom of thy God	436
Calm on the listening ear of night	77
Christ the Lord is risen to-day	98
Christians, brethren, ere we part	376
Come at the morning hour	451
Come, blessed Spirit, Source of light	157
Come, dearest Lord, descend and dwell	151
Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove	159
Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove	149

	HYMN
Come, Jesus, with the coming night	466
Come, kingdom of our God	198
Come, let us anew our journey pursue	429
Come, O Creator, Spirit blest	160
Come, said Jesus' sacred voice	107
Come, sound his praise abroad	366
Come, thou almighty King	367
Come, thou soul-transforming Spirit	153
Come to the house of prayer	354
Come to the land of peace	276
Come, we that love the Lord	186
Come, weary souls, with sins distressed	277
Come, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish	266
Commit thou all thy griefs	308
Create my nature pure within	225
Creator Spirit, by whose aid	147
Daughter of Zion, from the dust	421
Do not I love thee, O my Lord	237
Eternal and immortal King	41
Eternal God, Almighty Cause	31
Eternal Source of life and light	152
Faith, hope, and charity, these three	238
Far from mortal cares retreating	362
Far from the world, O Lord! I flee	219
Fare thee well, our fondly cherished	444
Father and Friend! thy light, thy love	22
Father divine, before thy view	243
Father in heaven, to thee my heart	213
Father of light, conduct my feet	155
Father of lights, we sing thy name	43

Feeble, helpless, how shall I	113
For all thy saints, O God	440
For ever with the Lord	343
Forgive us, for thy mercy's sake	229
Forth from the dark and stormy sky	357
From all that dwell below the skies	18
From Greenland's icy mountains	416
From the table now retiring	407
Gales from heaven, if God so will	270
Give me the wings of faith to rise	115
Give thanks to God most high	30
Give to our God immortal praise	29
Give to the winds thy fears	307
Glorious in thy saints appear	375
Glorious things of thee are spoken	131

How sweetly flowed the gospel's sound	89

	HYMN
I am free! I am free! I have broken away	313
I heard the voice of Jesus say	182
I lift my heart to thee	226
I'll praise my Maker with my breath	34
I looked upon the righteous man	443
I saw on earth another light	146
I sing the almighty power of God	27
I want a principle within	292
I want the spirit of power within	295
I worship thee, sweet will of God	184
I would not live away; I ask not to stay	328
In mercy, Lord, remember me	467
In the cross of Christ I glory	96
In token that thou shalt not fear	385
Interval of grateful shade	450
Is there a lone and dreary hour	199
Israel's Shepherd, guide me, feed me	377
It came upon the midnight clear	88
Jerusalem, my happy home	332
Jerusalem the golden	341
Jesus, I my cross have taken	289
Jesus is gone above the skies	392
Jesus, Lover of my soul	195
Jesus shall reign where'er the sun	123
Jesus, the very thought of thee	314
Jesus! thou Joy of loving hearts	177
Jews were wrought to cruel madness	94
Joy to the world, the Lord is come	72
Leader of faithful souls, and Guide	218
Let children hear the mighty deeds	60
Let one loud song of praise arise	2
Let others boast how strong they be	320
Let us with a gladsome mind	9
Lift your glad voices in triumph on high	99
Like Noah's weary dove	231
Like shadows gliding o'er the plain	315

	HYMN
Lo, God is here! Let us adore	355
Lo! the day of rest declineth	460
Lo, what a glorious sight appears	129
Long did I toil, and knew no earthly rest	180
Long have I sat beneath the sound	227
Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing	379
Lord, have mercy when we pray	224
Lord, I believe a rest remains	196
Lord, I will bless thee all my days	62
Lord, it belongs not to my care	256
Lord Jesus, as thou wilt	255
Lord of the Sabbath, hear our vows	351
Lord of the worlds above	353
Lord, teach us how to pray aright	171
Lord, 'tis an infinite delight	211
Lord, thou art good; all nature shows	35
Lord, thou hast searched and seen me through	32
Lord, we have wandered from thy ways	228
Love divine, all love excelling	176
Lowly and solemn be	433
Mark the soft-falling snow	128
May the grace of Christ our Saviour	380
Mid scenes of confusion, and creatures' complaints	267
My country! 'tis of thee	425
My dear Redeemer and my Lord	114
My Father! cheering name	212
My God, accept my heart this day	288

My God and Father, while I stray	271
My God, how endless is thy love	458
My God, I thank thee; may no thought	245
My God! in life's most doubtful hour	249
My God, in whom are all the springs	13
My God, my strength, my hope	293
My God, permit me not to be	220
My God, permit my tongue	359
My God, the covenant of thy love	207

	HYMN
My God! the spring of all my joys	181
My God, thy boundless love I praise	6
My Helper, God, I bless his name	426
My Lord, I love thee, not because	261
My Maker and my King	36
My Shepherd is the living Lord	47
My Shepherd is the Lord on high	50
My soul in God abideth still	274
My soul lies cleaving to the dust	166
My soul, repeat his praise	38
My spirit on thy care	272
Nearer, my God, to thee	248
No war nor battle's sound	75
Nor eye hath seen, nor ear has heard	334
Not to the terrors of the Lord	118
Now, Lord, the heavenly seed is sown	374
Now may He who from the dead	382
Now may the God of power and grace	423
Now Morning lifts her dewy veil	345
Now the shades of night are gone	449
Now to the Lord a noble song	110
O, bless the Lord, my soul	37
O bread to pilgrims given	398
O come, loud anthems let us sing	360
O draw me, Father, after thee	294
O, eyes that are weary and hearts that are sore	258
O for a closer walk with God	203
O for a heart to praise my God	192
O for a prophet's fire	394
O for the calm beyond the storms	338
O God, by whom the seed is given	373
O God, that madest the earth and sky	422
O God, thou art my God alone	216
O God! to thee our hearts would pay	431
O God! we praise thee, and confess	1
O God, whose dread and dazzling brow	368

	HYMN
O God, whose presence glows in all	414
O happy Christian, who can boast	286
O, happy is the man who hears	311
O happy soul that lives on high	287
O here, if ever, God of love	395
Oh for a thousand tongues to sing	119
Oh help us, Lord! each hour of need	172
O holy Father! 'mid the calm	468
O how kindly hast thou led me	68
O King of earth and air and sea	189
O Lord, how happy should we be	268
O Lord, my best desire fulfil	246
O Lord of life and truth and grace	415
O Lord! thy heavenly grace impart	300
O Love divine, that stooped to share	263
O, mean may seem this house of clay	259
O, my sweet home, Jerusalem	342
One prayer I have, — all prayers in one	209
One sole baptismal sign	134
One sweetly solemn thought	340
O, not for these alone I pray	406
Open, Lord, mine inward ear	169
O Source divine, and Life of all	26
O Spirit of the living God	420
O that my heart was right with thee	217
O thou, at whose almighty word	104
O thou, from whom all goodness flows	221
O thou great Friend to all the sons of men	121
O thou to whose all-searching sight	222
O thou whose power o'er moving worlds presides	156
O timely happy, timely wise	447
Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed	137
Our God, our help in ages past	318
Our God, where'er thy people meet	413
Our heavenly Father calls	252
Our times are in thy hand	257
Out of the depths of woe	230

O where are kings and empires now	132
O where shall rest be found	232
Part in peace ! is day before us	457
Planted in Christ, the living Vine	396
Praise the Lord ! ye heavens, adore him	3
Praise to God, immortal praise	410
Praise to thee, thou great Creator	20
Praise to the Lord of boundless might	145
Praise to the radiant Source of bliss	321
Prayer is the soul's sincere desire	167
Quiet, Lord, my froward heart	269
Raise your triumphant songs	103
Remark, my soul, the narrow bounds	427
"Remember me," the Saviour said	401
Ride on, ride on in majesty	91
Rise, crowned with light, imperial Salem, rise	85
Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings	205
Rock of Ages, cleft for me	260
Saviour, who thy flock art feeding	387
"See how he loved !" exclaimed the Jews	404
See Israel's gentle Shepherd stand	384
See the Lord, thy Helper, stand	306
Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless	399
Shine forth, eternal Source of light	154
Shine on our souls, eternal God	190
Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing	78
Sing to the Lord, who loud proclaims	67
Sing we the song of those who stand	127
Sing, ye redeemed of the Lord	322
Smile, O my God ! on me	175
Softly fades the twilight ray	465
Softly now the light of day	464
Sometimes a light surprises	187

	HYMN
Songs of praise the angels sang	7
Sons of men, behold from far	82
Soon as I heard my Father say	168
Soon will our fleeting hours be past	369
Sow in the morn thy seed	418
Spirit of Truth, on this thy day	136
Stand up, and bless the Lord	12
Stand up, my soul: shake off thy fears	284
Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear	461
Supreme and universal Light	162
Sweet is the work, my God, my King	347
Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go	459
Teach me, my God and King	305
The darkened sky, how thick it lowers	324
The God of harvest praise	411
The heaven of heavens cannot contain	364
The heavenly spheres to thee, O God	456
The heavens declare thy glory, Lord	141
The Lord is my Shepherd, no want shall I know	51
The Lord Jehovah reigns	33
The Lord my pasture shall prepare	49
The Lord my Shepherd is	48
The morning light is breaking	419
The mourners came, at break of day	97
The offerings to thy throne which rise	365
The past is dark with sin and shame	235
The peace which God bestows	469
The race that long in darkness pined	81
The saints of God are holy men	281
The saints on earth and those above	122
The Son of God gave thanks	400
The Son of God goes forth to war	290
The spacious firmament on high	24
The Spirit breathes upon the word	140
The Spirit in our hearts	108
The swift declining day	323

	HYMN
The uplifted eye and bended knee	409
The voice of free grace cries, "Escape to the mountain" . .	275
The world can neither give nor take	251
Thee will I love, my strength, my tower	178
There is a book, who runs may read	23
There is a house not made with hands	331
There is a land of pure delight	333
They, who on the Lord rely	381
Thine for ever! God of love	389
Thine influence, mighty God, is felt	150
Think gently of the erring one	417
This is the day the Lord hath made	348
This is the day the Lord hath made	352
Thou art gone to the grave, but we will not deplore thee . .	434
Thou art, O God! the Life and Light	5
Thou art the first, and thou the last	383
Thou art the Way; and he who sighs	120
Thou hidden love of God, whose height	200
Thou hidden Source of calm repose	253
Thou, Lord, through every changing scene	65
Thou seest my feebleness	183
Thrice happy souls, who, born from heaven	310
Through all the changing scenes of life	61
Through every age, eternal God	319
Thus far the Lord has led me on	453
Thy holy will, my God, be mine	264
Thy name, Almighty Lord	19
Thy presence, everlasting God	371
Thy servants in the temple watched	133
Thy way, not mine, O Lord	254
Thy will be done! In devious way	204
'Tis by the faith of joys to come	234
"'Tis finished!" so the Saviour cried	92
'Tis God the spirit leads	46
'Tis my happiness below	55
To all thy faithful people, Lord	378
To God, the only wise	14

HYMN

To Him, who children blessed	386
To keep the lamp alive	142
To prayer, to prayer! for the morning breaks	462
To thee, my God, my days are known	59
To thee, O God, in heaven	390
To thee, O God, we homage pay	105
To-morrow, Lord, is thine	316
'Twas on that dark, that doleful night	391
Unshaken as the sacred hill	63
Up to the fields where angels lie	206
Up to the hills I lift my eyes	45
Upward I lift my eyes	44
Wait on the Lord, ye heirs of hope	242
Walk in the light! so shalt thou know	279
Watchman! tell us of the night	74
We meditate the day	84
Welcome, sweet day of rest	346
What must it be to dwell above	337
What shall we ask of God in prayer	194
When all thy mercies, O my God	57
When fancy spreads her boldest wings	210
When God of old came down from heaven	135
When here, O Lord! we seek thy face	412
When I can read my title clear	336
When I survey life's varied scene	188
When I survey the wondrous cross	403
When Israel, of the Lord beloved	66
When languor and disease invade	69
When musing sorrow weeps the past	278
When, overwhelmed with grief	208
When Power divine, in mortal form	90
While shepherds watched their flocks by night	76
While the stars unnumbered roll	452
While thee I seek, protecting Power	170
While through this changing world we roam	326

	HYMN
While with ceaseless course the sun	430
Why do we mourn departing friends	442
Wilt thou not visit me	174
With God my Friend, the radiant sun	247.
With silence only as their benediction	437
With tearful eyes I look around	111
Ye faithful souls, that Jesus know	101
Ye golden lamps of heaven, farewell	330
Ye servants of the Lord	297

PATRICK.

Te Deum.

- 1 O God! we praise thee, and confess
That thou the only Lord
And everlasting Father art,
By all the earth adored.
- 2 To thee all angels cry aloud;
To thee the powers on high,
Both cherubim and seraphim,
Continually do cry,—
- 3 O holy, holy, holy Lord,
Whom heavenly hosts obey,
The world is with the glory filled
Of thy majestic sway!
- 4 The apostles' glorious company,
And prophets crowned with light,
With all the martyrs' noble host,
Thy constant praise recite.
- 5 The holy Church throughout the world,
O Lord! confesses thee,
That thou eternal Father art,
Of boundless majesty.

L. M.

ROSCOE.

Song of Adoration.

- 1 LET one loud song of praise arise
To God, whose goodness ceaseless flows;
Who dwells enthroned above the skies,
And life and breath on all bestows.
- 2 Let all of good this bosom fires,
To him, sole good, give praises due;
Let all the truth himself inspires
Unite to sing him only true.
- 3 In ardent adoration joined,
Obedient to thy holy will,
Let all our faculties, combined,
Thy just commands, O God! fulfil.
- 4 Oh, may the solemn-breathing sound
Like incense rise before thy throne,
Where thou, whose glory knows no bound,
Great Cause of all things, dwell'st alone!

DUBLIN COL.

All Creatures invoked to praise God. Ps. 148.

- 1 PRAISE the Lord! ye heavens, adore him;
Praise him, angels in the height;
Sun and moon, rejoice before him;
Praise him, all ye stars of light.
- 2 Praise the Lord, for he hath spoken;
Worlds his mighty voice obeyed;
Laws, which never can be broken,
For their guidance he hath made.

- 3 Praise the Lord, for he is glorious;
Never shall his promise fail;
God hath made his saints victorious;
Sin and death shall not prevail.
- 4 Praise the God of our salvation;
Hosts on high his power proclaim;
Heaven and earth, and all creation,
Praise and magnify his name!

BOWRING

Every good Gift from the Father.

- 1 FATHER! thy paternal care
Has my guardian been, my guide;
Every hallowed wish and prayer
Has thy hand of love supplied.
Thine is every thought of bliss,
Left by hours and days gone by;
Every hope thine offspring is,
Beaming from futurity.
- 2 Every sun of splendid ray;
Every moon that shines serene;
Every morn that welcomes day;
Every evening's twilight scene;
Every hour which wisdom brings;
Every incense at thy shrine, —
These, and all life's holiest things,
And its fairest, — all are thine.
- 3 And for all, my hymns shall rise
Daily to thy gracious throne:
Thither let my asking eyes
Turn unwearied, righteous One!

Through life's strange vicissitude
There reposing all my care ;
Trusting still, through ill and good,
Fixed and cheered and counselled there.

MOORE.

God in Nature.

- 1 THOU art, O God! the Life and Light
Of all this wondrous world we see :
Its glow by day, its smile by night,
Are but reflections caught from thee.
Where'er we turn, thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are thine.
- 2 When day, with farewell beam, delays
Among the opening clouds of even,
And we can almost think we gaze,
Through opening vistas, into heaven,—
Those hues that mark the sun's decline,
So soft, so radiant, Lord, are thine.
- 3 When night, with wings of starry gloom,
O'ershadows all the earth and skies, —
Like some dark, beauteous bird, whose plume
Is sparkling with unnumbered eyes, —
'That sacred gloom, those fires divine,
So grand, so countless, Lord, are thine.
- 4 When youthful spring around us breathes,
Thy Spirit warms her fragrant sigh ;
And every flower that summer wreathes,
Is born beneath thy kindling eye.
Where'er we turn, thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are thine.

REV. H. MOORE.

God is Love.

- 1 MY God, thy boundless love I praise;
How bright on high its glories blaze!
How sweetly bloom below!
It streams from thine eternal throne;
Through heaven its joys for ever run,
And o'er the earth they flow.
- 2 'Tis love that paints the purple morn,
And bids the clouds, in air upborne,
Their genial drops distil;
In every vernal beam it glows,
And breathes in every gale that blows,
And glides in every rill.
- 3 It robes in cheerful green the ground,
And pours its flowery beauties round,
Whose sweets perfume the gale;
Its bounties richly spread the plain,
The blushing fruit, the golden grain,
And smile in every vale.
- 4 But in thy word we see it shine
With grace and glory more divine,
Proclaiming sins forgiven;
There Faith, bright cherub, points the way
To realms of everlasting day,
And opens all her heaven.
- 5 Then let the love that makes me blest,
With cheerful praise inspire my breast,
And ardent gratitude;
And all my thoughts and passions tend
To thee, my Father and my Friend,
My soul's eternal good.

Glory to God in the highest.

- 1 SONGS of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When he spake, and it was done.
- 2 Songs of praise awoke the morn
When the Prince of peace was born;
Songs of praise arose when he
Captive led captivity.
- 3 Heaven and earth must pass away;
Songs of praise shall crown that day:
God will make new heavens and earth;
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.
- 4 And will man alone be dumb
Till that glorious kingdom come?
No: the Church delights to raise
Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.
- 5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.
- 6 Borne upon the latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death;
Then, amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

Thrice holy.

- 1 HOLY, holy, holy Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee;
Holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name in earth,
sky, and sea.
- 2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before
thee,
Thou who wast, and art, and evermore shalt be!
- 3 Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide
thee,
Though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see,
Only thou art holy; there is none beside thee,
Infinite in power, in love, and purity!

Praise to God. Ps. 136.

- 1 LET us, with a gladsome mind,
Praise the Lord, for he is kind;
For his mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.
- 2 Let us blaze his name abroad,
For of gods he is the God;
For his mercies, &c.

- 3 Who, with all-commanding might,
Filled the new-made world with light;
For his mercies, &c.
- 4 Caused the golden-tressed sun
All day long his course to run;
For his mercies, &c.
- 5 And the moon to shine by night,
'Mongst her spangled sisters bright;
For his mercies, &c.
- 6 His own people he did bless,
In the wasteful wilderness;
For his mercies, &c.
- 7 He hath, with a piteous eye,
Viewed us in our misery;
For his mercies, &c.
- 8 All his creatures he doth feed;
His full hand supplies their need;
For his mercies, &c.
- 9 Let us, therefore, warble forth
His high majesty and worth;
For his mercies, &c.

Glory to God.

- 1 GLORY be to God on high,
God whose glory fills the sky;
Peace on earth to man forgiven,
Man, the well beloved of heaven.

- 2 Favored mortals, raise the song ;
Endless thanks to God belong :
Hearts o'erflowing with his praise,
Join the hymns your voices raise.
- 3 Mark the wonders of his hand ;
Power, no empire can withstand ;
Wisdom, angels' glorious theme ;
Goodness, one eternal stream.
- 4 Gracious Being ! from thy throne
Send thy promised blessings down ;
Let thy light, thy truth, thy peace,
Bid our raging passions cease.

Hallowed be thy Name.

- 1 HOLY and reverend is the name
Of our eternal King ;
'Thrice holy, Lord ! the angels cry ;
Thrice holy, let us sing.
- 2 The deepest reverence of the mind
Pay, O my soul ! to God ;
Lift with thy hands a holy heart
To his sublime abode.
- 3 With sacred awe pronounce his name,
Whom words nor thoughts can reach :
A trusting heart shall please him more
Than the best forms of speech.
- 4 Thou holy God ! preserve my soul
From sinful passion free ;
And, pure in heart, may I behold
A God of purity !

Praise.

- 1 STAND up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of his choice;
Stand up, and bless the Lord your God,
With heart and soul and voice.
- 2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear his holy name,
And laud and magnify?
- 3 O for the living flame,
From his own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our minds inspire,
And raise to heaven our thought!
- 4 There, with benign regard,
Our hymns he deigns to hear;
Though unrevealed to mortal sense,
The spirit feels him near.
- 5 Stand up, and bless the Lord;
The Lord your God adore;
Stand up, and bless his glorious name,
Henceforth, for evermore.

Praise for Protection, Grace, and Truth. Ps. 57.

- 1 MY God, in whom are all the springs
Of boundless love and grace unknown,
Hide me beneath thy spreading wings
Till the dark cloud is overblown.

2 Up to the heavens I send my cry;
The Lord will my desires perform:
He sends his angel from the sky,
And saves me from the threatening storm.

3 Be thou exalted, O my God!
Above the heavens, where angels dwell;
Thy power on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.

4 My heart is fixed; my song shall raise
Immortal honors to thy name:
Awake, my tongue, to sound his praise, —
My tongue, the glory of my frame.

5 High o'er the earth thy mercy reigns,
And reaches to the utmost sky;
His truth to endless years remains,
When lower worlds dissolve and die.

6 Be thou exalted, O my God!
Above the heavens, where angels dwell;
Thy power on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.

Preserving Grace.

1 To God, the only wise,
Our Saviour and our King,
Let all the saints below the skies
Their humble praises bring.

2 'Tis his almighty love,
His counsel and his care,
Preserves us safe from sin and death,
And every hurtful snare.

- 3 He will present our souls,
Unblemished and complete,
Before the glory of his face,
With joys divinely great.
- 4 Then all the chosen seed
Shall meet around the throne,
Shall bless the conduct of his grace,
And make his wonders known.
- 5 To our Redeemer God
Wisdom and power belongs,
Immortal crowns of majesty,
And everlasting songs.

Perpetual Praise.

- 1 GOD of my life! through all its days
My grateful powers shall sound thy praise;
The song shall wake with opening light,
And warble to the silent night.
- 2 When anxious cares would break my rest,
And griefs would tear my throbbing breast,
Thy tuneful praises, raised on high,
Shall check the murmur and the sigh.
- 3 When death o'er nature shall prevail,
And all its powers of language fail,
Joy through my swimming eyes shall break,
And mean the thanks I cannot speak.
- 4 But, oh! when that last conflict's o'er,
And I am chained to flesh no more,
With what glad accents shall I rise
To join the music of the skies!

5 Soon shall I learn the exalted strains
Which echo o'er the heavenly plains;
And emulate, with joy unknown,
The glowing seraphs round thy throne.

6 The cheerful tribute will I give,
Long as a deathless soul can live:
A work so sweet, a theme so high,
Demands and crowns eternity!

16. 7s. MONTGOMERY.

1 ALL ye nations, praise the Lord;
All ye lands, your voices raise;
Heaven and earth, with loud accord,
Praise the Lord, for ever praise.

2 For his truth and mercy stand,
Past and present and to be,
Like the years of his right hand,
Like his own eternity.

3 Praise him, ye who know his love,
Praise him from the depths beneath;
Praise him in the heights above;
Praise your Maker, all that breathe.

17. S. M. { Variation from HAMMOND,
by MADAN.

1 AWAKE, and sing the song
Of Moses and the Lamb!
Wake every heart and every tongue
To praise the Saviour's name!

- 2 Sing of his dying love;
Sing of his rising power;
Sing how he intercedes above
For those whose sins he bore.
- 3 Sing till we feel our hearts
Ascending with our tongues;
Sing till the love of sin departs,
And grace inspires our songs.
- 4 Sing on your heavenly way, —
Ye ransomed sinners, sing;
Sing on, rejoicing every day
In Christ, the eternal King.
- 5 Soon shall ye hear him say,
Ye blessed children, come;
Soon will he call you hence away,
And take his wanderers home.

The present God.

- 1 God of the ocean, earth, and sky,
In thy bright presence we rejoice;
We feel thee, see thee, ever nigh;
We ever hear thy gracious voice.
- 2 We feel thee in the sunny beam;
We see thee walk the mountain waves;
We hear thee in the murmuring stream,
And when the midnight tempest raves.
- 3 God on the lonely hills we meet;
God in the valley and the grove;
While birds and whispering winds repeat
That God is there, — that God is Love.
- 4 We meet thee in the silent hour,
When wearied Nature sinks to rest,
When dies the breeze, and sleeps the flower,
And peace is given to every breast.
- 5 We see thee when, at eve, afar
We upward lift our wondering sight;
We see thee in each glittering star
That beautifies the gloom of night.
- 6 But better still, and still more clear,
Thee in the sacred page we see:
There thy own glorious words we hear,
And learn the way to heaven and thee.

God is Everywhere.

- 1 FATHER and Friend! thy light, thy love,
Beaming through all thy works, we see;
Thy glory gilds the heavens above,
And all the earth is full of thee.
- 2 Thy voice we hear, thy presence feel,
Whilst thou, too pure for mortal sight,
Involved in clouds, invisible,
Reignest the Lord of life and light.
- 3 We know not in what hallowed part
Of the wide heavens thy throne may be;
But this we know, that where thou art,
Strength, wisdom, goodness, dwell with thee.
- 4 And through the various maze of time,
And through the infinity of space,
We follow thy career sublime,
And all thy wondrous footsteps trace.
- 5 Thy children shall not faint nor fear,
Sustained by this delightful thought,—
Since thou, their God, art everywhere,
They cannot be where thou art not.

"The invisible things of him, clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made."

- 1 THERE is a book, who runs may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts,
And all the lore its scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

- 2 The works of God above, below,
Within us, and around,
Are pages in that book, to show
How God himself is found.
- 3 The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Maker's love,
Wherewith encompassed, great and small
In peace and order move.
- 4 The dew of heaven is like thy grace :
It steals in silence down ;
But where it lights, the favored place
By richest fruits is known.
- 5 One name, above all glorious names,
With its ten thousand tongues,
The everlasting sea proclaims,
Echoing angelic songs.
- 6 The raging fire, the roaring wind,
Thy boundless power display ;
But in the gentler breeze we find
Thy Spirit's viewless way.
- 7 Thou, who hast given me eyes to see
And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out thee,
And read thee everywhere.

The Heavens declare the Glory of God. Ps. 19.

- 1 THE spacious firmament on high,
With all the blue, ethereal sky,
And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim.

- The unwearied sun, from day to day,
 Doth his Creator's power display,
 And publishes to every land
 The work of an almighty hand.
- 2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
 The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
 And nightly to the listening earth
 Repeats the story of her birth;
 Whilst all the stars which round her burn,
 And all the planets, in their turn,
 Confirm the tidings, as they roll,
 And spread the truth from pole to pole.
- 3 What though, in solemn silence, all
 Move round this dark, terrestrial ball;
 What though no real voice nor sound
 Amidst their radiant orbs be found,—
 In reason's ear they all rejoice,
 And utter forth a glorious voice,
 For ever singing, as they shine,
 "The hand that made us is divine."

P. M. MISS H. M. WILLIAMS.

"The Day is thine, the Night also is thine." Ps. lxxiv. 16, 17.

- 1 MY God! all nature owns thy sway;
 Thou giv'st the night, and thou the day;
 When all thy loved creation wakes,
 When morning, rich in lustre, breaks,
 And bathes in dew the opening flower
 To thee we owe her fragrant hour;
 And when she pours her choral song,
 Her melodies to thee belong.

- 2 Or when, in paler tints arrayed,
The evening slowly spreads her shade,
That soothing shade, that grateful gloom,
Can, more than day's enlivening bloom,
Still every fond and vain desire,
And calmer, purer thoughts inspire;
From earth the pensive spirit free,
And lead the softened heart to thee.
- 3 In every scene thy hands have dressed,
In every form by thee impressed,
Upon the mountain's awful head,
Or where the sheltering woods are spread,
In every note that swells the gale,
Or tuneful stream that cheers the vale,
'The cavern's depth, or echoing grove,
A voice is heard of praise and love.
- 4 As o'er thy work the seasons roll,
And soothe, with change of bliss, the soul,
Oh, never may their smiling train
Pass o'er the human sense in vain!
But oft, as on their charms we gaze,
Attune the wandering soul to praise;
And be the joys that most we prize
The joys that from thy favor rise!

Law and Love.

- 1 O SOURCE divine, and Life of all,
The Fount of being's wondrous sea!
Thy depth would every heart appall,
That saw not love supreme in thee.

- 2 We shrink before thy vast abyss,
Where worlds on worlds eternal brood;
We know thee truly but in this, —
That thou bestowest all our good.
- 3 And so, 'mid boundless time and space,
Oh, grant us still in thee to dwell,
And through the ceaseless web to trace
Thy presence working all things well!
- 4 Nor let thou life's delightful play
Thy truth's transcendent vision hide;
Nor strength and gladness lead astray
From thee, our nature's only guide.
- 5 Bestow on every joyous thrill
Thy deeper tone of reverent awe;
Make pure thy children's erring will,
And teach their hearts to love thy law!

Praise for Creation and Providence.

- 1 I SING the almighty power of God,
That made the mountains rise;
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.
- 2 I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at his command,
And all the stars obey.
- 3 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That filled the earth with food;
He formed the creatures with his word,
And then pronounced them good.

- 4 Lord, how thy wonders are displayed,
Where'er I turn my eye,
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky!
- 5 There's not a plant or flower below,
But makes thy glories known;
And clouds arise and tempests blow
By order from thy throne.
- 6 Creatures, as numerous as they be,
Are subject to thy care;
There's not a place where we can flee
But God is present there.
- 7 His hand is my perpetual guard;
He keeps me with his eye:
Why should I, then, forget the Lord,
Who is for ever nigh?

As mountains their foundations keep;
Wise are the wonders of thy hands;
Thy judgments are a mighty deep.
- 3 Thy providence is kind and large;
Both man and beast thy bounty share;
The whole creation is thy charge,
But saints are thy peculiar care.

- 4 My God, how excellent thy grace!
Whence all our hope and comfort springs;
The sons of Adam, in distress,
Fly to the shadow of thy wings.

Praise to God for his Goodness and Truth. Ps. 146.

- 1 I'LL praise my Maker with my breath,
 And when my voice is lost in death,
 Praise shall employ my nobler powers;
 My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
 While life and thought and being last,
 Or immortality endures.
- 2 Why should I make a man my trust?
 Princes must die and turn to dust;
 Vain is the help of flesh and blood;
 Their breath departs, their pomp and power
 And thoughts, all vanish in an hour,
 Nor can they make their promise good.
- 3 Happy the man whose hopes rely
 On Israel's God; he made the sky,
 And earth, and seas, with all their train;
 His truth for ever stands secure;
 He saves the oppressed, he feeds the poor,
 And none shall find his promise vain,
- 4 The Lord hath eyes to give the blind;
 The Lord supports the sinking mind;

He sends the laboring conscience peace ;
He helps the stranger in distress,
The widow and the fatherless,
And grants the prisoner sweet release.

It shines in stars, and flows in streams,
And bursts from every hill.

Abounding Compassion of God. Ps. 103.

Whose anger is so slow to rise,

Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.
- 3 His power subdues our sins,
And his forgiving love
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.

- 4 The pity of the Lord,
To those that fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our feeble frame.
- 5 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;
If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,

The great Invisible can see,
And with its tremblings mingle joy,
In fixed regards, great God, to thee.

- 3 Then every tempting form of sin,
Shamed in thy presence, disappears;
And all the glowing, raptured soul
The likeness it contemplates wears.
- 4 Oh, ever-conscious to my heart,
Witness to its supreme desire,
Behold, it presseth on to thee,
For it hath caught the heavenly fire!
- 5 This one petition would it urge, —
To bear thee ever in its sight;
In life, in death, in worlds unknown,
Its only portion and delight.

To the unknown God.

- 1 GREAT God! in vain man's narrow view
Attempts to look thy nature through;
Our laboring powers with reverence own
Thy glories never can be known.
- 2 Not the high seraph's mighty thought,
Who countless years his God has sought,
Such wondrous height or depth can find,
Or fully trace thy boundless mind.
- 3 Yet, Lord, thy kindness deigns to show
Enough for mortal minds to know;
While wisdom, goodness, power divine,
Through all thy works and conduct shine.
- 4 Oh, may our souls with rapture trace
Thy works of nature and of grace!
Explore thy sacred name, and still
Press on to know and do thy will.

The Bounties of Providence.

- 1 FATHER of lights, we sing thy name,
Who kindlest up the lamp of day ;
Wide as he spreads his golden flame,
His beams thy power and love display.
- 2 Fountain of good, from thee proceed
The copious drops of genial rain,
Which through the hills, and through the meads,
Revive the grass, and swell the grain.
- 3 Through the wide world thy bounties spread ;
Yet millions of our guilty race,
Though by thy daily bounty fed,
Affront thy law, and spurn thy grace.
- 4 Not so may our forgetful hearts
O'erlook the tokens of thy care ;
But what thy liberal hand imparts,
Still own in praise, still ask in prayer.
- 5 So shall our suns more grateful shine,
And showers in sweeter drops shall fall,
When all our hearts and lives are thine,
And thou, our God, enjoyed in all.

God our Preserver. Ps. 121.

- 1 UPWARD I lift my eyes ;
From God is all my aid, —
The God that built the skies,
And earth and nature made :

God is the tower
To which I fly ;
His grace is nigh
In every hour.

- 2 My feet shall never slide,
And fall in fatal snares,
Since God, my Guard and Guide,
Defends me from my fears :
Those wakeful eyes,
That never sleep,
Shall Israel keep,
When dangers rise.
- 3 No burning heats by day,
Nor blasts of evening air,
Shall take my health away,
If God be with me there :
Thou art my sun,
And thou my shade,
To guard my head
By night or noon.
- 4 Hast thou not given thy word
To save my soul from death ?
And I can trust my Lord
To keep my mortal breath :
I'll go and come,
Nor fear to die,
Till from on high
Thou call me home.

Divine Protection. Ps. 121.

- 1 UP to the hills I lift my eyes, —
The eternal hills beyond the skies;
Thence all her help my soul derives;
There my almighty Refuge lives.
- 2 He lives, the everlasting God,
That built the world, that spread the flood;
The heavens with all their hosts he made,
And the dark regions of the dead.
- 3 He guides our feet, he guards our way;
His morning smiles bless all the day;
He spreads the evening veil, and keeps
The silent hours while Israel sleeps.

May rise secure, securely rest;
Thy holy Guardian's wakeful eyes
Admit no slumber nor surprise.

The divine Shepherd. Ps. 23.

- 1 MY Shepherd is the living Lord;
 I therefore nothing need:
 In pastures fair, with waters calm,
 He sets me forth to feed.
- 2 He did convert and glad my soul,
 And brought my mind in frame
 To walk in paths of righteousness
 For his most holy name.
- 3 Yea, though I walk in vale of death,
 Yet will I fear no ill;
 Thy rod, thy staff, doth comfort me,
 And thou art with me still.
- 4 And in the presence of my foes
 My table thou shalt spread;
 Thou shalt, O Lord! fill full my cup,
 And thou anoint my head.
- 5 Through all my life, thy favor is
 So frankly showed to me,
 That in thy house for evermore
 My dwelling-place shall be.

God our Shepherd. Ps. 23.

I shall be well supplied ;
Since he is mine, and I am his,
What can I want beside ?
- 2 He leads me to the place
Where heavenly pasture grows,
Where living waters gently pass,
And full salvation flows.
- 3 If e'er I go astray,
He doth my soul reclaim,
And guides me in his own right way,
For his most holy name.
- 4 While he affords his aid,
I cannot yield to fear ;
Though I should walk thro' death's dark shade,
My Shepherd's with me there.
- 5 In spite of all my foes,
Thou dost my table spread ;
My cup with blessings overflows,
And joy exalts my head.
- 6 The bounties of thy love
Shall crown my following days ;
Nor from thy house will I remove,
Nor cease to speak thy praise.

God our Shepherd. Ps. 23.

- 1 THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,
And feed me with a Shepherd's care;
His presence shall my wants supply,
And guard me with a watchful eye;
My noonday walks he shall attend,
And all my midnight hours defend.
- 2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales and dewy meads
My weary, wandering steps he leads;
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.
- 3 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,
Thy bounty shall my pains beguile;
The barren wilderness shall smile,
With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
And streams shall murmur all around.
- 4 Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill;
For thou, O Lord! art with me still;
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade.

Ps. 23.

- 1 MY Shepherd is the Lord on high;
His hand supplies me still;
In pastures green he makes me lie,
Beside the rippling rill:

He cheers my soul, relieves my woes,
 His glory to display;
 The paths of righteousness he shows,
 And leads me in his way.

- 2 Though walking through death's dismal shade,
 No evil will I fear;
 Thy rod, thy staff, shall lend me aid,
 For thou art ever near:
 For me a table thou dost spread
 In presence of my foes;
 With oil thou dost anoint my head;
 By thee my cup o'erflows.
- 3 Thy goodness and thy mercy sure
 Shall bless me all my days;
 And I, with lips sincere and pure,
 Will celebrate thy praise:
 Yes, in the temple of the Lord
 For ever I will dwell;
 To after time thy name record,
 And of thy glory tell.

 I stray,
 Since thou art my Guardian, no evil I fear;

 No harm can befall with my Comforter near.

- 3 In the midst of affliction my table is spread ;
 With blessings unmeasured my cup runneth

 With perfume and oil thou anointest my head ;
 Oh, what shall I ask of thy providence more !

His wonders to perform ;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,

This is happiness to me.

- 2 God in Israel sows the seeds
Of affliction, pain, and toil;
These spring up and choke the weeds
Which would else o'erspread the soil:
Trials make the promise sweet;
Trials give new life to prayer;
Trials bring me to his feet,
Lay me low, and keep me there.

And, oh, how rich the blessings are,
Which blossom from his rod!

That every stroke his children feel
May grace and peace impart.

- 4 His covenant love they seek,
And seek the happy bands,
That closer still engage their hearts
To honor his commands.

Still more completely thine.

Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom those comforts flowed.
- 3 When, in the slippery paths of youth,
With heedless steps I ran,
Thine arm, unseen, conveyed me safe,
And led me up to man.
- 4 When worn with sickness, oft hast thou
With health renewed my face;
And when in sin and sorrow sunk,
Revived my soul with grace.
- 5 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a cheerful heart,

And after death, in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew.

Out of the land of bondage came,
Her fathers' God before her moved,

By night, Arabia's crimsoned sands
Returned the fiery column's glow.

His various and his saving names;

But by our sure experience known.

He through the world most high confessed,
By whom 'twas formed, and is possessed.
- 3 Awake, our noblest powers, to bless
The God of Abram, God of peace;
Now by a dearer title known,—
Father and God of Christ his Son.
- 4 Through every age his gracious ear
Is open to his servants' prayer;
Nor can one humble soul complain
That it hath sought its God in vain.
- 5 What unbelieving heart shall dare
In whispers to suggest a fear,
While still he owns his ancient name?
The same his power, his love the same.

- 6 To thee our souls in faith arise,
To thee we lift expecting eyes,
And boldly through the desert tread,
For God will guard where God shall lead.

- 1 O how kindly hast thou led me,
Heavenly Father, day by day!
Found my dwelling, clothed and fed me,
Furnished friends to cheer my way!
Didst thou bless me, didst thou chasten,
With thy smile, or with thy rod,
'Twas that still my step might hasten
Homeward, heavenward to my God!
- 2 O how slowly have I often
Followed where thy hand would draw!
How thy kindness failed to soften!
How thy chastening failed to awe!
Make me for thy rest more ready,
As thy path is longer trod;
Keep me in thy friendship steady,
Till thou call me home, my God!

Wisdom and might, and zeal and love,

In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.
- 4 He comes, from thickest films of vice
To clear the mental ray,
And on the eyeballs of the blind
To pour celestial day.
- 5 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And with the treasures of his grace
To enrich the humble poor.

Angels proclaiming the Birth of Christ.

1 No war nor battle's sound

Was heard the world around;

No hostile chiefs to furious combat ran;

But peaceful was the night,

In which the Prince of Light

His reign of peace upon the earth began.

2 The shepherds on the lawn,

Before the point of dawn,

In social circle sat; while all around,

The gentle, fleecy brood,

Or cropped the flowery food,

Or slept or sported on the verdant ground,—

3 When, lo! with ravished ears,

Each swain delighted hears

Sweet music, offspring of no mortal hand;

Divinely-warbled voice,

Answering the stringed noise,

With blissful rapture charmed the listening band.

4 They saw a glorious light
 Burst on their wondering sight;
 Harping in solemn choir, in robes arrayed,
 The helmed cherubim
 And sworded seraphim
 Are seen in glittering ranks, with wings displayed.

5 Sounds of so sweet a tone
 Before were never known
 But when of old the sons of morning sung,
 While God disposed in air
 Each constellation fair,
 And the well-balanced world on hinges hung.

6 "Hail, hail, auspicious morn!
 The Saviour Christ is born!"
 Such was the immortal seraph's song sublime;
 "Glory to God in heaven!
 To man sweet peace be given,
 Sweet peace and friendship to the end of time."

 The angel of the Lord came down,
 And glory shone around.
- 2 "Fear not," said he, — for mighty dread
 Had seized their troubled mind, —
 "Glad tidings of great joy I bring
 To you and all mankind.
- 3 "To you, in David's town, this day
 Is born, of David's line,
 The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
 And this shall be the sign:—

- 4 "The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."
- 5 Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, and thus
Addressed their joyful song:—
- 6 "All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace!
Good-will henceforth, from heaven to men,
Begin and never cease!"

Christmas Hymn.

- 1 CALM on the listening ear of night
Come heaven's melodious strains,
Where wild Judea stretches far
Her silver-mantled plains!
- 2 Celestial choirs, from courts above,
Shed sacred glories there;
And angels, with their sparkling lyres,
Make music on the air.
- 3 The answering hills of Palestine
Send back the glad reply,
And greet, from all their holy heights,
The day-spring from on high.
- 4 O'er the blue depths of Galilee
There comes a holier calm,
And Sharon waves, in solemn praise,
Her silent groves of palm.

5 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
 Loud with their anthems sing;
 "Peace to the earth, good-will to men,
 From heaven's eternal King."

6 Light on thy hills, Jerusalem!
 The Saviour now is born!
 And bright on Bethlehem's joyous plains
 Breaks the first Christmas morn.

The Guiding Star.

- 1 BRIGHT was the guiding star that led,
 With mild, benignant ray,
 The Gentiles to the lowly shed
 Where the Redeemer lay.
- 2 But, lo! a brighter, clearer light
 Now points to his abode;
 It shines through sin and sorrow's night,
 To guide us to our Lord.
- 3 O, haste to follow where it leads!
 The gracious call obey;
 Be rugged wilds or flowery meads
 The Christian's destined way.
- 4 O, gladly tread the narrow path,
 While light and grace are given!
 Who meekly follow Christ on earth,
 Shall reign with him in heaven.

Advent.

- 1 Hark! the herald-angels sing:
 "Glory to the new-born King;
 Peace on earth, and mercy mild;
 God and sinners reconciled."
- 2 Joyful, all ye nations! rise,
 Join the triumph of the skies;
 With the angelic host, proclaim:
 "Christ is born in Bethlehem."

- 3 Mild, he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die;
Born to raise the sons of earth;
Born to give them second birth.
- 4 Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
Risen with healing in his wings.
- 5 Let us, then, with angels sing:
"Glory to the new-born King;
Peace on earth and mercy mild;
God and sinners reconciled."

CHRISTIAN PSALMIST.

A Light to lighten the Gentiles.

- 1 THE race that long in darkness pined,
Have seen a glorious light;
The people dwell in day, who dwelt
In death's surrounding night.
- 2 To hail thy rise, thou better Sun,
The gathering nations come,
Joyous, as when the reapers bear
The harvest treasures home.
- 3 To us a Child of hope is born,
To us a Son is given;
Him shall the tribes of earth obey,
Him, all the hosts of heaven.
- 4 His name shall be the Prince of Peace,
Whose rule shall stretch abroad,
The Wonderful, the Counsellor,
The great and mighty Lord.

- 5 His power, increasing, still shall spread ;
 His reign no end shall know ;
 Justice shall guard his throne above,
 And peace abound below.

82.

7s M.

- 1 SONS of men, behold from far,
 Hail the long-expected star !
 Star of truth that gilds the night,
 Guiding devious nature right.
- 2 Mild it shines on all beneath,
 Piercing through the shades of death ;
 Scattering error's wide-spread night,
 Kindling darkness into light.
- 3 Nations all, remote and near,
 Haste to see your Lord appear ;
 Haste, for him your hearts prepare,
 Meet him manifested there.
- 4 There behold the day-spring rise,
 Pouring light on mortal eyes ;
 See it chase the shades away,
 Shining to the perfect day.

Christ revealed to Jews and Gentiles.

- 1 How beauteous are their feet
 Who stand on Sion's hill,
 Who bring salvation on their tongues,
 And words of peace reveal !

- 2 How charming is their voice!
How sweet the tidings are!
"Sion, behold thy Saviour King;
He reigns and triumphs here."
- 3 How happy are our ears,
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found!
- 4 How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light!
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.
- 5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.
- 6 The Lord makes bare his arm
Through all the earth abroad:
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

Christ's Manifestation.

- 1 WE meditate the day
Of triumph and of rest,
When, shown of God and shaped in clay,
The Word was manifest.
- 2 The angels saw and sung;
Earth listened far and wide;
Believed and preached, — a faith, — a tongue;
The Word was glorified.

- 3 Lord, give it gracious sweep,
And here its errand bless,
Whose mercy sent it o'er the deep,
To glad a wilderness.
- 4 Ray out its starry light,
To guide our pilgrim way;
A sign of hope through this world's night,
And brighter than its day.
- 5 Again thy witness-voice!
Again thy spirit-dove!
That hearts may in its trust rejoice,
And soften with its love.
- 6 Send round its blessed cup,
As once in Galilee;
And catch our dull affections up
To heaven and Christ and thee.

Gentiles coming into the Church.

- 1 RISE, crowned with light, imperial Salem, rise!
Exalt thy towering head, and lift thine eyes!
See heaven its sparkling portals wide display,
And break upon thee in a flood of day!
- 2 See a long race thy spacious courts adorn!
See future sons and daughters, yet unborn.
In crowding ranks on every side arise,
Demanding life, impatient for the skies!
- 3 See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
Walk in thy light, and in thy temple bend!
See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
While every land its joyous tribute brings!

- 4 The seas shall waste, the skies to smoke decay,
 Rocks fall to dust, and mountains melt away;
 But fixed his word, his saving power remains;
 Thy realm shall last, thy own Messiah reigns.

 Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid!
 Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
 Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid!

 Odors of Edom, and offerings divine?
 Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
 Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

 Vainly with gifts would his favor secure:
 Richer by far is the heart's adoration;
 Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

All Nations shall call him blessed.

- 1 HAIL to the Lord's Anointed!
 Great David's greater Son!
 Hail in the time appointed,
 His reign on earth begun!

He comes to break oppression,
 To set the captive free,
 To take away transgression,
 And rule in equity.

- 2 He shall come down like showers
 Upon the fruitful earth;
 And joy and hope, like flowers,
 Spring in his path to birth:
 Before him, on the mountains,
 Shall peace, the herald, go;
 And righteousness, in fountains,
 From hill to valley flow.
- 3 For him shall prayer unceasing
 And daily vows ascend;
 His kingdom still increasing,
 A kingdom without end:
 The mountain dew shall nourish
 A seed in weakness sown,
 Whose fruit shall spread and flourish,
 And shake like Lebanon.

88. C. M. E. H. SEARS.

The Nativity.

- 1 It came upon the midnight clear,
 That glorious song of old,
 From angels bending near the earth
 To touch their harps of gold:
 "Peace to the earth, good-will to men,
 From heaven's all gracious king:"
 The world in solemn stillness lay
 To hear the angels sing.
- 2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
 With peaceful wings unfurled;
 And still the heavenly music floats
 O'er all the weary world:

Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on heavenly wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

- 3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long ;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong ;
And men at war with men hear not
The love-song which they bring :
Oh ! hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing !

- 4 And ye, beneath life's crushing load
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow, —
Look now ! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing :
Oh ! rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing !

- 5 For lo ! the days are hastening on,
By prophet-bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold ;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

Jesus teaching the People.

- 1 How sweetly flowed the gospel's sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and reverence filled the place!
- 2 From heaven he came ; of heaven he spoke ;
To heaven he led his followers' way ;
Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
Unveiling an immortal day.
- 3 " Come, wanderers, to my Father's home ;
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest !"
Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.
- 4 Decay, then, tenements of dust !
Pillars of earthly pride, decay !
A nobler mansion waits the just,
And Jesus has prepared the way.

SIR J. E. SMITH.

" It is I ; be not afraid."

- 1 WHEN Power divine, in mortal form,
Hushed with a word the raging storm,
In soothing accents Jesus said, —
" Lo, it is I ; be not afraid."
- 2 So when in silence nature sleeps,
And his lone watch the mourner keeps,
One thought shall every pang remove :
Trust, feeble man, thy Maker's love.

- 3 Blest be the voice that breathes from heaven
 To every heart in sunder riven,
 When love and joy and hope are fled,
 "Lo, it is I; be not afraid."
- 4 God calms the tumult and the storm;
 He rules the seraph and the worm;
 No creature is by him forgot,
 Of those who know, or know him not.
- 5 And when the last dread hour shall come,
 While shuddering Nature waits her doom,
 This voice shall call the pious dead, —
 "Lo, it is I; be not afraid."

 In lowly pomp ride on to die!
 O Christ, thy triumphs now begin,
 O'er captive death and conquered sin.
- 3 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
 The wingèd squadrons of the sky
 Look down with sad and wondering eyes,
 To see the approaching sacrifice.

 Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh;
 The Father on his sapphire throne
 Expects his own anointed Son!

And meekly bowed his head, and died:
"'Tis finished!" yes, the race is run,
The battle fought, the victory won.
- 2 "'Tis finished!" all that heaven foretold
By prophets in the days of old;
And truths are opened to our view,
That kings and prophets never knew.
- 3 "'Tis finished!" Son of God, thy power
Hath triumphed in this awful hour;
And yet our eyes with sorrow see
That life to us was death to thee.

The attractive Influence of the Cross.

- 1 BEHOLD the amazing sight;
The Saviour lifted high!
Behold the Son of God's delight
Expire in agony!
- 2 For whom, for whom, my heart,
Were all these sorrows borne?
Why did he feel that piercing smart,
And meet that various scorn?
- 3 For love of us he bled,
And all in torture died:
'Twas love that bowed his fainting head,
And oped his gushing side.

- 4 I see, and I adore
 In sympathy of love;
I feel the strong, attractive power
 To lift my soul above.
- 5 Drawn by such cords as these,
 Let all the earth combine,
With cheerful ardor, to confess
 The energy divine.
- 6 In thee our hearts unite,
 Nor share thy griefs alone,
But from thy cross pursue their flight
 To thy triumphant throne.

Stabat Mater.

- 1 JEWS were wrought to cruel madness,
Christians fled in fear and sadness,
 Mary stood the cross beside.
- 2 At its foot her foot she planted,
By the dreadful scene undaunted,
 Till the gentle sufferer died.
- 3 Poets oft have sung her story,
Painters decked her brow with glory,
 Priests her name have deified;
- 4 But no worship, song, or glory,
Touches like that simple story,—
 “ Mary stood the cross beside.”
- 5 And when under fierce oppression
Goodness suffers like transgression,
 Christ again is crucified.

- 6 But if love be there, true-hearted,
By no grief or terror parted,
Mary stands the cross beside.

Christ our Example in Suffering.

- 1 Go to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel temptation's power;
Your Redeemer's conflict see;
Watch with him one bitter hour;
Turn not from his griefs away;
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.
- 2 Follow to the judgment-hall;
View the Lord of life arraigned;
O, the wormwood and the gall!
O, the pangs his soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
Learn of him to bear the cross.
- 3 Calvary's mounful mountain climb;
There, admiring at his feet,
Mark that miracle of time,—
God's own sacrifice complete:
"It is finished," hear him cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.
- 4 Early hasten to the tomb,
Where they laid his breathless clay;
All is solitude and gloom;
Who has taken him away?
Christ is risen; he meets our eyes;
Saviour, teach us so to rise.

The Angel at the Tomb.

- 1 THE mourners came, at break of day,
Unto the garden sepulchre,
With saddened hearts to weep and pray
For him, the loved one, buried there.
What radiant light dispels the gloom?
An angel sits beside the tomb.

- 2 The earth doth mourn her treasures lost,
 All sepulchred beneath the snow,
 When wintry winds and chilling frost
 Have laid her summer glories low;
 The spring returns, the flow'rets bloom, —
 An angel sits beside the tomb.
- 3 'Then mourn we not beloved dead,
 E'en while we come to weep and pray;
 The happy spirit hath but fled
 To brighter realms of heavenly day;
 Immortal hope dispels the gloom, —
 An angel sits beside the tomb.

Easter.

- 1 CHRIST the Lord is risen to-day,
 Sons of men and angels say:
 Raise your joys and triumphs high;
 Sing, ye heavens, and earth reply.
- 2 Love's redeeming work is done,
 Fought the fight, the battle won:
 Lo! our Sun's eclipse is o'er;
 Lo! he sets in blood no more.
- 3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal;
 Christ hath burst the gates of hell!
 Death in vain forbids his rise;
 Christ hath opened Paradise!
- 4 Lives again our glorious King:
 Where, O Death, is now thy sting?
 Once he died our souls to save:
 Where thy victory, O Grave?

- 5 Soar we now where Christ has led,
Following our exalted Head;
Made like him, like him we rise;
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.
- 6 Risen with him, we upward move:
Still we seek the things above;
Heaven our aim, and loved abode,
Hid our life with Christ in God.
- 7 Hid, till Christ our life appear,
Glorious in his members here;
Joined to him, we then shall shine,
All immortal, all divine.
- 8 Hail the Lord of earth and heaven!
Praise to thee by both be given!
Thee we greet triumphant now!
Hail the Resurrection thou!
- 9 King of glory, Soul of bliss!
Everlasting life is this,
Thee to know, thy power to prove,
Thus to sing and thus to love.

Resurrection of Christ.

- 1 LIFT your glad voices in triumph on high,
For Jesus hath risen, and man cannot die;
Vain were the terrors that gathered around him,
And short the dominion of death and the grave;
He burst from the fetters of darkness that bound him,
Resplendent in glory, to live and to save:
Loud was the chorus of angels on high, —
The Saviour hath risen and man cannot die.

2 Glory to God, in full anthems of joy,
The being he gave us death cannot destroy :
Sad were the life we must part with to-morrow,
If tears were our birthright, and death were our end ;
But Jesus hath cheered the dark valley of sorrow,
And bade us, immortal, to heaven ascend :
Lift, then, your voices in triumph on high,
For Jesus hath risen, and man shall not die.

O, to the weary, faint, oppressed,
How sweet the bidding "Come to me!"
- 3 When nature shudders, loath to part
From all I love, enjoy, and see;
When a faint chill steals o'er my heart,
A sweet voice utters, "Come to me!"
- 4 O voice of mercy! voice of love!
In conflict, grief, and agony,
Support me, cheer me from above,
And gently whisper, "Come to me!"

Christ. His Life and Death.

- 1 How beauteous were the marks divine,
That in thy meekness used to shine;
That lit thy lonely pathway, trod
In wondrous love, O Son of God!
- 2 O, who like thee, — so calm, so bright,
So pure, so made to live in light?
O, who like thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe?
- 3 O, who like thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
So glorious in humility?
- 4 The bending angels stooped to see
The lisping infant clasp thy knee,
And smile, as in a father's eye,
Upon thy mild divinity.

5 And death, which sets the prisoner free,
Was pang and scoff and scorn to thee ;
Yet love through all thy torture glowed,
And mercy with thy life-blood flowed.

6 O, in thy light be mine to go,
Illuming all my way of woe ;
And give me ever on the road
To trace thy footsteps, Son of God !

Jesus our Leader.

1 FEEBLE, helpless, how shall I
Learn to live and learn to die ?
Who, O God ! my guide shall be ?
Who shall lead thy child to thee ?

2 Blessed Father, gracious One,
Thou hast sent thy holy Son ;
He will give the light I need,
He my trembling steps will lead.

3 Through this world, uncertain, dim,
Let me ever lean on him ;
From his precepts wisdom draw,
Make his life my solemn law.

4 Thus in deed and thought and word,
Led by Jesus Christ, the Lord,
In my weakness thus shall I
Learn to live and learn to die.

5 Learn to live in peace and love,
Like the perfect ones above ;
Learn to die without a fear,
Feeling thee, my Father, near.

The Example of Christ.

- 1 MY dear Redeemer and my Lord,
I read my duty in thy word;
But in thy life the law appears
Drawn out in living characters.
- 2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal,
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe, and make them mine.
- 3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of thy prayer;
The desert thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict and thy victory too.
- 4 Be thou my Pattern; make me bear
More of thy gracious image here;
Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
Amongst the followers of the Lamb.

The Examples of Christ and the Saints.

- 1 GIVE me the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
And bright their glories be.
- 2 Once they were mourning here below,
And wet their couch with tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins and doubts and fears.

3 I ask them whence their victory came ;
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.

4 Our glorious Leader claims our praise,
For his own pattern given,
While the long cloud of witnesses
Show the same path to heaven.

Christian Experience, Praise, Joy, Conflict.

1 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear !
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.

2 It makes the wounded spirit whole
And calms the troubled breast ;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And for the weary, rest.

3 Jesus! my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King;
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

4 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought ;
But, when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.

5 Till then, I would thy love proclaim,
With every fleeting breath ;
And may the music of thy name,
Refresh my soul in death.

A blessed Gospel. Ps. 89.

- 1 BLEST are the souls that hear and know
The gospel's joyful sound;
Peace shall attend the path they go,
And light their steps surround.
- 2 Their joy shall bear their spirits up
Through their Redeemer's name;
His righteousness exalts their hope,
Nor Satan dares condemn.

Strength and salvation gives;

Thy God for ever lives.

Sinai and Sion.

- 1 NOT to the terrors of the Lord,
The tempest, fire, and smoke;
Not to the thunder of that word
Which God on Sinai spoke,—
- 2 But we are come to Sion's hill,
The city of our God,
Where milder words declare his will,
And spread his love abroad.
- 3 Behold the innumerable host
Of angels clothed in light!
Behold the spirits of the just,
Whose faith is turned to sight!

4 The saints on earth and all the dead
But one communion make ;
All join in Christ, their living Head,
And of his grace partake.

My weary soul would rest ;
The man that dwells where Jesus is,
Must be for ever blest.

The Glory of Christ.

1 OH for a thousand tongues, to sing
My great Redeemer's praise ;
The glories of my Lord and King,
The triumphs of his grace.

2 My gracious Master, and my Lord,
Assist me to proclaim,
And spread through all the earth abroad
The honors of thy name.

3 Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease ;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life and health and peace.

4 He breaks the power of reigning sin,
He sets the prisoner free ;
His blood can make the foulest clean ;
His blood availed for me.

5 He speaks ; and, listening to his voice,
New life the dead receive ;
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice ;
The humble poor believe.

- 6 Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come;
And leap, ye lame, for joy.

I am the Way and the Truth and the Life.

- 1 THOU art the Way; and he who sighs,
Amid this starless waste of woe,
'To find a pathway to the skies,
A light from heaven's eternal glow,
By thee must come, thou Gate of love,
Through which the saints undoubting trod,
Till faith discovers, like the dove,
An ark, a resting-place in God.
- 2 Thou art the Truth, whose steady day
Shines on through earthly blight and bloom;
The pure, the everlasting ray;
The Lamp that shines e'en in the tomb;
The Light that out of darkness springs,
And guideth those that blindly go;
The Word whose preeious radiance flings
Its lustre upon all below.
- 3 Thou art the Life, the blessed well
With living waters gushing o'er,
Which those that drink shall ever dwell
Where sin and thirst are known no more.
Thou art the guiding Pillar given,
Our Lamp by night, our Light by day;
Thou art the Sacred Bread from heaven,
Thou art the Life, the Truth, the Way.

Stumbling and falling in disastrous night,
Yet hoping ever for the perfect day.

Christ's Kingdom. Ps. 72.

Does his successive journeys run ;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
- 2 From north to south the princes meet,
To pay their homage at his feet ;
And barbarous nations, at his word,
Submit, and bow, and own their Lord.
- 3 For him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown his head ;
His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.
- 4 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.
- 5 Blessings abound where'er he reigns ;
The prisoner leaps to loose his chains ;
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

Peculiar honors to our King ;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud Amen.

Now give the kingdom to thy Son ;
Extend his power, exalt his throne.

- 2 With power he vindicates the just,
And treads the oppressor in the dust;
His worship and his fear shall last,
Till hours and years and time be past.
- 3 As rain on meadows newly mown,
So shall he send his influence down;
His grace on fainting souls distils,
Like heavenly dew on thirsty hills.
- 4 The heathen lands, that lie beneath
The shades of overspreading death,
Revive at his first dawning light,
And deserts blossom at the sight.
- 5 The saints shall flourish in his days,
Dressed in the robes of joy and praise;
Peace, like a river, from his throne
Shall flow to nations yet unknown.

Singing the Song of the Redeemed.

Around the eternal throne,
Of every kindred, clime, and land,
A multitude unknown.
- 2 Life's poor distinctions vanish here ;
To-day the young, the old,
Our Saviour and his flock appear
One Shepherd and one fold.
- 3 Toil, trial, suffering, still await
On earth the pilgrim's throng,
Yet learn we in our low estate
The church triumphant's song.
- 4 Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,
Cry the redeemed above,
Blessing and honor to obtain,
And everlasting love.
- 5 Worthy the Lamb, on earth we sing,
Who died our souls to save ;
Henceforth, O Death ! where is thy sting ?
Thy victory, O Grave ?
- 6 Then hallelujah ! power and praise
To God in Christ be given ;
May all who now this anthem raise
Renew the song in heaven.

Emblems of the salutary Effects of the Gospel. Isa. lv. 10, 11.

And the diffusive rain :
To heaven, from whence it fell,
It turns not back again ;
But waters earth
Through every pore,
And calls forth all
Its secret store.
- 2 Arrayed in beauteous green,
The hills and valleys shine ;
And man and beast are fed
By Providence divine :
The harvest bows
Its golden ears,
The copious seed
Of future years.
- 3 " So," saith the God of grace,
" My gospel shall descend,
Almighty to effect
The purpose I intend ;
Millions of souls
Shall feel its power,
And bear it down
To millions more."

That holy, happy place,
The new Jerusalem comes down,
Adorned with shining grace.

And the bright armies sing,
“Mortals, behold the sacred seat
Of your descending King.
- 4 “The God of glory down to men
Removes his blest abode ;
Men the dear objects of his grace,
And he the loving God.
- 5 “His own soft hand shall wipe the tears
From every weeping eye,
And pains and groans, and griefs and fears,
And death itself shall die.”

- 1 WHEN God, of old, came down from heaven,
In power and wrath he came;
Before his feet the clouds were riven,
Half darkness and half flame.
- 2 But when he came the second time,
He came in power and love;
Softer than gale at morning prime
Hovered his holy Dove.
- 3 The fires that rushed on Sinai down
In sudden torrents dread,
Now gently light a glorious crown
On every sainted head.
- 4 Like arrows went those lightnings forth,
Winged with the sinner's doom;
But these, like tongues, o'er all the earth
Proclaiming life to come.
- 5 And as on Israel's awe-struck ear
The voice, exceeding loud,
The trump, that angels quake to hear,
Thrilled from the deep, dark cloud:

- 6 So, when the Spirit of our God
Came down his flock to find,
A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
A rushing, mighty wind.

At that high warning start;
Conscience gives back the appalling tone;
'Tis echoed in the heart.

- 1 SPIRIT of truth, on this thy day
To thee for help we cry,
To guide us through the dreary way
Of dark mortality.
- 2 We ask not, Lord, thy cloven flame,
Or tongues of various tone,
But long thy praises to proclaim
With fervor in our own.
- 3 We mourn not that prophetic skill
Is found on earth no more;
Enough for us to trace thy will
In Scripture's sacred lore.
- 4 We neither have nor seek the power
Ill demons to control;
But thou, in dark temptation's hour,
Shalt chase them from the soul.
- 5 No heavenly harpings soothe our ear,
No mystic dreams we share;
Yet hope to feel thy comfort near,
And bless thee in our prayer.

- 6 When tongues shall cease, and power decay,
And knowledge empty prove,
Do thou thy trembling servants stay
With faith, with hope, with love.

- 1 OUR blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
His tender, last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed

- 2 He came in tongues of living flame,
To teach, convince, subdue;
All-powerful as the wind he came,
As viewless too.
- 3 He came sweet influence to impart,

While he can find one humble heart
Wherein to rest.
- 4 And his that gentle voice we hear,
Soft as the breath of even,
That checks each fault, that calms each fear,
And speaks of heaven.
- 5 And every virtue we possess,
And every victory won,
And every thought of holiness,
Are his alone.

DODDRIDGE.

The Influences of the Spirit desired.

- 1 GREAT Father of each perfect gift,
Behold, thy servants wait;
With longing eyes and lifted hands,
We flock around thy gate.
- 2 O, shed abroad that royal gift,
Thy Spirit from above,
To bless our eyes with sacred light,
And fire our hearts with love.
- 3 With speedy flight may he descend,
And solid comfort bring,
And o'er our languid souls extend
His all-reviving wing.
- 4 Blest earnest of eternal joy,
Declare our sins forgiven,
And bear with energy divine
Our raptured thoughts to heaven.
- 5 Diffuse, O God! these copious showers,
That earth its fruit may yield;
And change this barren wilderness
To Carmel's flowery field.

Breathing after the Holy Spirit.

- 1 COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love,
In these cold hearts of ours.
- 2 Look, how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys !
Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.
- 3 In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise ;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.
- 4 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers ;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

Divine Aid implored.

- 1 THINE influence, mighty God, is felt,
Through nature's ample round ;
In heaven, on earth, through air and skies,
Thy energy is found.
- 2 Thy sacred influence, Lord, we need,
To form our hearts anew ;
O, cleanse our souls from every sin,
And thy salvation show.

- 3 Father of light, thine aid impart,
To guide our doubtful way;
Thy truth shall scatter every cloud,
And make a glorious day.
- 4 Supported by thy heavenly grace,
We'll do and bear thy will;
That grace shall make each burden light,
And every murmur still.
- 5 Cheered by thy smiles, we'll fearless tread
The gloomy path of death,
And, with the hopes of endless bliss,
To thee resign our breath.

The Presence and Influence of God desired.

- 1 COME, dearest Lord, descend and dwell
By faith and love in every breast;
Then shall we know and taste and feel
The joys that cannot be expressed.
- 2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength,
Make our enlargèd souls possess
And learn the height and breadth and length
Of thine unmeasurable grace.
- 3 Now to the God whose power can do
More than our thoughts or wishes know,
Be everlasting honors done
By all the church, through Christ his Son.

Prayer for spiritual and eternal Blessings.

- 1 ETERNAL Source of life and light,
Supremely good and wise,
To thee we bring our grateful vows,
To thee lift up our eyes.
- 2 Our dark and erring minds illumine
With truth's celestial rays;
Inspire our hearts with sacred love,
And tune our lips to praise.
- 3 Safely conduct us, by thy grace,
Through life's perplexing road,
And place us, when that journey's o'er,
At thy right hand, O God!

A Blessing requested.

- 1 COME, thou soul-transforming Spirit,
Bless the sower and the seed;
Let each heart thy grace inherit;
Raise the weak, the hungry feed;
From the gospel
Now supply thy people's need.
- 2 O, may all enjoy the blessing
Which thy word's designed to give;
Let us all, thy love possessing,
Joyfully the truth receive;
And for ever
To thy praise and glory live.

Seeking the Knowledge of God.

- 1 SHINE forth, eternal Source of light,
And make thy glories known;
Fill our enlarged, adoring sight
With lustre all thy own.
- 2 Vain are the charms, and faint the rays,
The brightest creatures boast;
And all their grandeur and their praise
Is in thy presence lost.
- 3 To know the Author of our frame
Is our sublimest skill;
True science is to read thy name,
True life, to obey thy will.
- 4 For this I long, for this I pray,
And following on pursue,
Till visions of eternal day
Fix and complete the view.

Prayer for Prudence and Wisdom.

- 1 FATHER of light, conduct my feet
Through life's dark, dangerous road;
Let each advancing step still bring
Me nearer to my God.
- 2 Let heaven-eyed prudence be my guide;
And when I go astray,
Recall my feet from folly's path,
To wisdom's better way.

- 3 Teach me, in every various scene,
 To keep my end in sight;
 And, while I tread life's mazy track,
 Let wisdom guide me right.
- 4 That heavenly wisdom from above,
 Abundantly impart;
 And let it guard and guide and warm
 And penetrate my heart,—
- 5 Till it shall lead me to thyself,
 Fountain of bliss and love,
 And all my darkness be dispersed
 In endless light above.

Teachings of the Spirit.

- 1 COME, blessed Spirit, Source of light,
 Whose power and grace are unconfined,
 Dispel the gloomy shades of night,
 The thicker darkness of the mind.

- 2 To mine illumined eyes display
The glorious truth thy word reveals;
Cause me to run the heavenly way;
The book unfold, unloose the seals.
- 3 Thine inward teachings make me know,
The mysteries of redeeming love,
The emptiness of things below,
The excellence of things above.
- 4 While through this dubious maze I stray,
Spread, like the sun, thy beams abroad,
To show the dangers of the way,
And guide my feeble steps to God.

Veni, Spiritus Sancte.

- 1 HOLY Spirit, Lord of light,
From thy clear celestial height,
Thy pure beaming radiance give;
Come, thou Father of the poor,
Come with treasures which endure;
Come, thou Light of all that live!
- 2 Thou of all consolers best,
Visiting the troubled breast,
Dost refreshing peace bestow;
Thou in toil art comfort sweet,
Pleasant coolness in the heat,
Solace in the midst of woe.
- 3 Light immortal, Light divine,
Visit thou these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill;
If thou take thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man can stay,
And his good is turned to ill.

- 4 Thou on those who evermore
Thee confess and thee adore,
In thy sevenfold gifts descend;
Give them comfort when they die,
Give them life with thee on high,
Give them joys which never end.

And make us know and choose thy way;
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.
- 3 Lead us to holiness, the road
That we must take to dwell with God;
Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from his precepts stray.

Lead us to heaven, the seat of bliss,

Deign from thy throne to look on me,
And hear my lowly litany.
- 3 Lead me, O Spirit! to the Son,
To taste and feel what he has done;
To lay me low before his cross,
And reckon all besides as dross.

Wisdom and Virtue sought from God.

- 1 SUPREME and universal Light!
Fountain of reason! Judge of right!
Parent of good! whose blessings flow
On all above and all below, —
- 2 Assist us, Lord, to act, to be,
What nature and thy laws decree;
Worthy that intellectual flame,
Which from thy breathing spirit came.
- 3 May our expanded souls disclaim
The narrow view, the selfish aim,
But with a Christian zeal embrace
Whate'er is friendly to our race.
- 4 O Father, grace and virtue grant:

To know, to serve thee, and to love,
Is peace below, is bliss above.

For Steadiness of Principle.

- 1 AMIDST a world of hopes and fears,
A wild of cares and toils and tears,
Where foes alarm, and dangers threat,
And pleasures kill, and glories cheat, —
- 2 Shed down, O Lord! a heavenly ray,
To guide me in the doubtful way;
And o'er me hold thy shield of power,
To guard me in the dangerous hour.

- 3 Teach me the flattering paths to shun,
In which the thoughtless many run,
Who for a shade the substance miss,
And grasp their ruin in their bliss.
- 4 May never pleasure, wealth, or pride,
Allure my wandering soul aside,
But, through this maze of mortal ill,
Safe lead me to thy heavenly hill.

Speak the words approved by thee;

Choice of the better Part.

- 1 BESET with snares on every hand,
In life's uncertain path I stand;
Saviour divine, diffuse thy light,
To guide my doubtful footsteps right.

- 2 Engage this roving, treacherous heart
To fix on Mary's better part,
To scorn the trifles of a day
For joys that none can take away.
- 3 Then let the wildest storms arise,
Let tempests mingle earth and skies,
No fatal shipwreck shall I fear,
But all my treasures with me bear.
- 4 If thou, my Saviour, still be nigh,
Cheerful I live, and joyful die ;
Secure, when mortal comforts flee,
To find ten thousand worlds in thee.

Prayer for quickening Grace. Ps. 119.

- 1 MY soul lies cleaving to the dust ;
Lord, give me life divine ;
From vain desires and every lust
Turn off these eyes of mine.
- 2 I need the influence of thy grace,
To speed me in my way,
Lest I should loiter in my race,
Or turn my feet astray.
- 3 When sore afflictions press me down,
I need thy quickening powers ;
Thy word, that I have rested on,
Shall help my heaviest hours.
- 4 Then shall I love thy gospel more,
And ne'er forget thy word,
When I have felt its quickening power
To draw me near the Lord.

What is Prayer?

- 1 PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed,
The motion of a hidden fire,
That trembles in the breast.
- 2 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try ;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.
- 3 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gates of death ;
He enters heaven with prayer.
- 4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways ;
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry, " Behold, he prays !"
- 5 The saints in prayer appear as one
In word and deed and mind ;
While with the Father and the Son
Sweet fellowship they find.
- 6 O thou by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way !
The path of prayer thyself hast trod,
Lord, teach us how to pray.

Prayer and Hope. Ps. 27.

- 1 SOON as I heard my Father say,
 “Ye children, seek my grace,”
My heart replied without delay,
 “I’ll seek my Father’s face.”
- 2 Should friends and kindred, near and dear,
 Leave me to want or die,
My God would make my life his care,
 And all my need supply.
- 3 My fainting flesh had died with grief,
 Had not my soul believed
To see thy grace provide relief;
 Nor was my hope deceived.
- 4 Wait on the Lord, ye trembling saints,
 And keep your courage up;
He’ll raise your spirit when it faints,
 And far exceed your hope.

Quiet Worship.

- 1 OPEN, Lord, mine inward ear,
 And bid my heart rejoice;
Bid my quiet spirit hear
 The comfort of thy voice;
Never in the whirlwind found,
Or where earthquakes rock the place,
Still and silent is the sound,
 The whisper of thy grace.

- 2 From the world of sin and noise
And hurry I withdraw ;
For the small and inward voice
I wait with humble awe ;
Silent am I now, and still,
Will not in thy presence move ;
To my waiting soul reveal
The secret of thy love !

Habitual Devotion.

- 1 WHILE thee I seek, protecting Power,
Be my vain wishes stilled ;
And may this consecrated hour
With better hopes be filled.
- 2 Thy love the powers of thought bestowed ;
To thee my thoughts would soar :
Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed ;
'That mercy I adore.
- 3 In each event of life, how clear
Thy ruling hand I see !
Each blessing to my soul more dear,
Because conferred by thee.
- 4 In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.
- 5 When gladness wings my favored hour,
Thy love my thoughts shall fill ;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet thy will.

- 6 My lifted eye, without a tear,
The gathering storm shall see :
My steadfast heart shall know no fear ;
That heart shall rest on thee.

Preparation of the Heart.

- 1 LORD, teach us how to pray aright,
With reverence and with fear ;
Though dust and ashes in thy sight,
We may, we must, draw near.
- 2 Burdened with guilt, convinced of sin,
In weakness, want, and woe,
Fightings without and fears within,
Lord, whither shall we go ?
- 3 God of all grace, we come to thee,
With broken, contrite hearts ;
Give what thine eye delights to see,
Truth in the inward parts.
- 4 Give deep humility ; the sense
Of godly sorrow give ;
A strong desiring confidence
To hear thy voice and live ;
- 5 Patience to watch and wait and weep,
Though mercy long delay ;
Courage, our fainting souls to keep,
And trust thee, though thou slay, —
- 6 Give these, and then thy will be done ;
Thus strengthened with all might,
We, by thy Spirit and thy Son,
Shall pray, and pray aright.

- 1 OH help us, Lord! each hour of need
Thy heavenly succor give;
Help us in thought and word and deed
Each hour on earth we live.
- 2 Oh help us, when our spirits bleed,
With contrite anguish sore,
And, when our hearts are cold and dead,
Oh help us, Lord, the more.
- 3 Oh help us, through the prayer of faith,
More firmly to believe;
For still the more the servant hath,
The more shall he receive.

Oh! help us so to live and die

Abide with me.

- 1 ABIDE with me, fast falls the even-tide;
The darkness thickens; Lord, with me abide;
While other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.
- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

- 3 Come not in terrors as the King of kings,
But kind and good, with healing on thy wings;
Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea,
Come, friend of sinners, thus abide with me.
- 4 Thou on my head in early youth didst smile;
And, though rebellious and perverse meanwhile,
Thou hast not left me, oft as I left thee;
O, to the close, O Lord! abide with me.
- 5 I need thy presence every passing hour:
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O, abide with me.
- 6 I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless,
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness;
Where is Death's sting? Where, Grave, thy victory?
I triumph still if thou abide with me.
- 7 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord! abide with me.

 Lend but one voice, — the voice of thee alone.

3 Come! for I need thy love,
 More than the flower the dew, or grass the rain;
 Come, like thy holy Dove,
 And let me in thy sight rejoice to live again.

4 Yes, thou wilt visit me;

 'To every new-born soul 'tis given
 A present God to know.
- 3 The vision of thy face

 While o'er my spirit flows the grace
 That kindles all her fires.
- 4 Though on my saddened heart
 The gloom of night should lie,
 Faith shall not fail nor hope depart,
 If I but feel thee nigh.

Heavenly Love.

- 1 LOVE divine, all love excelling,
Joy of heaven, to earth come down;
Live in us thy humble dwelling,
All thy faithful mercies crown.
Father, thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter every longing heart.
- 2 Breathe, oh ! breathe thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast;
Let us all thy peace inherit,
Let us find thy promised rest.
Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve thee as thine host above;
Pray, and praise thee without ceasing,
Glory in thy boundless love.
- 3 Finish, then, thy new creation;
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see our whole salvation,
Perfectly restored in thee;
Changed from glory unto glory,
Till in heaven our songs we raise;
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Jesus the Life of Men.

- 1 JESUS, thou Joy of loving hearts!
Thou Fount of life! thou Light of men!
From the best bliss that earth imparts
We turn unfilled to thee again.
- 2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou savest those that on thee call;
To them that seek thee thou art good,
To them that find thee, all in all.
- 3 We taste thee, O thou Living Bread,
And long to feast upon thee still!
We drink of thee, the Fountain Head,
And thirst our souls from thee to fill!
- 4 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad, when thy gracious smile we see,
Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.
- 5 O Jesus! ever with us stay,
Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away,
Shed o'er the world thy holy light.

Thee will I love, my joy, my crown;
Thee will I love with all my power
In all thy works, and thee alone;
Thee will I love till sacred fire
Fills my whole soul with pure desire.

- 2 I thank thee, uncreated Sun,
That thy bright beams on me have shined;
I thank thee, who hast overthrown
My foes and healed my wounded mind;
I thank thee, whose enlivening voice
Bids my freed heart in thee rejoice.
- 3 Uphold me in the upward race,
Nor suffer me again to stray;
Strengthen my feet with steady pace,
Still to press forward in thy way:
Let all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory now unite.
- 4 Thee will I love, my joy, my crown;
Thee will I love, my Lord, my God;
Thee will I love beneath thy frown
Or smile, thy sceptre or thy rod;
What though my flesh and heart decay,
Thee shall I love in endless day.

Christ our Home.

- 1 LONG did I toil, and knew no earthly rest;
Far did I rove, and found no certain home;
At last I sought them in his sheltering breast,
Who opes his arms and bids the weary come:
With him I found a home, a rest divine;
And I since then am his and he is mine.
- 2 The good I have is from his stores supplied;
The ill is only what he deems the best;
He for my friend, I'm rich with nought beside;
And poor without him, though of all possessed:
Changes may come; I take or I resign;
Content, while I am his and he is mine.
- 3 Whate'er may change, in him no change is seen;
A glorious Sun that wanes not nor declines,
Above the clouds and storms he walks serene,
And sweetly on his people's darkness shines:
All may depart; I fret not, nor repine,
While I my Saviour's am, while He is mine.
- 4 While here, alas! I know but half his love,
But half discern him, and but half adore;
But, when I meet him in the realms above,
I hope to love him better, praise him more,
And feel and tell, amid the choir divine,
How fully I am his and he is mine.

God our Joy.

The life of my delights,
The glory of my brightest days,
And comfort of my nights!
- 2 In darkest shades, if he appear,
My dawning is begun!
He is my soul's sweet morning star,
And he my rising sun.
- 3 The opening heavens around me shine,
With beams of sacred bliss,
While Jesus shows his heart is mine,
And whispers, "I am his!"
- 4 My soul would leave this heavy clay,
At that transporting word,
Run up with joy the shining way,
To embrace my dearest Lord.
- 5 Fearless of hell and ghastly death,
I'd break through every foe;
The wings of love and arms of faith
Should bear me conqueror through.

The Voice of Jesus.

- 1 I HEARD the voice of Jesus say,
Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon my breast.

I came to Jesus as I was,
 Weary and worn and sad;
 I found in him a resting-place,
 And he has made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 Behold, I freely give
 The living water: thirsty one,
 Stoop down and drink, and live.
 I came to Jesus, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream;
 My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 And now I live in him.

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 I am this dark world's light;
 Look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
 And all thy day be bright.
 I looked to Jesus, and I found
 In him my star, my sun;
 And in that light of life I'll walk,
 Till travelling days are done.

 For men on earth no work can do
 More angel-like than this.

 It triumphs at his cost.

4 Ill that God blesses is our good,
 And unblest good is ill;
 And all is right that seems most wrong,

FABER.

Perfection.

- 1 God only is the creatures' home,
Though long and rough the road;
Yet nothing less can satisfy
The love that longs for God.
- 2 O, utter but the name of God,
Down in your heart of hearts,
And see how from the world at once
All tempting light departs.
- 3 A trusting heart, a yearning eye,
Can win their way above;
If mountains can be moved by faith,
Is there less power in love?
- 4 How little of that road, my soul,
How little hast thou gone!
Take heart, and let the thought of God
Allure thee further on.
- 5 Be docile to thine unseen Guide,
Love him as he loves thee;
Time and obedience are enough,
And thou a saint shalt be!

Heavenly Joy on Earth.

- 1 COME, we that love the Lord,
And let our joys be known;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.
- 2 Let those refuse to sing,
That never knew our God;
But children of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.
- 3 This awful God is ours,
Our Father and our Love;
He shall send down his heavenly powers
To carry us above.
- 4 There shall we see his face,
And never, never sin;
There, from the rivers of his grace,
Drink endless pleasures in.
- 5 Yes, and before we rise
To that immortal state,
The thoughts of such amazing bliss
Should constant joys create.
- 6 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below;
Celestial fruits on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow.
- 7 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching, through Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high.

Joy and Peace in believing.

- 1 SOMETIMES a light surprises
The Christian while he sings;
It is the Lord, who rises
With healing on his wings;
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.
- 2 In holy contemplation,
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new;
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
E'en let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.
- 3 It can bring with it nothing
But he will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing
Will clothe his people too;
Beneath the spreading heavens
No creature but is fed;
And he who feeds the ravens
Will give his children bread.
- 4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither
Their wonted fruit shall bear,
Though all the field should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there;

Yet God the same abiding,
 His praise shall tune my voice ;
 For, while in him confiding,
 I cannot but rejoice.

The Request.

- 1 WHEN I survey life's varied scene,
 Amid the darkest hours
 Sweet rays of comfort shine between,
 And thorns are mixed with flowers.
- 2 And, Lord, whate'er of earthly bliss
 Thy sovereign will denies,
 Accepted at thy throne of grace
 Let this petition rise: —
- 3 " Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
 From every murmur free ;
 The blessings of thy grace impart,
 And let me live to thee.
- 4 " Let the sweet hope that thou art mine
 My life and death attend ;
 Thy presence through my journey shine,
 And bless its happy end."

The Bread of Life.

- 1 O KING of earth and air and sea,
 The hungry ravens cry to thee ;
 To thee the scaly tribes that sweep
 The bosom of the boundless deep.

- 2 Thy bounteous hand with food can bless
The bleak and lonely wilderness;
And thou hast taught us, Lord, to pray
For daily bread from day to day.
- 3 And, O, when through the wilds we roam,
That part us from our heavenly home;
When lost in danger, want, and woe,
Our faithless tears begin to flow, —
- 4 Do thou thy gracious comfort give,
By which alone the soul may live;
And grant thy servants, Lord, we pray,
The bread of life from day to day.

Joy from the Presence of God.

- 1 SHINE on our souls, eternal God,
With rays of beauty shine;
O, let thy favor crown our days,
And all their round be thine.
- 2 Did we not raise our hands to thee,
Our hands might toil in vain;
Small joy success itself could give,
If thou thy love restrain.
- 3 With thee let every week begin;
With thee each day be spent;
For thee each fleeting hour improved,
Since each by thee is lent.
- 4 Thus cheer us through this desert road,
Till all our labors cease,
And heaven refresh our weary souls
With everlasting peace.

Safety in God. Ps. 46.

- 1 God is the refuge of his saints,
When storms of sharp distress invade ;
Ere we can offer our complaints,
Behold him present with his aid.
- 2 Let mountains from their seats be hurled
Down to the deep, and buried there,
Convulsions shake the solid world, —
Our faith shall never yield to fear.
- 3 Loud may the troubled ocean roar ;
In sacred peace our souls abide ;
While every nation, every shore,
Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.
- 4 There is a stream whose gentle flow
Supplies the city of our God,
Life, love, and joy still gliding through,
And watering our divine abode.
- 5 That sacred stream thine holy word,
That all our raging fear controls ;
Sweet peace thy promises afford,
And give new strength to fainting souls.
- 6 Zion enjoys her Monarch's love,
Secure against a threatening hour ;
Nor can her firm foundations move,
Built on his truth and armed with power.

Desires for Holiness.

- 1 O FOR a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free ;
A heart that always feels the blood
So freely spilt for me.
- 2 O for an humble, trustful heart,
Believing, true, and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From him who dwells within ;
- 3 A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine,
Perfect and right, and pure and good,
Conformed, O Lord ! to thine.
- 4 Thy Spirit, gracious Lord, impart ;
Come quickly from above ;
O, write thy name upon my heart !
Thy name, O God ! is love.

Holy Desires.

- 1 GOD, who is just and kind,
Will those who err instruct,
And to the paths of righteousness
Their wandering steps conduct.
- 2 The humble soul he guides,
Teaches the meek his way ;
Kindness and truth he shows to all
Who his just laws obey.

- 3 Give me the tender heart
That mixes fear with love,
And lead me through whatever path
Thy wisdom shall approve.
- 4 O, ever keep my soul
From error, shame, and guilt;
Nor suffer the fair hope to fail,
Which on thy truth is built.

Ask, and ye shall receive.

- 1 WHAT shall we ask of God in prayer?
Whatever good we want;
Whatever man may seek to share,
Or God in wisdom grant.
- 2 Father of all our mercies, thou
In whom we move and live,
Hear us in heaven, thy dwelling, now,
And answer, and forgive.
- 3 When, harassed by ten thousand foes,
Our helplessness we feel,
O give the weary soul repose,
The wounded spirit heal.
- 4 When dire temptations gather round,
And threaten or allure,
By storm or calm, in thee be found
A refuge strong and sure.
- 5 When age advances, may we grow
In faith, in hope, and love;
And walk in holiness below
To holiness above.

- 6 When earthly joys and cares depart,
Desire and envy cease,
Be thou the portion of our heart ;
In thee may we have peace.

God our only Refuge.

- 1 JESUS, Lover of my soul,
Let me to thy shelter fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high.
Hide me, O my Saviour! hide,
Till the storm of life be past ;
Safe into the haven guide ;
O, receive my soul at last !
- 2 Other refuge have I none ;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee :
Leave, O leave me not alone ;
Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on thee is stayed :
All my help from thee I bring ;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing.
- 3 Plenteous grace with thee is found ;
Cleanse me, Lord, from every sin :
Let the healing streams abound ;
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art ;
Freely let me take of thee :
Spring thou up within my heart ;
Rise to all eternity.

A rest where pure enjoyment reigns,
And thou art loved alone;

Is fixed on things above;
Where fear and sin and grief expire,
Cast out by perfect love.
- 3 O that I now the rest might know,
Believe and enter in!
Now, Father, now the power bestow,
And let me cease from sin!

All unbelief remove;
To me the rest of faith impart,
The sabbath of thy love.

Thy peace and joy and righteousness
In all our bosoms reign,—

- 3 The righteousness that never ends,
But makes an end of sin ;
The joy that human thought transcends,
Into our souls bring in ;

Which can no more remove ;
The perfect powers of godliness,
The omnipotence of love.

That never pains again.
- 3 Come, kingdom of our God,
And make the broad earth thine ;
Stretch o'er her lands and isles the rod
That flowers with grace divine.

With fruit from life's glad tree ;
And in its shade like brothers rest,

A Father's Care.

- 1 Is there a lone and dreary hour,
When worldly pleasures lose their power?
My Father, let me turn to thee,
And set each thought of darkness free.
- 2 Is there a time of racking grief,
Which scorns the prospect of relief?
My Father, break the cheerless gloom,
And bid my heart its calm resume.
- 3 Is there an hour of peace and joy,
When hope is all my soul's employ?
My Father, still my hopes will roam,
Until they rest with thee their home.
- 4 The noontide blaze, the midnight scene,
The dawn, or twilight's sweet serene,
The glow of health, the dying hour,
Shall own my Father's grace and power.

Seeking after God

- 1 THOU hidden love of God, whose height,
Whose depth unfathomed no man knows;
I see from far thy beauteous light,
Inly I sigh for thy repose.
My heart is pained; nor can it be
At rest, till it find rest in thee.

- 2 Thy secret voice invites me still
The sweetness of thy yoke to prove;
And fain I would; but though my will
Seem fixed, yet wide my passions rove;
Yet hindrances strew all the way;
I aim at thee, yet from thee stray.
- 3 'Tis mercy all, that thou hast brought
My mind to seek her peace in thee;
Yet, while I seek, but find thee not,
No peace my wandering soul shall see.
O when shall all my wanderings end,
And all my steps to thee-ward tend!
- 4 Is there a thing beneath the sun
That strives with thee my heart to share?
Ah! tear it thence, and reign alone,
The Lord of every motion there.
Then shall my heart from earth be free,
When it hath found repose in thee.

My thirsty soul doth pine;

 Pants the living God to see;
 When, O, when, with filial fear,
 Lord, shall I to thee draw near?

 Why art thou disquieted?
 God shall lift thy fallen head,

 Be the saving health of thine.

 A calm and heavenly frame,
 A light to shine upon the road
 That leads me to the Lamb!

 When first I saw the Lord?
 Where is the soul-refreshing view
 Of Jesus and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
 How sweet their memory still!
 But they have left an aching void

 This prayer shall make it more divine:
 "Thy will be done!"

 Our path with gloom, one comfort, one,

 Time shall soon this earth remove;
 Rise, my soul, and haste away
 To seats prepared above.

To rest in his embrace.

Vanish as though I saw them not,

Than we can hear a shaking leaf
While rattling thunders round us roar.

When I am wholly thine :
Thy will, my God, thy will be done,
And let that will be mine,
- 2 All-wise, almighty, and all-good,
In thee I firmly trust ;
Thy ways, unknown or understood,
Are merciful and just.
- 3 May I remember that to thee
Whate'er I have I owe ;
And back in gratitude from me
May all thy bounties flow.
- 4 Thy gifts are only then enjoyed,
When used as talents lent ;
Those talents only well employed
When in thy service spent.
- 5 And though thy wisdom takes away,
Shall I arraign thy will ?
No : let me bless thy name, and say,
“ The Lord is gracious still.”
- 6 A pilgrim through the earth I roam,
Of nothing long possessed ;
And all must fail when I go home,
For this is not my rest.

- 2 We ask not golden streams of wealth
Along our path to flow;
We ask not undecaying health,
Nor length of years below;—
- 3 We ask not honors, which an hour
May bring and take away;
We ask not pleasure, pomp, and power,
Lest we should go astray;—
- 4 We ask for wisdom: Lord, impart
The knowledge how to live;
A wise and understanding heart
To all before thee give.
- 5 The young remember thee in youth,
Before the evil days!
The old be guided by thy truth,
In wisdom's pleasant ways!

Thine hand unseen upholds my ways;

 Dearer than all beside to me;
 For whom have I in heaven above,
 Or what on earth, compared with thee?

Sins confessed and mourned.

- 1 God of mercy, God of love,
Hear our sad, repentant song;
Sorrow dwells on every face,
Penitence on every tongue.
- 2 Deep regret for follies past,
Talents wasted, time misspent;
Hearts debased by worldly cares,
Thankless for the blessings lent;—
- 3 Foolish fears and fond desires,
Vain regrets for things as vain;
Lips too seldom taught to praise,
Oft to murmur and complain,—
- 4 These, and every secret fault,
Filled with grief and shame, we own;
Humbled at thy feet we lie,
Seeking pardon from thy throne.

Hear our sad, repentant songs;
O, restore thy suppliant race,
Thou to whom all praise belongs.

Lord, have Mercy.

1 LORD, have mercy when we pray
 Strength to seek a better way:
 When our wakening thoughts begin
 First to loathe their cherished sin;
 When our weary spirits fail,
 And our aching brows are pale, —
 Then thy strengthening grace afford;
 Then, O, then, have mercy, Lord!

2 Lord, have mercy when we know
 First how vain this world below:
 When its darker thoughts oppress,
 Doubts perplex, and fears distress;
 When the earliest gleam is given
 Of the bright but distant heaven, —
 Then thy strengthening grace afford;
 Then, O, then, have mercy, Lord!

Seeking Pardon and Aid. Ps. 51.

1 CREATE my nature pure within,
 And form my soul averse to sin;
 Let thy good Spirit ne'er depart,
 Nor hide thy presence from my heart.

2 I cannot live without thy light,
 Cast out and banished from thy sight;
 Thy holy joys, my God, restore,
 And guard me, that I fall no more.

3 A broken heart, my God, my King,
 Is all the sacrifice I bring:
 The God of grace will ne'er despise
 A broken heart for sacrifice.

- 4 O, may thy love inspire my tongue!
Salvation shall be all my song;
And all my powers shall join to bless
The Lord, my Strength and Righteousness.

Penitential. Ps. 25.

- 1 I LIFT my heart to thee,
My God and Guide most just;
Now suffer me to take no shame,
For in thee do I trust.
- 2 Remember not the faults
And frailty of my youth;
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.
- 3 Nor after my deserts
Let me thy mercy find;
But of thine own benignity,
Lord, have me in thy mind.
- 4 His mercy is full sweet,
His truth a perfect guide;
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
And such as go aside.
- 5 For all the ways of God
Are truth and mercy both;
To them that keep his testament,
The witness of his troth.

Regrets for a Neglect of Privileges.

Of thy salvation, Lord;
But still how weak my faith is found,
And knowledge of thy word!
- 2 How cold and feeble is my love!
How negligent my fear!
How low my hope of joys above!
How few affections there!
- 3 Great God, thy sovereign power impart,
To give thy word success;
Write thy salvation in my heart,
And make me learn thy grace.
- 4 Show my forgetful feet the way
That leads to joys on high;
There knowledge grows without decay,
And love shall never die.

The wandering Sheep recovered.

- 1 LORD, we have wandered from thy way,
Like foolish sheep have gone astray;
Our pleasant pastures we have left,
And of their guard our souls bereft;
- 2 Exposed to want, exposed to harm;
Far from our gentle Shepherd's arm;
Nor will these fatal wanderings cease,
Till thou reveal the paths of peace.

- 3 O, seek thy thoughtless servants, Lord,
Nor let us quite forget thy word;
Our erring souls do thou restore,
And keep us, that we stray no more.

Imploring Forgiveness and Renewal of Heart.

- 1 FORGIVE us, for thy mercy's sake,
Our multitude of sins forgive!
And for thy own possession take,
And bid us to thy glory live:
Live in thy sight, and gladly prove
Our faith, by our obedient love.
- 2 The covenant of forgiveness seal,
And all thy mighty wonders show!
Our hidden enemies expel,
And conquering them to conquer go,
Till all of pride and wrath be slain,
And not one evil thought remain!
- 3 O put it in our inward parts, —
The living law of perfect love!
Write the new precept on our hearts:
We shall not then from thee remove,
Who in thy glorious image shine,
Thy people, and for ever thine!

To thee, O Lord! I cry;
Darkness surrounds me, yet I know
That thou art ever nigh.

- 2 I cast my hopes on thee ;
Thou canst, thou wilt forgive ;
If thou shouldst mark iniquity,
Who in thy sight could live ?
- 3 I wait for thee ; I wait,
Confessing all my sin :
Lord ! I am knocking at thy gate ;
Open, and take me in.
- 4 Glory to God above !
The waters soon will cease ;
For lo ! the swift-returning dove
Brings home the pledge of peace.

Jehovah's covenant is sure,

But not a resting-place above

On restless wing to roam ;
All the wide world, to either pole,
Has not for thee a home.
- 3 Behold the Ark of God,
Behold the open door !
Hasten to gain that dear abode,
And rove, my soul, no more.

 There sweet shall be thy rest,

The Issues of Life and Death.

- 1 O WHERE shall rest be found,
 Rest for the weary soul ?
 'Twere vain the ocean depths to sound,
 Or pierce to either pole.
- 2 The world can never give
 The bliss for which we sigh ;
 'Tis not the whole of life to live,
 Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
 There is a life above,
 Unmeasured by the flight of years ;
 And all that life is love.
- 4 There is a death, whose pang
 Outlasts the fleeting breath ;
 O what appalling horrors hang
 Around the "second death" !
- 5 Lord God of truth and grace,
 Teach us that death to shun,
 Lest we be banished from thy face
 And utterly undone.
- 6 Here would we end our quest ;
 Alone are found in thee
 The life of perfect love, the rest
 Of immortality.

Pardon and Peace.

- 1 BEFORE thy mercy's throne,
Thy succor, Lord, we seek;
For thou art good and great alone;
All helpless we and weak.
- 2 Like sheep that go astray,
Our wilful course we've run,
From what thou would'st have turned away,
And what thou would'st not done.
- 3 To us belong dismay
Of heart, and shame of face;
To thee, our sorrows to allay,
And all our guilt efface;
- 4 To us, confession meek,
The penitential prayer;
To thee, the words of peace to speak,
The contrite heart to spare.
- 5 Pour, for the Saviour's sake,
Thy Spirit's healthful dew
On those who fain would sin forsake,
And thy pure ways pursue.

We walk by Faith, not by Sight.

- 1 'Tis by the faith of joys to come
We walk through deserts dark as night;
Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

- 2 The want of sight she well supplies ;
 She makes the pearly gates appear ;
 Far into distant worlds she pries,
 And brings eternal glories near.
- 3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
 While faith inspires a heavenly ray,
 Though lions roar and tempests blow,
 And rocks and dangers fill the way.
- 4 So Abra'm, by divine command,
 Left his own house to walk with God ;
 His faith beheld the promised land,
 And fired his zeal along the road.

The Hope of Man.

- 1 THE past is dark with sin and shame,
 The future dim with doubt and fear ;
 But, Father, yet we praise thy name,
 Whose guardian love is always near.
- 2 For man has striven, ages long,
 With faltering steps to come to thee ;
 And in each purpose high and strong
 The influence of thy grace could see.
- 3 He could not breathe an earnest prayer,
 But thou wast kinder than he dreamed,
 As age by age brought hopes more fair,
 And nearer still thy kingdom seemed.
- 4 But never rose within his breast
 A trust so calm and deep as now ;
 Shall not the weary find a rest ?
 Father, Preserver, answer thou !

- 5 'Tis dark around, 'tis dark above,
But through the shadow streams the sun;
We cannot doubt thy certain love;
And man's true aim shall yet be won!

Love to God.

- 1 HAPPY the heart where graces reign,
Where love inspires the breast;
Love is the brightest of the train,
And strengthens all the rest.
- 2 Knowledge, alas! 'tis all in vain,
And all in vain our fear;
Our stubborn sins will fight and reign,
If love be absent there.
- 3 This is the grace that lives and sings
When faith and hope shall cease;
'Tis this shall strike our joyful strings
In the sweet realms of bliss.
- 4 Before we quite forsake our clay,
Or leave this dark abode,
The wings of love bear us away,
To see our smiling God.

Sincere Love to Christ.

- 1 Do not I love thee, O my Lord?
Behold my heart, and see;
And turn each worthless idol out,
That dares to rival thee.

- 2 Is not thy name melodious still
To my attentive ear?
Doth not each pulse with pleasure bound
My Saviour's voice to hear?
- 3 Hast thou a lamb, in all thy flock,
I would disdain to feed?
Hast thou a foe, before whose face
I fear thy cause to plead?
- 4 Would not my heart pour forth its blood
In honor of thy name,
And challenge the cold hand of death
To damp the immortal flame?
- 5 Thou know'st I love thee, dearest Lord;
But, O, I long to soar
Far from the sphere of mortal joys,
And learn to love thee more.

Faith, Hope, and Charity.

- 1 FAITH, hope, and charity, these three,
Yet is the greatest charity;
Father of lights, these gifts impart
To mine and every human heart.
- 2 Faith, that in prayer can never fail,
Hope, that o'er doubting must prevail,
And charity, whose name above
Is God's own name, for God is love.
- 3 The morning star is lost in light,
Faith vanishes at perfect sight,
The rainbow passes with the storm,
And hope with sorrow's fading form.

- 4 But charity, serene, sublime,
Beyond the reach of death and time,
Like the blue sky's all-bounding space,
Holds heaven and earth in its embrace.

Thy wisdom guides, thy power defends
Their life, till life its journey ends.
- 3 O that my soul, with awful sense
Of thy transcendent excellence,
May close the day, the day begin,
Watchful against each darling sin.

May this great principle depart,
But act, with unabating power,
Within me to my latest hour!

Assist me still my course to run,
And still direct my paths to thee.

But to my loving Father's breast ;
Secure within thine arms to lie,
And safe beneath thy wings to rest ?

But thou, O God! my wisdom art :

Shall I resist them both?

Drives all these thoughts away.

Nearer to Thee.

Nearer to thee!
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me;
Still all my song shall be, —
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!
- 2 Though, like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!
- 3 There let the way appear,
Steps unto heaven;
All that thou sendest me,
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!
- 4 Then with my waking thoughts
Bright with thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs,
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

5 Or if on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly ;
Still all my song shall be, —
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee !

The Power of Trust.

- 1 My God ! in life's most doubtful hour,
In sharpest pains of death,
Who waits on thee hath peace and power ;
Thou present help of faith !
- 2 Thy crown of joy upon his head,
Thy light upon his face,
Through storms and strife thy Christ could tread,
On to the happy place.
- 3 And though the cross were sharp and high,
The lifted Lord could see
The souls he loved drawn nearer by
His love's last energy.
- 4 Help me, O God ! to seek, to win,
Through struggles and through prayer,
The faith which frees my soul from sin,
And brings thy blessing there.
- 5 So shall my cross of conquered shame
My fainting brothers raise,
So thy triumphant mercy flame
Around my path of praise.

- 6 And earth, with all its pain and toil,
By love's pure presence blest,
Shall wear the calm celestial smile
Of heaven's eternal rest.

Why wilt thou now give place to fear?
How canst thou want if he provide,
Or lose thy way with such a guide?

And has he not his promise past,
That thou shalt overcome at last?
- 4 He who has helped me hitherto,

Through sorrow or through joy,
Conduct me as thine own,
And help me still to say,
My Lord, thy will be done!
- 2 Lord Jesus, as thou wilt!
Though seen through many a tear,
Let not my star of hope
Grow dim or disappear;
Since thou on earth hast wept
And sorrowed oft alone,
If I must weep with thee,
My Lord, Thy will be done!
- 3 Lord Jesus, as thou wilt!
If loved ones must depart,
Suffer not sorrow's flood
To overwhelm my heart;
For they are blest with thee,
Their race and conflict won:
Let me but follow them,
My Lord, thy will be done!
- 4 Lord Jesus, as thou wilt!
All shall be well for me;
Each changing future scene
I gladly trust with thee:
Straight to my home above
I travel calmly on,
And sing, in life or death,
My Lord, thy will be done!

Whether I die or live;
To love and serve thee is my share,
And this thy grace must give.
- 2 If life be long, I will be glad,
That I may long obey;
If short, yet why should I be sad
To soar to endless day?
- 3 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than he went through before;
He that unto God's kingdom comes
Must enter by his door.
- 4 Come, Lord, when grace has made me meet
Thy blessed face to see;
For, if thy work on earth be sweet,
What will thy glory be?
- 5 Then shall I end my sad complaints
And weary sinful days,
And join with the triumphant saints,
Who sing Jehovah's praise.
- 6 My knowledge of that life is small,
The eye of faith is dim;
But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with him.

Rest in Christ.

- 1 O, EYES that are weary and hearts that are sore,
Look off unto Jesus, and sorrow no more;
The light of his countenance shineth so bright.
That on earth as in heaven there need be no
night.
- 2 Looking off unto Jesus, my spirit is blest:
In the world I have turmoil, in him I have rest.
The sea of my life all about me may roar,
When I look unto Jesus, I hear it no more.

- 3 Looking off unto Jesus, I go not astray;
My eyes are on him, and he shows me the way.
The path may seem dark, as he leads me along;
But, following Jesus, I cannot go wrong.
- 4 Looking off unto Jesus, O! may I be found,
When the waters of Jordan encompass me round!
Let them bear me away, in his presence to be:
'Tis but seeing him nearer whom always I see.
- 5 Then, then shall I know the full beauty and grace
Of Jesus my Lord, when I stand face to face:
I shall know how his love went before me each
day,
And wonder that ever my eyes turned away.

Transformed through Christ.

- 1 O, MEAN may seem this house of clay,
Yet 'twas the Lord's abode;
Our feet may mourn this thorny way,
Yet here Emmanuel trod:
This fleshly robe the Lord did wear,
This watch the Lord did keep,
These burdens sore the Lord did bear,
These tears the Lord did weep.
- 2 Our very frailty brings us near
Unto the Lord of heaven,
To every grief, to every tear,
Such glory strange is given;
But not this fleshly robe alone
Shall link us, Lord, to thee;
Not always in the tear and groan
Shall the dear kindred be.

- 3 Thou to our woe who down didst come,
 Who one with us would'st be,
 Wilt lift us to thy heavenly home,
 Wilt make us one with thee.
 Our earthly garments thou hast worn,
 And we thy robes shall wear;
 Our mortal burdens thou hast borne,
 And we thy bliss may bear.
- 4 O mighty grace, our life to live,
 To make our earth divine;
 O mighty grace, thy heaven to give,
 And lift our life to thine!
 O, strange the gifts, and marvellous,
 By thee received and given!
 Thou tookest woe and death from us,
 And we receive thy heaven.

Jesus pro me perforatus.

 Let the water and the blood
 From thy riven side which flowed
 Be of sin the double cure:
 Cleanse me from its wrath and power.

 Could my zeal no respite know,
 Could my tears for ever flow,
 All for sin could not atone:
 Thou must save, and thou alone.

- 3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to thee for dress;
Helpless, look to thee for grace;
Foul, I to thy fountain fly:
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.
- 4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyelids close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See thee on thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee.

Love for Christ.

- 1 MY Lord, I love thee, not because
I hope for heaven thereby;
Nor yet because if I love not,
I must for ever die.
- 2 But, O my Jesus! thou didst me
Upon the cross embrace;
For me didst bear the nails and spear
And manifold disgrace.
- 3 Then why, O blessed Jesus Christ!
Should I not love thee well?
Not for the sake of winning heaven,
Or of escaping hell;
- 4 Not with the hope of gaining aught,
Not seeking a reward;
But as thyself hast loved me,
O ever-loving Lord!

- 5 E'en so I love thee, and will love,
 And in thy praise will sing;
 Solely because thou art my Lord
 And my eternal King.

God our Portion.

- 1 BLEST be thy love, dear Lord,
 That taught us this sweet way,
 Only to love thee for thyself
 And for that love obey.
- 2 O thou, our soul's chief hope!
 We to thy mercy fly;
 Where'er we are, thou canst protect,
 Whate'er we need, supply.
- 3 Whether we sleep or wake,
 To thee we both resign;
 By night we see, as well as day,
 If thy light on us shine.
- 4 Whether we live or die,
 Both we submit to thee;
 In death we live as well as life,
 If thine in death we be.

Hymn of Trust.

- 1 O LOVE divine, that stooped to share
 Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear!
 On thee we cast each earth-born care;
 We smile at pain while thou art near.

- 2 Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crown each lingering year,
No path we shun, no darkness dread,
Our hearts still whispering, thou art near!
- 3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief,
And trembling faith is turned to fear,
The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,
Shall softly tell us thou art near!
- 4 On thee we fling our burdening woe,
O Love divine, for ever dear!
Content to suffer, while we know,
Living and dying, thou art near!

The Will of God.

- 1 THY holy will, my God, be mine;
I yield my all to thee;
No more shall thought or wish repine,
Whate'er my lot shall be.
- 2 Thy wisdom is a mighty deep,
Beyond my thought thy grace:
My soul shall lay her fears asleep,
Secure in thine embrace.
- 3 When clouds and darkness rule the hour,
Thy bow on high I see;
And e'en the rending tempest's power
Shall work but good for me.
- 4 At every step mine eyes shall turn
To watch thy guiding hand;
My dearest wish shall be to learn
And do thy pure command.

- 5 Grant me, my God, at last to hear,
Well-pleased, the call to die ;
And 'mid the shades, with vision clear,
To see my Saviour nigh.
- 6 Then when thy glory breaks on me,
All radiant as the sun,
Be this the joy of heaven, — to see
Thy will for ever done !

Trust.

- 1 HE sendeth sun, he sendeth shower ;
Alike they're needful for the flower ;
And joys and tears alike are sent
To give the soul fit nourishment :
As comes to me or cloud or sun,
Father, thy will, not mine, be done !
- 2 Can loving children e'er reprove
With murmurs whom they trust and love ?
Creator ! I would ever be
A trusting, loving child to thee :
As comes to me or cloud or sun,
Father, thy will, not mine, be done !
- 3 O ne'er will I at life repine !
Enough that thou hast made it mine ;
When falls the shadow cold of death,
I yet will sing, with parting breath,
As comes to me or cloud or sun,
Father, thy will, not mine, be done !

Christian Consolations.

- 1 COME, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish :
Come, at the shrine of God fervently kneel ;
Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish,
Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.
- 2 Joy of the desolate, Light of the straying,
Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure !
Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure.
- 3 Here see the bread of life ; see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above ;
Come to the feast of love ; come, ever knowing
Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

Jesus our Home.

- 1 'MID scenes of confusion, and creatures' complaints,
How sweet to my soul the communion of saints,
To find at the banquet of mercy there's room,
And feel in the presence of Jesus at home !
Home, home, sweet home !
Prepare me, dear Saviour, for glory my home !
- 2 Sweet joys that unite all the children of peace,
And thrice precious Jesus, whose love cannot cease,

Though oft from thy presence in sadness I roam,
I long to behold thee in glory at home.

Home, home, sweet home!

Prepare me, dear Saviour, for glory my home!

3 I long from this body of sin to be free,
Which hinders my joy and communion with thee,
Though now my temptations like billows may foam,

All, all will be peace when I'm with thee at home.

Home, home, sweet home!

Receive me, dear Saviour, in glory my home!

4 While here in this valley of conflict I stay,
Oh, give me submission and strength as my day!
Indulge me with patience to wait at thy throne
And find even here a sweet foretaste of home.

Home, home, sweet home!

Prepare me, dear Saviour, for glory, my home!

* CHILD'S CHR. YEAR.

" Casting all your care upon Him ; for He careth for you."

1 O LORD, how happy should we be
If we could cast our care on thee,
If we from self could rest!
And feel at heart that One above
In perfect wisdom, perfect love,
Is working for the best.

2 Could we but kneel and cast our load,
E'en while we pray, upon our God,
Then rise with lightened cheer;
Sure that the Father, who is nigh
To still the famished ravens' cry,
Will hear in that we fear.

- 3 We cannot trust him as we should ;
 So chafes weak nature's restless mood
 To cast its peace away ;
 But birds and flowerets round us preach,
 All, all the present evil teach,
 Sufficient for the day.
- 4 LORD, make these faithless hearts of ours
 Such lessons learn from birds and flowers ;
 Make them from self to cease ;
 Leave all things to a Father's will,
 And taste, before him lying still,
 E'en in affliction peace. Amen.

Quietness and Confidence.

- 1 QUIET, Lord, my froward heart ;
 Make me teachable and mild,
 Upright, simple, free from art,
 Make me as a weanèd child ;
 From distrust and envy free,
 Pleased with all that pleases thee.
- 2 What thou shalt to-day provide,
 Let me as a child receive ;
 What to-morrow may betide,
 Calmly to thy wisdom leave ;
 'Tis enough that thou wilt care :
 Why should I the burden bear ?
- 3 As a little child relies
 On a care beyond his own ;
 Knows he's neither strong nor wise,
 Fears to stir a step alone, —
 Let me thus with thee abide,
 As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

Not alone.

1 GALES from heaven, if God so will,
Sweeter melodies can wake
On the lonely mountain rill
Than the meeting waters make.
Who hath the Father and the Son,
May be left, but not alone.

2 Sick or healthful, slave or free,
Wealthy, or despised and poor, —
What is that to him or thee,
So his love to Christ endure?
When the shore is won at last,
Who will count the billows past?

3 Only, since our souls will shrink
At the touch of natural grief,
When our earthly loved ones sink,
Lend us, Lord, thy sure relief;
Patient hearts their pain to see,
And thy grace, to follow thee.

Thy Will be done.

1 MY God and Father, while I stray
Far from my home on life's rough way,
O teach me from my heart to say,
Thy will be done!

2 Though dark my path and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not;
Or breathe the prayer divinely taught,
Thy will be done!

- 3 Though thou hast called me to resign
What most I prized, it ne'er was mine :
I have but yielded what was thine ;
Thy will be done !
- 4 Let but my fainting heart be blest
With thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to thee I leave the rest ;
Thy will be done !
- 5 Renew my will from day to day ;
Blend it with thine ; and take away
All that now makes it hard to say,
Thy will be done !
- 6 Then, when on earth I breathe no more
The prayer, oft mixed with tears before,
I'll sing upon a happier shore,
Thy will be done !

- 2 Calm me, my God, and keep me calm,
Soft resting on thy breast ;
Soothe me with holy hymn and psalm,
And bid my spirit rest.
- 3 Calm me, my God, and keep me calm ;
Let thine outstretchèd wing
Be like the shade of Elim's palm
Beside her desert-spring.
- 4 Yes: keep me calm, though loud and rude
The sounds my ear that greet ;
Calm in the closet's solitude,
Calm in the bustling street ;
- 5 Calm in the hour of buoyant health,
Calm in my hour of pain ;
Calm in my poverty or wealth,
Calm in my loss or gain ;
- 6 Calm in the sufferance of wrong,
Like him who bore my shame ;
Calm 'mid the threatening, taunting throng,
Who hate thy holy name ;

- 7 Calm as the ray of sun or star
Which storms assail in vain,
Moving unruffled through earth's war,
The eternal calm to gain.

Abiding in God.

- 1 MY soul in God abideth still,
And ceaseth her complaining;
Let him do with me what he will,
While life is yet remaining;
He is my Lord, his servant I;
Do what he will, I ask not why;
His ways are truth and mercy.
- 2 Therefore, my soul, abide thou still
In God, in every season,
Who orders all things by his will,
And not thy feeble reason;
And, when the end shall make quite clear
The things which now so dark appear,
Thou shalt give God the glory.
- 3 Then wilt thou have great cause for praise,
That, conscious of thy blindness,
Thou didst not murmur in dark days,
Nor doubt God's loving-kindness;
And, when thy waiting time is o'er,
Thou shalt praise God for evermore
For all his wondrous mercies.

"The Voice of free Grace."

- 1 THE voice of free grace cries, "Escape to the mountain,"
 For Adam's lost race Christ hath opened a fountain;
 For sin and uncleanness, and every transgression,
 His blood flows most freely in streams of salvation.
 Hallelujah to the Lamb, who hath bought us a pardon!
 We'll praise him again, when we pass over Jordan.
- 2 Ye souls that are wounded, oh, flee to the Saviour:
 He calls you in mercy; 'tis infinite favor.
 Your sins are increasing; escape to the mountain:
 His blood can remove them, it flows from the fountain.
 Hallelujah to the Lamb, who hath bought us a pardon!
 We'll praise him again, when we pass over Jordan.
- 3 When Zion we see, having gained the blest shore,
 With harps in our hands we will praise him the more:
 We'll range the sweet plains on the banks of the river,
 And sing of salvation for ever and ever!

Hallelujah to the Lamb, who hath bought us a pardon!
We'll praise him again, when we pass over Jordan.

And mourns the present pain,
'Tis sweet to think of peace at last,
And feel that death is gain.
- 2 'Tis not that murmuring thoughts arise,
And dread a Father's will;
'Tis not that meek submission flies,
And would not suffer still.
- 3 It is that heaven-born faith surveys
The path that leads to light,
And longs her eagle plumes to raise,
And lose herself in sight.

From earth-born woe and care,
And soar above these clouds of night,
My Saviour's bliss to share!

“ Walk in the Light.”

- 1 WALK in the light! so shalt thou know
That fellowship of love
His Spirit only can bestow
Who reigns in light above.
- 2 Walk in the light! and thou shalt find
Thy heart made truly his,
Who dwells in cloudless light enshrined,
In whom no darkness is.
- 3 Walk in the light! and thou shalt own
Thy darkness passed away,
Because that light hath on thee shone
In which is perfect day.
- 4 Walk in the light! and e'en the tomb
No fearful shade shall wear;
Glory shall chase away its gloom,
For Christ hath conquered there!
- 5 Walk in the light! and thine shall be
A path, though thorny, bright:
For God, by grace, shall dwell in thee,
And God himself is light!

Sincerity and Hypocrisy.

- 1 God is a Spirit just and wise ;
He sees our inmost mind ;
In vain to heaven we raise our cries,
And leave our souls behind.
- 2 Nothing but truth before his throne
With honor can appear ;
The painted hypocrites are known
Through the disguise they wear.
- 3 Their lifted eyes salute the skies,
Their bending knees the ground ;
But God abhors the sacrifice
Where not the heart is sound.
- 4 Lord, search my thoughts, and try my ways,
And make my soul sincere ;
Then shall I stand before thy face,
And find acceptance there.

DAWSON'S HYMNS.

The Elect.

- 1 THE saints of God are holy men,
And women good, and children dear,
All those who ever loved the Lord,
Who live in faith and fear.
- 2 They are not all together now ;
For some are dead and gone before ;
And some are striving still on earth,
Their trial is not o'er.

- 3 Great numbers are they of all states,
And born in every place and land,
Who never saw each other's face,
Nor touched each other's hand.
- 4 But they are all made one in Christ;
They love each other tenderly,
The old and young, the rich, the poor,
Of that great company.
- 5 And there shall come a glorious day,
When all the good saints, every one,
Shall meet within their Father's home,
And stand before his throne.

Let earth be all in arms abroad,

- 4 His pleasures rise from things unseen,
Beyond this world and time,
Where neither eyes nor ears have been,
Nor thoughts of mortals climb.
- 5 He wants no pomp nor royal throne
To raise his figure here,
Content and pleased to live unknown,

LYTE.

- 1 JESUS, I my cross have taken,
All to leave, and follow thee ;
Naked, poor, despised, forsaken,
Thou, from hence, my all shalt be.
Perish every fond ambition,
All I've sought, or hoped, or known ;
Yet how rich is my condition !
God and heaven are still my own.
- 2 Let the world despise and leave me,
They have left my Saviour too ;
Human hearts and looks deceive me,
Thou art not like them, untrue :
And while thou shalt smile upon me,
God of wisdom, love, and might,
Foes may hate and friends disown me ;
Show thy face, and all is bright.
- 3 Men may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to thy breast ;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
Oh ! 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While thy love is left to me ;
Oh ! 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with thee.
- 4 Soul, then know thy full salvation,
Rise o'er sin and fear and care ;
Joy to find in every station
Something still to do or bear.
Think what Spirit dwells within thee ;
Think what Father's smiles are thine ;
Think that Jesus died to win thee ;
Child of heaven, canst thou repine ?

- 5 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
 Armed by faith and winged by prayer;
 Heaven's eternal gates before thee,
 God's own hand shall guide thee there.
 Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
 Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days;
 Hope shall change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

Taking up the Cross.

- 1 THE Son of God goes forth to war,
 A kingly crown to gain;
 His blood-red banner streams afar:
 Who follows in his train?
- 2 Who best can drink his cup of woe,
 And triumph over pain,
 Who patient bear his cross below,
 He follows in his train.
- 3 The martyr first, whose eagle eye
 Could pierce beyond the grave,
 Who saw his Master in the sky,
 And called on him to save.
- 4 Like him, with pardon on his tongue,
 In midst of mortal pain,
 He prayed for them that did the wrong:
 Who follows in his train?
- 5 A glorious band, the chosen few
 On whom the Spirit came;
 Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
 And mocked the cross and flame.

- 6 They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
The lion's gory mane;
They bowed their necks the death to feel:
Who follows in their train?
- 7 A noble army, men and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,
In robes of light arrayed.
- 8 They climbed the dizzy steep of heaven,
Through peril, toil, and pain:
O God! to us may grace be given,
To follow in their train!

Watching, Prayer, and Perseverance.

A God to glorify;
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky;
To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfil;
O, may it all my powers engage,
To do my Master's will!
- 2 Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And, O, thy servant, Lord, prepare

Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely,
Assured, if I my trust betray,
I shall forsaken die.

Watchfulness.

- 1 I WANT a principle within
Of jealous, godly fear;
A sensibility of sin,
A pain to find it near.
- 2 I want the first approach to feel,
Of pride, or fond desire;
To catch the wandering of my will,
And quench the kindling fire.
- 3 From thee that I no more may part,
No more thy goodness grieve,
The filial awe, the fleshly heart,
The tender conscience give.
- 4 Quick as the apple of an eye,
O God! my conscience make:
Awake my soul, when sin is nigh,
And keep it still awake.

WESLEY'S COL.

For Christian Principles.

- 1 MY God, my strength, my hope,
On thee I cast my care,
With humble confidence look up,
And know thou hear'st my prayer.
Give me on thee to wait,
Till I can all things do;
On thee, almighty to create,
Almighty to renew.

- 2 I want a heart to pray,
To pray and never cease;
Never to murmur at thy stay,
Or wish my sufferings less.
This blessing, above all,
Always to pray, — I want;
Out of the deep on thee to call,
And never, never faint.
- 3 I want a sober mind,
A self-renouncing will,
That tramples down and casts behind
The baits of pleasing ill;
A soul inured to pain,
To hardship, grief, and loss,
Bold to take up, firm to sustain,
The consecrated cross.
- 4 I want a godly fear,
A quick discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly;
A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.
- 5 I want a true regard,
A single, steady aim,
Unmoved by threatening or reward,
To thee and thy great name;
A zealous, just concern
For thine immortal praise;
A pure desire that all may learn
And glorify thy grace.

- 6 I rest upon thy word ;
The promise is for me :
My succor and salvation, Lord,
Shall surely come from thee ;
But let me still abide,
Nor from my hope remove,
Till thou my patient spirit guide
Into thy perfect love.

Aspiration.

- 1 O DRAW me, Father, after thee !
So shall I run and never tire ;
With gracious words still comfort me ;
Be thou my hope, my sole desire ;
Free me from every weight ; nor fear
Nor sin can come, if thou art near.
- 2 From all eternity, with love
Unchangeable thou hast me viewed ;
Ere knew this beating heart to move,
Thy tender mercies me pursued ;
Ever with me may they abide,
And close me in on every side.
- 3 In suffering be thy love my peace ;
In weakness be thy love my power ;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
O Father ! in my latest hour,
In death as life, be thou my guide,
And draw me closer to thy side.

Spiritual Needs.

- 1 I WANT the spirit of power within,
Of love, and of a healthful mind;
Of power to conquer every sin;
Of love to God and all mankind;
Of health that pain and death defies,
Most vigorous when the body dies.
- 2 O that the Comforter would come,
Nor visit as a transient guest,
But fix in me his constant home,
And keep possession of my breast;
And make my soul his loved abode,
The temple of indwelling God!

EXETER COL.

Steadfastness and Watchfulness implored.

- 1 GREAT God, my Father, and my Friend,
On whom I cast my constant care,
On whom for all things I depend,
To thee I raise my humble prayer.
- 2 Endue me with a holy fear;
The frailty of my heart reveal;
Sin and its snares are always near;
Thee may I always nearer feel.
- 3 O that to thee my constant mind
May with a steady flame aspire,
Pride in its earliest motions find,
And check the rise of wrong desire!

- 4 O that my watchful soul may fly
The first-perceived approach of sin,
Look up to thee when danger's nigh,
And feel thy fear control within!
- 5 Search, gracious God, my inmost heart;
From guilt and error set me free;
Thy light and truth and peace impart,
And guide me safe to heaven and thee.

The active Christian.

- 1 YE servants of the Lord,
Each in his office wait,
Observant of his heavenly word,
And watchful at his gate.
- 2 Let all your lamps be bright,
And trim the golden flame;
Gird up your loins, as in his sight,
For awful is his name.
- 3 Watch! 'tis your Lord's command;
And while we speak, he's near;
Mark the first signal of his hand,
And ready all appear.
- 4 O happy servant he
In such a posture found!
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honor crowned.

Vigilance amidst Temptations.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul : lift up thine eyes ;
See where thy foes against thee rise,
In long array, a numerous host ;
Awake, my soul, or thou art lost.
- 2 Thou tread'st upon enchanted ground ;
Perils and snares beset thee round ;
Beware of all ; guard every part,
But most the traitor in thy heart.
- 3 Come, then, my soul : now learn to wield
The weight of thine immortal shield ;
Put on the armor from above
Of heavenly truth and heavenly love.
- 4 The terror and the charm repel,
And powers of earth and powers of hell ;
The Man of Calvary triumphed here :
Why should his faithful followers fear ?

The Christian's Resolution.

- 1 AH, wretched souls, who strive in vain,
Slaves to the world, and slaves to sin !
A nobler toil may I sustain,
A nobler satisfaction win.
- 2 May I resolve with all my heart,
With all my powers, to serve the Lord ;
Nor from his precepts e'er depart,
Whose service is a rich reward.

- 3 Be this the purpose of my soul,
My solemn, my determined choice,
To yield to his supreme control,
And in his kind commands rejoice.
- 4 O, may I never faint nor tire,
Nor, wandering, leave his sacred ways;
Great God, accept my soul's desire,
And give me strength to live thy praise.

Self-Dedication.

- 1 O LORD! thy heavenly grace impart,
And fix my frail, inconstant heart;
Henceforth my chief desire shall be
To dedicate myself to thee.
- 2 Whate'er pursuits my time employ,
One thought shall fill my soul with joy;
That silent, secret thought shall be,
That all my hopes are fixed on thee.
- 3 Thy glorious eye pervadeth space;
Thy presence, Lord, fills every place;
And, wheresoe'er my lot may be,
Still shall my spirit cleave to thee.
- 4 Renouncing every worldly thing,
And safe beneath thy sheltering wing,
My sweetest thought henceforth shall be,
That all I want I find in thee.

The Blessing of Meekness.

- 1 "BLEST are the meek," he said,
Whose doctrine is divine;
The humble-minded earth possess,
And bright in heaven will shine.
- 2 While here on earth they stay,
Calm peace with them shall dwell;
And cheerful hope and heavenly joy
Beyond what tongue can tell.
- 3 The God of peace is theirs;
They own his gracious sway;
And, yielding all their wills to him,
His sovereign laws obey.
- 4 No angry passions move,
No envy fires the breast;
The prospect of eternal peace
Bids every trouble rest.
- 5 O gracious Father! grant
That we this influence feel,
That all we hope, or wish, may be Subjected to thy will.

For they shall see our God;
The secret of the Lord is theirs;

He doth himself impart;
And for his cradle and his throne
Chooseth the pure in heart.

Holy Fortitude.

- 1 AM I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?
- 2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
- 3 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord;
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.
- 4 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They see the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.

True Wisdom.

- 1 BE it my only wisdom here,
To serve the Lord with filial fear,
With loving gratitude:
Superior sense may I display,
By shunning every evil way,
And walking in the good.

 A wise and understanding heart,
 Father, to me be given!
 And let me through thy Spirit know
 To glorify my God below,
 And find my way to heaven.

All Work divine.

- 1 TEACH me, my God and King,
 In all things thee to see ;
 And what I do in any thing,
 To do it as for thee !
- 2 To scorn the senses' sway,
 While still to thee I tend ;
 In all I do be thou the way ;
 In all be thou the end.
- 3 All may of thee partake ;
 Nothing so small can be,
 But draws, when acted for thy sake,
 Greatness and worth from thee.
- 4 If done beneath thy laws,
 E'en servile labors shine ;
 Hallowed is toil, if this the cause ;
 The meanest work divine.

Trust.

- 1 SEE the Lord, thy Helper, stand,
 Omnipotently near ;
 Lo ! he holds thee by the hand,
 And banishes thy fear ;

Shadows with his wings thy head;
Guards from all impending harms;
Round thee and beneath are spread
The everlasting arms.

2 God shall bless thy going out,
Shall bless thy coming in;
Kindly compass thee about,
And guard from every sin.
Lean upon thy Father's breast:
He thy quiet spirit keeps;
Rest in him, securely rest;
Thy Guardian never sleeps.

3 O my soul! unceasing pray,
And in thy God confide;
He our faltering steps shall stay,
Nor suffer us to slide.
He is still our sure defence;
We his ceaseless care shall prove,
Kept by watchful Providence
And ever-waking love.

The Christian encouraged.

- 1 GIVE to the winds thy fears;
Hope, and be undismayed;
God hears thy sighs, and counts thy tears;
God shall lift up thy head.
- 2 Through waves, through clouds and storms,
He gently clears thy way;
Wait thou his time; so shall the night
Soon end in joyous day.

- 3 He everywhere hath rule,
And all things serve his might;
His every act pure blessing is,
His path unsullied light.
- 4 Thou comprehend'st him not;
Yet earth and heaven tell,
God sits as Sovereign on the throne;
He ruleth all things well.
- 5 Thou seest our weakness, Lord;
Our hearts are known to thee;
O, lift thou up the sinking hand,
Confirm the feeble knee!
- 6 Let us, in life or death,
Boldly thy truth declare,
And publish, with our latest breath,
Thy love and guardian care.

And ways into his hands,
To his sure trust and tender care,
Who earth and heaven commands.
- 2 Who points the clouds their course,
Whom winds and seas obey,
He shall direct thy wandering feet,
He shall prepare thy way.
- 3 No profit canst thou gain
By self-consuming care;
To him commend thy cause: his ear
Attends the softest prayer.

- 4 Thou on the Lord rely,
So safe shalt thou go on ;
Fix on his work thy steadfast eye,
So shall thy work be done.

SIR H. WOTTON

The Character of a happy Life.

- 1 How happy is he born and taught,
That serveth not another's will,
Whose armor is his honest thought,
And simple truth his utmost skill !
- 2 Whose passions not his masters are,
Whose soul is still prepared for death,
Untied unto the world by care
Of public fame, or private breath ;
- 3 Who envies none that chance doth raise,
Nor vice hath ever understood,
How deepest wounds are given by praise,
Nor rules of state, but rules of good ;
- 4 Who hath his life from rumors freed ;
Whose conscience is his strong retreat ;
Whose state can neither flatterers feed,
Nor ruin make oppressors great ;
- 5 Who God doth late and early pray
More of his grace than gifts to lend,
And entertains the harmless day
With a religious book or friend, —
- 6 This man is freed from servile bands
Of hope to rise, or fear to fall ;
Lord of himself, though not of lands,
And having nothing, yet hath all.

Walking with God.

- 1 THrice happy souls, who, born from heaven,
While yet they sojourn here,
Thus all their days with God begin,
And spend them in his fear!
- 2 'Midst hourly cares may love present
Its incense to thy throne,
And, while the world our hands employs,
Our hearts be thine alone.
- 3 As sanctified to noblest ends,
Be each refreshment sought,
And by each various providence
Some wise instruction brought.
- 4 When to laborious duties called,
Or by temptations tried,
We'll seek the shelter of thy wings,
And in thy strength confide.
- 5 As different scenes of life arise,
Our grateful hearts would be
With thee amidst the social band,
In solitude with thee.
- 6 In solid, pure delights like these,
Let all my days be passed;
Nor shall I then impatient wish,
Nor shall I fear the last.

Heavenly Wisdom.

- 1 O, HAPPY is the man who hears
Instruction's warning voice,
And who celestial Wisdom makes
His early, only choice.
- 2 For she has treasures greater far
Than east or west unfold ;
And her rewards more precious are
Than all their stores of gold.
- 3 In her right hand she holds to view
A length of happy days ;
Riches, with splendid honors joined,
Are what her left displays.
- 4 She guides the young, with innocence,
In pleasure's paths to tread ;
A crown of glory she bestows
Upon the hoary head.
- 5 According as her labors rise,
So her rewards increase ;
Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.

The Charms of Virtue imperishable.

Howe'er they please the eye or ear,
Will quickly fade and fly ;
Of earthly glory faint the blaze,
And soon the transitory rays

 Shall never moulder in the dust,
 Or know a sad decay;
 Their honors time and death defy,
 And round the throne of heaven on high
 Beam everlasting day.

Joy in the Lord.

- 1 I AM free! I am free! I have broken away
 From the chambers of night to the splendors of
 day;
 All the phantoms that darkened around me are gone,
 And a spirit of light is now leading me on.
- 2 Earth appeareth in garments of beauty new drest;
 Brighter thoughts, brighter feelings, spring forth
 in my breast;
 Happy voices are floating in music above;
 All creation is full of the glory of love.
- 3 God of truth! it is thou who hast shed down
 each ray
 Of the sunshine that blesses and gladdens my way;
 From the depths of my spirit to thee will I give
 Ever thankful affection as long as I live.

Joy in Christ.

- 1 JESUS, the very thought of thee
 With sweetness fills my breast;
 But sweeter far thy face to see
 And in thy presence rest.

- 2 Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find
A sweeter sound than thy blest name,
O Saviour of mankind!
- 3 O hope of every contrite heart!
O joy of all the meek!
To those who fall, how kind thou art!
How good to those who seek!
- 4 But what to those who find? Ah! this,
Nor tongue nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but his loved ones know.

True Length of Life.

- 1 LIKE shadows gliding o'er the plain,
Or clouds that roll successive on,
Man's busy generations pass,
And while we gaze, their forms are gone.
- 2 "He lived, — he died;" behold the sum,
The abstract of the historian's page!
Alike, in God's all-seeing eye,
The infant's day, the patriarch's age.
- 3 O Father, in whose mighty hand
The boundless years and ages lie!
Teach us thy boon of life to prize,
And use the moments as they fly;
- 4 To crowd the narrow span of life
With wise designs and virtuous deeds:
So shall we wake from death's dark night
To share the glory that succeeds.

The Uncertainty of Life.

- 1 TO-MORROW, Lord, is thine,
Lodged in thy sovereign hand;
And if its sun arise and shine,
It shines by thy command.

- 2 The present moment flies,
And bears our life away;
O, make thy servants truly wise,
That they may live to-day!
- 3 One thing demands our care;
O, be it still pursued!
Lest, slighted once, the season fair
Should never be renewed.

Lest life's young, golden beams should die
In sudden, endless night.

The Hour Glass.

- 1 ALAS! how swift the moments fly!
How flash the years along!
Scarce here, yet gone already by,
The burden of a song.
See childhood, youth, and manhood, pass,
And age, with furrowed brow;
Time was: Time shall be; but alas!
Where, where, in Time is now?
- 2 Time is the measure but of change;
No present hour is found;
The past, the future, fill the range
Of Time's unceasing round.
Where, then, is now? In realms above,
With God's atoning Lamb,
In regions of eternal love,
Where sits enthroned I AM.

- 3 Then, pilgrim, let thy joys and tears
 On Time no longer lean;
 But henceforth all thy hopes and fears
 From earth's affections wean:
 To God let votive accents rise;
 With truth, with virtue live;
 So all the bliss that Time denies Eternity shall give.

Man frail and God eternal. Ps. 90.

- 1 OUR God, our help in ages past,
 Our hope for years to come,
 Our shelter from the stormy blast,
 And our eternal home, —
- 2 Before the hills in order stood,
 Or earth received her frame,
 From everlasting thou art God,
 To endless years the same.
- 3 Thy word commands our flesh to dust, —
 "Return, ye sons of men:"
 All nations rose from earth at first,
 And turn to earth again.
- 4 A thousand ages in thy sight
 Are like an evening gone,
 Short as the watch that ends the night,
 Before the rising sun.
- 5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
 Bears all its sons away;
 They fly forgotten, as a dream
 Dies at the opening day.

- 6 Our God, our help in ages past,
 Our hope for years to come,
 Be thou our guard while troubles last,
 And our eternal home.

Man mortal and God eternal. Ps. 90.

- 1 THROUGH every age, eternal God,
 Thou art our rest, our safe abode :
 High was thy throne ere heaven was made,
 Or earth, thy humble footstool, laid.
- 2 Long hadst thou reigned ere time began,
 Or dust was fashioned to a man ;
 And long thy kingdom shall endure,
 When earth and time shall be no more.
- 3 Death, like an overflowing stream,
 Sweeps us away ; our life's a dream,
 An empty tale, a morning flower,
 Cut down and withered in an hour.
- 4 Teach us, O Lord ! how frail is man,
 And kindly lengthen out our span,
 Till a wise care of piety
 Fit us to die and dwell with thee.

- 2 Fresh as the grass our bodies stand,
And flourish bright and gay ;
A blasting wind sweeps o'er the land,
And fades the grass away.
- 3 Our life contains a thousand springs,
And dies if one be gone :
Strange that a harp of thousand strings
Should keep in tune so long.
- 4 But 'tis our God supports our frame,
The God that built us first ;
Salvation to the almighty name
That reared us from the dust.

The Blind and Weak led in God's Ways. Isa. xli. 16.

- 1 PRAISE to the radiant Source of bliss,
Who gives the blind their sight,
And scatters round their wondering eyes
A flood of sacred light.
- 2 In paths unknown he leads them on
To his divine abode,
And shows new miracles of grace
Through all the heavenly road.
- 3 The ways, all rugged and perplexed,
He renders smooth and straight,
And strengthens every feeble knee
To march to Zion's gate.

Till I the mount ascend,
Where toils and storms are known no more,
And anthems never end.

The High-Way to Zion.

- 1 SING, ye redeemed of the Lord,
Your great Deliverer sing;
Pilgrims for Zion's city bound,
Be joyful in your King.
- 2 See the fair way his hand hath raised,
How holy and how plain!
Nor shall the simplest travellers err,
Nor ask the track in vain.
- 3 No ravening lion shall destroy,
Nor lurking serpent wound;
Pleasure and safety, peace and praise,
Through all the path are found.
- 4 A hand divine shall lead you on
Through all the blissful road,
Till to the sacred mount you rise,
And see your smiling God.
- 5 There garlands of immortal joy
Shall bloom on every head,
While sorrow, sighing, and distress,
Like shadows, all are fled.
- 6 March on in your Redeemer's strength
Pursue his footsteps still;
And let the prospect cheer your eye
While laboring up the hill.

Wise Use of the Light before the Night cometh.

- 1 THE swift-declining day,
How fast its moments fly!
While evening's broad and gloomy shade
Gains on the western sky.
- 2 Ye mortals, mark its pace,
And use the hours of light;
And know its Maker can command
An instantaneous night.
- 3 His word blots out the sun
In its meridian blaze,
And cuts from smiling, vigorous youth
The remnant of its days.
- 4 On the dark mountain's brow
Your feet shall quickly slide,
And from its airy summit dash
Your momentary pride.
- 5 Give glory to the Lord,
Who rules the whirling sphere;
Submissive at his footstool bow,
And seek salvation there.
- 6 Then shall new lustre break
Through horror's darkest gloom,
And lead you to unchanging light
In a celestial home.

The weeping Seed-Time and joyful Harvest. Ps. cxxvi. 5, 6.

- 1 THE darkened sky, how thick it lowers !
Troubled with storms, and big with showers ;
No cheerful gleam of light appears,
But Nature pours forth all her tears.
- 2 Yet let the sons of grace revive :
God bids the soul that seeks him live ;
And from the gloomiest shade of night
Calls forth a morning of delight.
- 3 The seeds of ecstasy unknown
Are in these watered furrows sown ;
See the green blades, how thick they rise !
And with fresh verdure bless our eyes.
- 4 In secret foldings they contain
Unnumbered ears of golden grain ;
And heaven shall pour its beams around,
Till the ripe harvest load the ground.

And find his sheaves, and bear them home ;
The voice long broke with sighs shall sing,
Till heaven with hallelujahs ring.

The Wisdom of redeeming Time.

- 1 GOD of eternity, from thee
Did infant Time his being draw ;
Moments and days, and months and years,
Revolve by thine unvaried law.

- 2 Silent and slow they glide away ;
Steady and strong the current flows,
Lost in eternity's wild sea,
The boundless gulf, from whence it rose.
- 3 With it the thoughtless sons of men
Before the rapid stream are borne
On to that everlasting home,
Whence not one soul can e'er return.
- 4 Yet while the shore, on either side,
Presents a gaudy flattering show,
We gaze, in fond amusement lost,
Nor think to what a world we go.
- 5 Great Source of wisdom, teach my heart
To know the price of every hour ;
That time may bear me on to joys
Beyond its measure and its power.

Heaven our Home.

- 1 WHILE through this changing world we roam
From infancy to age,
Heaven is the Christian pilgrim's home,
His rest at every stage.
- 2 Thither his raptured thought ascends,
Eternal joys to share ;
There his adoring spirit bends,
While here he kneels in prayer.
- 3 From earth his freed affections rise,
To fix on things above,
Where all his hope of glory lies,
Where all is perfect love.

- 4 There, too, may we our treasure place,
There let our hearts be found;
That still, where sin abounded, grace
May more and more abound.
- 5 Henceforth our conversation be

Ere long, we, eye to eye, shall see,
And know as we are known.

Pilgrim through this barren land:
I am weak, but thou art mighty,
Hold me with thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.
- 2 Open thou the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield.

Bid the swelling stream divide;
Death of death, and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

"I would not live alway." Job vii. 16.

- 1 I WOULD not live alway ; I ask not to stay
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way ;
I would not live alway, thus fettered by sin,
Temptation without, and corruption within.
- 2 I would not live alway ; no : welcome the tomb ;
Since Jesus has lain there, I dread not its gloom ;
There sweet be my rest, till he bid me arise,
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.
- 3 Who, who would live alway, away from his God,
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode ?
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns ;
- 4 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,

While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

 In brighter flames arrayed,
My soul, that springs beyond thy sphere,
 No more demands thine aid.
- 3 Ye stars are but the shining dust
 Of my divine abode,
The pavement of those heavenly courts,
 Where I shall reign with God.
- 4 The Father of eternal light
 Shall there his beams display;
Nor shall one moment's darkness mix
 With that unvaried day.
- 5 No more the drops of piercing grief

Then, O my soul! with joy obey

The heavenly Jerusalem.

- 1 JERUSALEM! my happy home!
Name ever dear to me!
When shall my labors have an end
In joy and peace and thee?

- 2 When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls
And pearly gates behold?
Thy bulwarks with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold?
- 3 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom,
Nor sin nor sorrow know:
Blessed seats! through rude and stormy scenes
I onward press to you.
- 4 Why should I shrink at pain and woe,
Or feel at death dismay?
I've Canaan's goodly land in view,
And realms of endless day.
- 5 Apostles, martyrs, prophets there,
Around my Saviour stand;
And soon my friends in Christ below
Will join the glorious band.
- 6 Jerusalem! my happy home!
My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end,
When I thy joys shall see.

A Prospect of Heaven.

- 1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
- 2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

- 3 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dressed in living green ;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, shivering, on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 O, could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unclouded eyes ;—
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er, —
Not Jordan's stream nor death's cold flood
Should fright us from the shore.

Heaven invisible and holy.

- 1 NOR eye hath seen, nor ear has heard,
Nor sense nor reason known,
What joys the Father has prepared
For those that love the Son.
- 2 But the good Spirit of the Lord
Reveals a heaven to come ;
The beams of glory in his word
Allure and guide us home.
- 3 Pure are the joys above the sky,
And all the region peace ;
No wanton lips nor envious eye
Can see or taste the bliss.

- 4 Those holy gates for ever bar
Pollution, sin, and shame;
None shall obtain admittance there
But followers of the Lamb.

Preparation for Heaven.

- 1 HEAVEN is a place of rest from sin;
But all who hope to enter there
Must here that holy course begin
Which shall their souls for rest prepare.
- 2 Clean hearts, O God! in us create;
Right spirits, Lord, in us renew;
Commence we now that higher state,
Now do thy will as angels do.
- 3 In Jesus' footsteps may we tread,
Learn every lesson of his love;
And be from grace to glory led,
From heaven below to heaven above.

The Hope of Heaven a Support under Trials.

- 1 WHEN I can read my title clear
To mansions in the skies,
I bid farewell to every fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.
- 2 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
And storms of sorrow fall,
May I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all,—

- 3 There shall I bathe my weary soul
 In seas of heavenly rest,
 And not a wave of trouble roll
 Across my peaceful breast.

Foretaste of Heaven.

- 1 WHAT must it be to dwell above,
 At God's right hand, where Jesus reigns,
 Since the sweet earnest of his love
 O'erwhelms us on these earthly plains!
 No heart can think, no tongue explain,
 What bliss it is with Christ to reign.
- 2 When sin no more obstructs our sight,
 When sorrow pains our hearts no more,
 How shall we view the Prince of Light,
 And all his works of grace explore!
 What heights and depths of love divine
 Will there through endless ages shine!
- 3 This is the heaven I long to know;
 For this, with patience, I would wait,
 Till, weaned from earth, and all below,
 I mount to my celestial seat,
 And wave my palm, and wear my crown,
 And, with the elders, cast them down.

The Rest which remaineth.

- 1 O FOR the calm beyond the storms
 In the presence of the Lord,
 Where with angels bright,
 Both day and night,
 We shall hear his sacred word!

- 2 O for the body free from pain,
The spirit free from sin,
Which he will give
To the souls that live,
Who shall dwell his courts within!
- 3 O for the joy no eye hath seen,
No human heart hath known!
For faint and low
Fall the echoes below
Of the songs around his throne.
- 4 But O for grace to serve him here,
To rest upon his love,
To walk with God
On our earthly road,
And to anchor our joys above!
- 5 O for a faith to see the Lord
Through darkness and through tears,
To hear his voice,
And still to rejoice,
And watch till the day appears!

Better to be with Christ.

- 1 AWAY with our sorrow and fear!
We soon shall have entered our home;
The city of saints shall appear,
The day of eternity come;
From earth we shall quickly remove,
To dwell in our native abode,
In mansions of glory above,
Prepared by our Father and God.

2 Ah! who upon earth can conceive
 The bliss that in heaven they'll share?
 And who this dark world would not leave,
 And cheerfully seek to be there?
 There Christ is the light and the sun,
 And we by reflection shall shine,
 With him everlastingly one,
 And bright in effulgence divine.

3 'Tis good at thy word to be here,
 'Tis better in thee to be gone,
 And see thee in glory appear,
 And rise to a share in thy throne:
 All tears will be wiped from our eyes,
 When thee we behold in the cloud,
 And echo the joys of the skies,
 And shout to the trumpet of God.

Nearer Home.

- 1 ONE sweetly solemn thought
 Comes to me o'er and o'er,
 I am nearer home to-day
 Than I ever have been before.
- 2 Nearer my Father's house,
 Where the many mansions be;
 Nearer the great white throne;
 Nearer the crystal sea.
- 3 Nearer the bound of life,
 Where we lay our burdens down;
 Nearer leaving the cross;
 Nearer gaining the crown.

- 4 But lying darkly between,
 Winding down through the night,
 Is the deep and unknown stream,
 To be crossed ere we reach the light.
- 5 Jesus, perfect my trust,
 Strengthen the hand of my faith;
 Let me feel thee near when I stand
 On the edge of the shore of death.
- 6 Feel thee near when my feet
 Are slipping over the brink;
 For it may be I'm nearer home,
 Nearer now than I think.

- 1 JERUSALEM the golden,
 With milk and honey blest!
 Beneath thy contemplation
 Sink heart and voice oppressed.
 I know not, oh! I know not
 What joys await me there;
 What radiancy of glory,
 What bliss beyond compare.
- 2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
 All jubilant with song,
 And bright with many an angel,
 And all the martyr throng.
 There is the throne of David,
 And there, from toil released,
 The shout of them that triumph,
 The song of them that feast.

3 And they, who, with their Leader,
 Have conquered in the fight,
 For ever and for ever
 Are clad in robes of white.
 Oh, land that seest no sorrow!
 Oh, state that fear'st no strife!
 Oh, royal land of flowers!
 Oh, realm and home of life!

4 Oh, sweet and blessed country!
 The home of God's elect!
 Oh, sweet and blessed country
 That eager hearts expect!
 Jesus, in mercy bring us
 To that dear land of rest,
 Who art, with God the Father,
 And Spirit, ever blest.

Jerusalem our Home.

- 1 O, MY sweet home, Jerusalem!
 Thy joys when shall I see?
 The king that sitteth on thy throne
 In his felicity!
- 2 Thy walls are made of precious stones,
 Thy bulwarks diamond-square;
 Thy gates are all of orient pearl:
 O God! if I were there!
- 3 Thy gardens and thy goodly walks
 Continually are green,
 Where grow such sweet and pleasant flowers
 As nowhere else are seen.

- 4 Right through thy streets, with pleasing sound,
The living waters flow;
And on the banks on either side
The trees of life do grow.
- 5 Those trees each month yield ripened fruit,
For evermore they spring;
And all the nations of the earth
To thee their honors bring.
- 6 Oh, mother dear, Jerusalem!
When shall I come to Thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?

For ever with the Lord.

- 1 FOR ever with the Lord!
Amen! so let it be;
Life from the dead is in that word,
And immortality.
- 2 Here in the body pent,
Absent from him I roam;
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.
- 3 My Father's house on high!
Home of my soul! how near,
At times, to faith's foreseeing eye
Thy golden gates appear!
- 4 Ah! then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above.

- 5 Beneath its glowing arch,
Along the hallowed ground,
I see cherubic armies march,
A camp of fire around.
- 6 I hear at morn and even,
At noon and midnight hour,
The choral harmonies of heaven
Earth's Babel-tongues o'erpower.
- 7 Then, then I feel, that he,
Remembered or forgot,
'The Lord, is never far from me,
Though I perceive him not.

The Christian Sabbath Morning.

- 1 ANOTHER six days' work is done,
Another Sabbath is begun ;
Return, my soul, enjoy thy rest ;
Improve the day that God hath blest.
- 2 O that our thoughts and thanks may rise,
As grateful incense, to the skies,
And draw from Heaven that sweet repose,
Which none but he that feels it knows !
- 3 This heavenly calm within the breast
Is the dear pledge of glorious rest,
Which for the church of God remains,
The end of cares, the end of pains.

In holy pleasures — pass away ;
How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend
In hope of one that ne'er shall end !

- 1 Now Morning lifts her dewy veil,
With new-born blessings crowned;
O, haste we, then, her light to hail,
In courts of holy ground.
- 2 But Christ, triumphant o'er the grave,
Shines more divinely bright;
O, sing we, then, his power to save,
And walk we in his light.
- 3 When from the swaddling bands of shade
Sprang forth the world so fair,
In robes of brilliancy arrayed,
O, what a power was there!
- 4 When he, who gave his guiltless Son,
A guilty world to spare,
Restored to life the Holy One,
O, what a love was there!
- 5 Still, as the morning rays return,
To pious souls 'tis given,
In fancy's mirror to discern
The radiant domes of heaven.
- 6 But, now that our eternal Sun
Hath shed his beams abroad,
In him we see the Holy One,
And mount at once to God.

A Psalm for the Lord's Day. Ps. 92.

- 1 SWEET is the work, my God, my King,
To praise thy name, give thanks, and sing,
To show thy love by morning light,
And talk of all thy truth at night.
- 2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest;
No mortal cares shall seize my breast;
O, may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp, of solemn sound!

- 3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless his works, and bless his word :
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine !
How deep thy counsels, how divine !
- 4 Fools never raise their thoughts so high ;
Like brutes they live, like brutes they die ;
Like grass they flourish, till thy breath
Blast them in everlasting death.
- 5 But I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.
- 6 Then shall I see and hear and know
All I desired or wished below,
And every power find sweet employ
In that eternal world of joy.

The Lord's Day. Ps. 118.

And praise surround the throne.

And Satan's empire fell ;
To-day the saints his triumphs spread,
And all his wonders tell.

Help us, O Lord ! descend and bring
Salvation from the throne.

- 4 Blest be^e the Lord, who comes to men
With messages of grace,—

The day divinely given,
When men to God their homage pay,
And earth draws near to heaven.
- 2 Lord, in thy sacred hour,
Within thy courts, we bend,
And bless thy love, and own thy power,
Our Father and our Friend!
- 3 But thou art not alone
In courts by mortals trod,
Nor only is the day thine own
When men draw near their God.
- 4 Thy temple is the arch
Of yon unmeasured sky,
Thy Sabbath the stupendous march
Of grand eternity.

Dawn on thy servant's sight,
And grant us in those courts to pray,
Of pure, unclouded light.

His rising thee did raise,
And made thee heavenly and divine,

The eternal Sabbath.

- 1 LORD of the Sabbath, hear our vows
On this thy day, in this thy house ;
And own, as grateful sacrifice,
The songs which from the desert rise.
- 2 Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love ;
But there's a nobler rest above ;
To that our laboring souls aspire,
With ardent pangs of strong desire.

- 3 No more fatigue, no more distress,
Nor sin, nor hell shall reach the place;
No groans to mingle with the songs
Which warble from immortal tongues;
- 4 No rude alarms of raging foes,
No cares to break the long repose;
No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
But sacred, high, eternal noon.
- 5 O long-expected day! begin;
Dawn on these realms of woe and sin;
Fain would we leave this weary road,
And sleep in death, to rest with God.

With warm desires
To see my God.
- 2 The sparrow for her young
With pleasure seeks a nest,
And wandering swallows long
To find their wonted rest:
My spirit faints
With equal zeal
To rise and dwell

Where God appoints to hear!
O happy men that pay
Their constant service there!
They praise thee still,
And happy they
That love the way
To Zion's hill.

Through this dark vale of tears,
Till each arrives at length,
Till each in heaven appears:

When God our King
Shall thither bring

Invitation to the House of God.

- 1 COME to the house of prayer,
O thou afflicted, come ;
The God of peace shall meet thee there ;
He makes that house his home.
- 2 Come to the house of praise,
Ye who are happy now ;
In sweet accord your voices raise,
In kindred homage bow.
- 3 Ye aged, hither come,
For ye have felt his love ;
Soon shall your trembling tongues be dumb,
Your lips forget to move.
- 4 Ye young, before his throne,
Come, bow ; your voices raise ;
Let not your hearts his praise disown,
Who gives the power to praise.
- 5 Thou, whose benignant eye
In mercy looks on all, —
Who seest the tear of misery,
And hear'st the mourner's call, —
- 6 Up to thy dwelling-place
Bear our frail spirits on,
Till they outstrip time's tardy pace,
And heaven on earth be won.

Serve him with awe, with reverence love.
- 2 Lo, God is here! him day and night
The united choirs of angels sing;
To him, enthroned above all height,
Heaven's hosts their noblest praises bring:
Disdain not, Lord, our meaner song,
Who praise thee with a stammering tongue!
- 3 Gladly the toys of earth we leave,
Wealth, pleasure, fame, for thee alone:
To thee our will, soul, flesh, we give;
O take and seal them for thine own!
Thou art the God! Thou art the Lord!
Be thou by all thy works adored!
- 4 Being of beings, may our praise
Thy courts with grateful fragrance fill;
Still may we stand before thy face,
Still hear and do thy sovereign will!
To thee may all our thoughts arise,
Ceaseless, accepted sacrifice!

Still we trace thy wondrous love,
Claiming large returns again.
- 2 Lord, what offering shall we bring,

Hearts, the pure unsullied spring
Whence the kind affections flow;
Soft compassion's feeling soul,
By the melting eye expressed;
Sympathy, at whose control
Sorrow leaves the wounded breast;
- 3 Willing hands to lead the blind,
Bind the wounded, feed the poor;
Love, embracing all our kind,
Charity, with liberal store:

Thus to show our grateful mind,
Thus the accepted offering bring,
Love to thee and all mankind.

Our truest bliss to find ;
Nor sternly judge our erring race,
So feeble and so blind.

Close of the Evening Service.

- 1 SOON will our fleeting hours be past,
And, as the setting sun
Now leaves the clouds in yonder west,
Our parting beams be gone.
- 2 May He, from whom all blessings flow,
Our sacred rites attend ;
Unite our hearts in wisdom's ways,
Till life's short journey end ;
- 3 And, as the rapid sands run down,
Our virtue still improve,
Till each receives the glorious crown
Of never-fading love.

Humble Adoration.

- 1 HOLY, holy, holy Lord,
Be thy glorious name adored ;
Lord, thy mercies never fail ;
Hail, celestial Goodness, hail !
- 2 Though unworthy, Lord, thine ear,
Deign our humble songs to hear ;
Purer praise we hope to bring,
When around thy throne we sing.
- 3 While on earth ordained to stay,
Guide our footsteps in thy way ;
Then on high we'll joyful raise
Songs of everlasting praise.

The Christian Farewell.

- 1 THY presence, everlasting God,
Wide o'er all nature spreads abroad ;
Thy watchful eyes, which cannot sleep,
In every place thy children keep.
- 2 While near each other we remain,
Thou dost our lives and souls sustain ;
When absent, happy if we share
Thy smiles, thy counsels, and thy care.
- 3 To thee we all our ways commit,
And seek our comforts near thy feet ;
Still on our souls vouchsafe to shine,
And guard and guide us still as thine.

- 4 Give us in thy beloved house
Again to pay our grateful vows ;
Or, if that joy no more be known,
Give us to meet around thy throne.

At Parting.

- 1 As the sun's enlivening eye
Shines on every place the same,
So the Lord is always nigh
To the souls that love his name.
- 2 When they move at duty's call,
He is with them by the way ;
He is ever with them all,
Those who go, and those who stay.
- 3 From his holy mercy-seat
Nothing can their souls confine ;
Still in spirit they may meet,
And in sweet communion join.
- 4 For a season called to part,
Let us, then, ourselves commend
To the gracious eye and heart
Of our ever-present Friend.
- 5 Father, hear our humble prayer ;
Tender Shepherd of thy sheep,
Let thy mercy and thy care
All our souls in safety keep.
- 6 In thy strength may we be strong,
Sweeten every cross and pain ;
Give us, if we live, ere long,
Here to meet in peace again.

The Seed of the Word.

- 1 O God, by whom the seed is given,
By whom the harvest blest;
Whose word, like manna showered from heaven,
Is planted in our breast!
- 2 Preserve it from the passing feet,
And plunderers of the air;
The sultry sun's intenser heat,
And weeds of worldly care.
- 3 Though buried deep, or thinly strown,
Do thou thy grace supply;
The hope in earthly furrows sown
Shall ripen in the sky.

The Seed sown.

- 1 Now, Lord, the heavenly seed is sown,
Be it thy servant's care
Thy heavenly blessing to bring down,
By humble, fervent prayer.
- 2 In vain we plant without thine aid,
And water, too, in vain;
Lord of the harvest, God of grace,
Send down thy heavenly rain.
- 3 Then shall our cheerful hearts and tongues
Begin this song divine:
"Thou, Lord, hast given the rich increase,
And be the glory thine."

Prayer for a Blessing.

- 1 GLORIOUS in thy saints appear;
Plant thy heavenly kingdom here;
Light and life to all impart;

Make us, Lord, for glory meet;
Till we stand before thy sight,
With the blessed saints in light.

Parting.

- 1 CHRISTIANS, brethren, ere we part,
Every voice and every heart
Join, and to our Father raise
One last hymn of grateful praise.
- 2 Though we here should meet no more,
Yet there is a brighter shore;
There, released from toil and pain,
There, we all may meet again.
- 3 Now to Him who reigns in heaven
Be eternal glory given!
Grateful for thy love divine,
O, may all our hearts be thine!

He shall give his Angels charge over thee.

- 1 THEY, who on the Lord rely,
Safely dwell, though danger's nigh;
Lo! his sheltering wings are spread
O'er each faithful servant's head.
- 2 Vain temptation's wily snare;
They shall be the Father's care;
Harmless flies the shaft by day,
Or in darkness wings its way.

Death and danger may be near,
Faith and love can never fear.

Christ's Regard to little Children.

- 1 SEE Israel's gentle Shepherd stand
With all-engaging charms;
Hark! how he calls the tender lambs,
And folds them in his arms!

- 2 "Permit them to approach," he cries,
 "Nor scorn their humble name;
 For 'twas to bless such souls as these
 The Lord of angels came."
- 3 We bring them, Lord, in thankful hands,
 And yield them up to thee;
 Joyful that we ourselves are thine,
 'Thine let our offspring be.
- 4 Ye little flock, with pleasure hear;
 Ye children, seek his face,
 And fly with transport to receive
 The blessings of his grace.
- 5 If orphans they are left behind,
 God's guardian care we trust;
 That care shall heal our bleeding hearts,
 If weeping o'er their dust.

Holy Baptism.

- 1 IN token that thou shalt not fear
 Christ crucified to own,
 We print the cross upon thee here,
 And stamp thee his alone.
- 2 IN token that thou shalt not blush
 To glory in his name,
 We blazon here upon thy front
 His glory and his shame.
- 3 IN token that thou shalt not fail
 Christ's quarrel to maintain,
 But 'neath his banner manfully
 Firm at thy post remain;

- 4 In token that thou, too, shalt tread
 The path he travelled by,
 Endure the cross, despise the shame,
 And sit thee down on high.
- 5 Thus, outwardly and visibly,
 We seal thee for his own;
 And may the brow that wears his cross
 Hereafter share his crown!

Baptism of Children.

- 1 To Him, who children blessed,
 And suffered them to come,
 To Him who took them to his breast,
 We bring these children home.
- 2 To thee, O God! whose face
 Their spirits still behold,
 We bring them, praying that thy grace
 May keep, thine arms enfold.

 Thy Holy Spirit grant, O Lord!
 To keep them pure as now.

He beareth the Lambs in his Arms.

- 1 SAVIOUR, who thy flock art feeding
 With the shepherd's kindest care,
 All the feeble gently leading,
 While the lambs thy bosom share,—

- 2 Now, these little ones receiving,
Fold them in thy gracious arm ;
There, we know, thy word believing,
Only there, secure from harm !
- 3 Never, from thy pasture roving,
Let them be the lion's prey ;
Let thy tenderness so loving
Keep them all life's dangerous way.
- 4 Then, within thy fold eternal,
Let them find a resting-place ;
Feed in pastures ever vernal,
Drink the rivers of thy grace !

Early Piety.

- 1 By cool Siloam's shady rill
How fair the lily grows !
How sweet the breath, beneath the hill,
Of Sharon's dewy rose !
- 2 Lo ! such the child, whose early feet
The paths of peace have trod,
Whose secret heart, with influence sweet,
Is upward drawn to God.
- 3 By cool Siloam's shady rill
The lily must decay ;
The rose, that blooms beneath the hill,
Must shortly fade away.
- 4 And soon, too soon, the wintry hour
Of man's maturer age
Will shake the soul with sorrow's power,
And stormy passion's rage.

- 5 O thou who givest life and breath!
We seek thy grace alone,
In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
To keep us still thine own.

Confirmation Prayer.

- 1 THINE for ever! God of love,
Hear us from thy throne above;
Thine for ever may we be,
Here and in eternity!
- 2 Thine for ever! Lord of life,
Shield us through our earthly strife;
Thou the Life, the Truth, the Way,
Guide us to the realms of day.
- 3 Thine for ever! O how blest
They who find in thee their rest!
Saviour, Guardian, heavenly Friend,
O defend us to the end!
- 4 Thine for ever! Saviour keep
These thy frail and trembling sheep;
Safe alone beneath thy care,
Let us all thy goodness share.

All our wants by thee supplied,
All our sins by thee forgiven,
Led by thee from earth to heaven!

- 1 To thee, O God in heaven!
This little one we bring,
Giving to thee what thou hast given,
Our dearest offering.
- 2 Into a world of toil
These little feet will roam,
Where sin its purity may soil,
Where care and grief may come.
- 3 O, then, let thy pure love,

To comfort and make clean.
- 4 And as this water falls
On this unconscious brow,
Thy Holy Spirit grant, O Lord!
To keep it pure as now.

The Lord's Supper instituted.

- 1 'Twas on that dark, that doleful night,
When powers of earth and hell arose
Against the Son of God's delight,
And friends betrayed him to his foes.
- 2 Before the mournful scene began,
He took the bread and blessed and brake:
What love through all his actions ran!
What wondrous words of grace he spake!

- 3 "This is my body, broke for sin ;
Receive and eat the living food :"
Then took the cup, and blessed the wine ;
" 'Tis the new covenant in my blood."
- 4 "Do this," he cried, "till time shall end,
In memory of your dying Friend ;
Meet at my table and record
The love of your departed Lord."
- 5 Jesus! thy feast we celebrate ;
We show thy death, we sing thy name,
Till thou return, and we shall eat
The marriage supper of the Lamb.

The Memorial of our absent Lord.

- 1 JESUS is gone above the skies,
Where our weak senses reach him not ;
And carnal objects court our eyes,
To thrust our Saviour from our thought.
- 2 He knows what wandering hearts we have,
Apt to forget his lovely face ;
And to refresh our minds he gave
These kind memorials of his grace.
- 3 Let sinful sweets be all forgot,
And earth grow less in our esteem ;
Christ and his love fill every thought,
And faith and hope be fixed on him.
- 4 While he is absent from our sight,
'Tis to prepare our souls a place,
That we may dwell in heavenly light,
And live for ever near his face.

"This do in Remembrance of me."

- 1 ACCORDING to thy gracious word,
In meek humility,
This will I do, my dying Lord, —
I will remember thee.
- 2 Thy body, broken for my sake,
My bread from heaven shall be;
Thy testamental cup I take,
And thus remember thee.
- 3 Gethsemane can I forget,
Or there thy conflict see,
Thine agony and bloody sweat,
And not remember thee?
- 4 When to the cross I turn my eyes,
And rest on Calvary,
O Lamb of God, my Sacrifice!
I must remember thee;
- 5 Remember thee and all thy pains,
And all thy love to me,
Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
Will I remember thee.
- 6 And when these failing lips grow dumb,
And mind and memory flee,
When thou shalt in thy kingdom come,
Jesus, remember me.

FURNESS.

A Communion Hymn.

- 1 O FOR a prophet's fire,
O for an angel's tongue,
To speak the mighty love of Him
Who on the cross was hung!
- 2 In vain our hearts attempt,
In language meet, to tell
How through a thousand sorrows burned
That flame unquenchable.
- 3 Yet would we praise that love,
Beyond expression dear;
Come, gather round this table, then,
And celebrate it here.
- 4 Here, in the bread and wine,
Your dying Saviour view;
Thus did he give his body up,
And thus his blood, for you.
- 5 These symbols of his death,
O, with what power they speak!
Prophetic lips and angels' lyres,
Compared with these, are weak.
- 6 And shall they plead in vain
With our forgetful souls?
Forbid it, God, while through our veins
The vital current rolls.

Proper Dispositions for the Communion.

- 1 O HERE, if ever, God of love,
Let strife and hatred cease ;
And every thought harmonious move,
And every heart be peace !
- 2 Not here, where met to think on Him
Whose latest thoughts were ours,
Shall mortal passions come to dim
The prayer devotion pours.
- 3 No : gracious Master, not in vain
Thy life of love hath been ;
The peace thou gav'st may yet remain,
Though thou no more art seen.
- 4 " Thy kingdom come ; " we watch, we wait,
To hear thy cheering call,
When heaven shall ope its glorious gate,
And God be all in all.

One in Christ.

- 1 PLANTED in Christ, the living Vine,
This day, with one accord,
Ourselves, with humble faith and joy,
We yield to thee, O Lord !
- 2 Joined in one body may we be ;
One inward life partake ;
One be our heart, one heavenly hope
In every bosom wake.

- 3 In prayer, in effort, tears, and toils,
 One wisdom be our guide ;
 Taught by one Spirit from above,
 In thee may we abide.
- 4 Then, when among the saints in light
 Our joyful spirits shine,
 Shall anthems of immortal praise,
 O Lamb of God ! be thine.

- 1 BREAD of the world, in mercy broken,
 Wine of the soul, in mercy shed,
 By whom the words of life were spoken,

 Look on the tears by sinners shed,
 And be thy feast to us the token
 That by thy grace our souls are fed.

Christ our Life.

- 1 O BREAD to pilgrims given,
 O food that angels eat,
 O manna sent from heaven,
 For heaven-born natures meet !
 Give us, for thee long pining,
 To eat till richly filled ;
 Till, earth's delights resigning,
 Our every wish is stilled.

- 2 O water, life-bestowing,
 From out the Saviour's heart,
 A fountain purely flowing,
 A fount of love thou art!
 O let us, freely tasting,
 Our burning thirst assuage!
 Thy sweetness, never wasting,
 Avails from age to age.
- 3 Jesus, this feast receiving,
 We thee unseen adore;
 Thy faithful word believing,
 We take, and doubt no more;
 Give us, thou true and loving,
 On earth to live in thee;
 Then, death the veil removing,
 Thy glorious face to see!

"He shall feed his Flock like a Shepherd."

- 1 SHEPHERD of souls, refresh and bless
 Thy chosen pilgrim flock,
 With manna in the wilderness,
 With water from the rock.
- 2 Hungry and thirsty, faint and weak,
 As thou when here below,
 Our souls the joys celestial seek
 Which from thy sorrows flow.
- 3 We would not live by bread alone,
 But by that word of grace,
 In strength of which we travel on
 To our abiding-place.

- 4 Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart ;
Saviour, abide with us, and spread
Thy table in our heart.
- 5 Lord, sup with us in love divine ;
Thy body and thy blood,
That living bread, that heavenly wine,
Be our immortal food.

The Son of God giving Thanks.

- 1 THE SON of God gave thanks
Before the bread he broke ;
How high that calm devotion ranks
Among the words he spoke !
- 2 Thanks, 'mid those troubled men ;
Thanks, at that deathly hour ;
The world's dark prince advancing then
With all his rage and power.
- 3 Thanks, o'er that loaf's dread sign ;
Thanks, o'er that bitter food ;
And o'er the cup that was not wine,
But sorrow, fear, and blood.
- 4 And shall our griefs resent
What God appoints as best,
When he in all things innocent
Was yet in all distressed.
- 5 Shall we unthankful be
For all our blessings' round,
When in the press of agony
Such room for thanks he found ?

- 6 O shame us, Lord, — whate'er
The fortunes of our days, —
If chastened, we are weak to bear,
If favored, slow to praise !

Remember me.

- 1 "REMEMBER me," the Saviour said
On that forsaken night,
When from his side his nearest fled,
And death was close in sight.
- 2 Through all the following ages' track
The world remembers yet;
With love and worship gazes back,
And never can forget.
- 3 But who of us has seen his face,
Or heard the words he said?
And none can now his look retrace,
In breaking of the bread.
- 4 O blest are they who have not seen,
But yet believe him still!
They know him when his praise they mean,
And when they do his will.
- 5 We hear his truth along our way,
We see his light above;
Remember, when we watch and pray,
Remember, when we love.

Crucifixion to the World.

- 1 WHEN I survey the wondrous cross,
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down:
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

That were a present far too small:
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

"Greater Love hath no Man than this."

- 1 "SEE how he loved!" exclaimed the Jews,
As tender tears from Jesus fell;
My grateful heart the thought pursues,
And on the theme delights to dwell.
- 2 See how he loved, — who travelled on,
Teaching the doctrine from the skies,
Who bade disease and pain be gone,
And called the sleeping dead to rise!
- 3 See how he loved, — who firm, yet mild,
Patient endured the scoffing tongue!
Though oft provoked, he ne'er reviled,
Or did his greatest foe a wrong.
- 4 See how he loved, — who never shrank
From toil or danger, pain or death,
Who all the cup of sorrow drank,
And meekly yielded up his breath!
- 5 Such love can we, unmoved, survey?
O, may our breast with ardor glow
To tread his steps, his laws obey,
And thus our warm affection show!

Christ's Precept of Love.

- 1 BEHOLD, where, breathing love divine,
Our dying Master stands!
His weeping followers, gathering round,
Receive his last commands.

- 2 From that mild Teacher's parting lips
What tender accents fell!
The gentle precept which he gave
Became its Author well.
- 3 "Blest is the man, whose softening heart
Feels all another's pain;
To whom the supplicating eye
Was never raised in vain;
- 4 "Whose breast expands with generous warmth
A stranger's woes to feel,
And bleeds in pity o'er the wound
He wants the power to heal.
- 5 "He spreads his kind, supporting arms
To every child of grief;
His secret bounty largely flows,
And gives unasked relief.
- 6 "To gentle offices of love
His feet are never slow;
He views, through mercy's melting eye,
A brother in a foe.
- 7 "Peace from the bosom of his God,
My peace to him I give;
And, when he kneels before the throne,
His trembling soul shall live.
- 8 "To him protection shall be shown,
And mercy from above
Descend on those who thus fulfil
The perfect law of love."

For the Lord's Supper.

- 1 "O, NOT for these alone I pray!"
The dying Saviour said,
Though on his breast that moment lay
The loved disciple's head;
- 2 Though to his eye that moment sprung
The kind, the pitying tear
For those that eager round him hung,
His words of love to hear.
- 3 No, not for them alone he prayed;
For all of mortal race,
Whene'er their fervent prayer is made,
Where'er their dwelling-place.
- 4 Sweet is the thought, when here we meet,
His feast of love to share;
And, 'mid the toils of life, how sweet
The memory of his prayer!

Let harsher passions reign,
To tell the unbelieving race
The Saviour prayed in vain!

Forms and Rites vain without Virtue.

- 1 THE uplifted eye and bended knee
Are but vain homage, Lord, to thee;
In vain our lips thy praise prolong,
The heart a stranger to the song.

- 2 Can rites and forms and flaming zeal
The breaches of thy precepts heal?
Or fasts and penance reconcile
Thy justice, and obtain thy smile?
- 3 The pure, the humble, contrite mind,
Sincere, and to thy will resigned,
To thee a nobler offering yields
Than Sheba's groves or Sharon's fields.

Doth on eternal pillars stand;
This did thine ancient prophets teach,
And this thy Well-beloved preach.

Praise to God.

- 1 PRAISE to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days;
Bounteous Source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ, —
- 2 For the blessings of the field,
For the stores the gardens yield,
For the vine's exalted juice,
For the generous olive's use.
- 3 Flocks that whiten all the plain,
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain,
Clouds that drop their fattening dews,
Suns that temperate warmth diffuse;
- 4 All that Spring, with bounteous hand,
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal Autumn pours
From her rich, o'erflowing stores, —

- 5 These to thee, my God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow;
And for these my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.
- 6 Yet should rising whirlwinds tear
From its stem the ripening ear;
Should the fig-tree's blasted shoot
Drop her green, untimely fruit;
- 7 Should the vine put forth no more,
Nor the olive yield her store;
Though the sickening flocks should fall,
And the herds desert the stall;
- 8 Should thine altered hand restrain
The early and the latter rain,
Blast each opening bud of joy,
And the rising year destroy,—
- 9 Yet to thee my soul should raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise,
And, when every blessing's flown,
Love thee — for thyself alone.

Harvest Hymn.

- 1 THE God of harvest praise;
In loud thanksgiving raise
Hand, heart, and voice;
The valleys smile and sing,
Forests and mountains ring,
The plains their tribute bring,
The streams rejoice.

- 2 Yea, bless his holy name,
 And purest thanks proclaim
 Through all the earth;
 To glory in your lot

 God's benefits forgot,
 Amidst your mirth.

 Hands, hearts, and voices raise,
 With sweet accord;
 From field to garner throng,
 Bearing your sheaves along,
 And in your harvest song
 Bless ye the Lord.

The Church. Institutions and Ordinances.

- 1 WHEN here, O Lord! we seek thy face,
 And dying sinners pray to live,
 Hear thou in heaven, thy dwelling-place,
 And when thou hearest, Lord, forgive.
- 2 When here thy messengers proclaim
 The blessed gospel of thy Son,
 Still by the power of his great name
 Be mighty signs and wonders done.
- 3 When children's voices raise the song
 Hosanna! to their heavenly King,
 Let heaven with earth the strain prolong;
 Hosanna! let their angels sing.
- 4 But will, indeed, Jehovah deign
 Here to abide, no transient guest?
 Here will our great Redeemer reign,
 And here the Holy Spirit rest?

- 5 Thy glory never hence depart;
Yet choose not, Lord, this house alone;
Thy kingdom come to every heart;
In every bosom fix thy throne.

COWPER.

On opening a Place for Social Worship.

- 1 OUR God, where'er thy people meet,
There they behold thy mercy-seat;
Where'er they seek thee, thou art found,
And every place is hallowed ground.
- 2 For thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;
Such ever bring thee where they come,
And going, take thee to their home.
- 3 Here may we prove the power of prayer,
To strengthen faith and sweeten care;
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.
- 4 Behold, at thy commanding word,
We stretch the curtain and the cord;
Come thou, and fill this wider space,
And bless us with a large increase.
- 5 Lord, we are few, but thou art near;
Nor short thine arm, nor deaf thine ear;
O rend the heavens, come quickly down,
And make a thousand hearts thine own!

Ordination of a Minister.

- 1 O God, whose presence glows in all
Within, around us, and above,
Thy word we bless, thy name we call,
Whose word is truth, whose name is Love.
- 2 That truth be with the heart believed,
Of all who seek this sacred place;
With power proclaimed, in peace received,
Our spirits' light, thy Spirit's grace.
- 3 That love its holy influence pour,
To keep us meek, and make us free,
And throw its binding blessing more
Round each with all, and all with thee.
- 4 Direct and guard the youthful strength
Devoted to thy Son this day;
And give thy word full course at length
O'er man's defects and time's decay.
- 5 Send down its angel to our side;
Send in its calm upon the breast;
For we would know no other guide,
And we can need no other rest.

Ordination Hymn.

- 1 O LORD of life and truth and grace,
Ere nature was begun,
Make welcome to our erring race
Thy Spirit and thy Son.

- 2 We hail the church, built high o'er all
The heathens' rage and scoff,
Thy providence its fenced wall,
"The Lamb the light thereof."
- 3 Thy Christ hath reached his heavenly seat
Through sorrows and through scars;
The golden lamps are at his feet,*
And in his hand the stars.
- 4 O, may he walk among us here,
With his rebuke and love,
A brightness o'er this lower sphere,
A ray from worlds above!
- 5 Teach thou thy youthful servant, Lord,
The mysteries he reveals,
That reverence may receive the word,
And meekness loose the seals.

Missionary Hymn.

- 1 FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand,
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.
- 2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile?

* Rev. ii. 1.

In vain, with lavish kindness,
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone.

- 3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
By wisdom from on high,
Shall we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation! O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
Has learnt Messiah's name.

Showing Mercy.

- 1 THINK gently of the erring one!
O, let us not forget,
However darkly stained by sin,
He is our brother yet!
- 2 Heir of the same inheritance,
Child of the self-same God,
He hath but stumbled in the path
We have in weakness trod.
- 3 Speak gently to the erring ones!
We yet may lead them back,
With holy words, and tones of love,
From misery's thorny track.
- 4 Forget not, brother, thou hast sinned,
And sinful yet mayst be;
Deal gently with the erring heart,
As God hath dealt with thee.

Sow in Faith.

- 1 Sow in the morn thy seed,
At eve hold not thy hand;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed,
Broadcast it o'er the land!
Beside all waters sow,
The highway furrows stock,
Drop it where thorns and thistles grow,
Drop it upon the rock!
- 2 The good, the fruitful ground
Expect not here nor there;
O'er hill and dale and plain 'tis found,
Go forth, then, everywhere!
And duly shall appear,
In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
And the full corn at length.
- 3 Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, and moist and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garners in the sky;
Then when the glorious end,
The day of God, shall come,
The angel-reapers shall descend,
At heaven's great harvest-home.

Triumphs of the Gospel.

- 1 THE morning light is breaking,
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears.
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.
- 2 Rich dew of grace come o'er us
In many a gentle shower;
And brighter scenes before us
Are opening every hour.
Each cry to heaven going,
Abundant answer brings;
And heavenly gales are blowing,
With peace upon their wings.
- 3 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;
While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing,
A nation in a day.
- 4 Blest river of salvation,
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay:

Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home;
Stay not till all the holy
Proclaim, "The Lord is come."

The Baptism of the Spirit.

- 1 O SPIRIT of the living God,
In all thy plenitude of grace,
Where'er the foot of man hath trod,
Descend on our apostate race.
- 2 Give tongues of fire, and hearts of love,
To preach the reconciling word;
Give power and unction from above,
Where'er the joyful sound is heard.
- 3 Be darkness, at thy coming, light,
Confusion order, in thy path;
Souls without strength inspire with might;
Bid mercy triumph over wrath.
- 4 Baptize the nations; far and nigh
The triumphs of the cross record;
The name of Jesus glorify,
Till every kindred call him Lord.
- 5 O Spirit of the Lord! prepare
All the round earth her God to meet,
Breathe thou abroad like morning air,
Till hearts of stone begin to beat.

MONTGOMERY.

Arise, shine, for thy Light is come.

- 1 DAUGHTER of Zion, from the dust
Exalt thy fallen head;
Again in thy Redeemer trust,
He calls thee from the dead.
- 2 Awake, awake, put on thy strength,
Thy beautiful array;
The day of freedom dawns at length,
The Lord's appointed day.
- 3 Rebuild thy walls, thy bounds enlarge,
And send thy heralds forth;
Say to the South, "Give up thy charge,"
And "keep not back, O North!"
- 4 They come, they come; thine exiled bands,
Where'er they rest or roam,
Have heard thy voice in distant lands,
And hasten to their home.
- 5 Thus, though the universe shall burn
And God his works destroy,
With songs the ransomed shall return,
And everlasting joy.

In Times of Distress and Danger.

- 1 O God that madest the earth and sky,
The darkness and the day!
Give ear to this thy family,
And help us when we pray.

For wide the waves of bitterness
Around our vessel roar,
And heavy grows the pilot's heart,
To view the rocky shore.

- 2 The cross our Master bore for us,
For him we fain would bear;
But mortal strength to weakness turns,
And courage to despair:
Then mercy on our failings, Lord!
Our sinking faith renew!
And when his sorrows visit us,
Oh send his patience too!

Prayer and Hope of Victory. Ps. 20.

- 1 Now may the God of power and grace
Attend his people's humble cry;
Jehovah hears when Israel prays,
And brings deliverance from on high.
- 2 In his salvation is our hope,
And in the name of Israel's God
Our troops shall lift their banners up,
Our navies spread their flags abroad.
- 3 Some trust in horses trained for war,
And some of chariots make their boasts;
Our surest expectations are
From thee, the Lord of heavenly hosts.
- 4 Now save us, Lord, from slavish fear,
Now let our hopes be firm and strong,
Till thy salvation shall appear,
And joy and triumph raise the song.

Our Native Land.

Firm may she ever stand,
Through storm and night;
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of winds and wave,
Do thou our country save
By thy great might.

To God above the skies;
On him we wait:
Thou who hast heard each sigh,
Watching each weeping eye,
Be thou for ever nigh;
God save the State!

My Country.

- 1 MY country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing:
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain-side
Let freedom ring.
- 2 My native country! thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

- 3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song!
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathes partake;
Let rocks their silence break, —
The sounds prolong.
- 4 Our fathers' God! to thee,
Author of liberty, —
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.

For New Year's Day.

- 1 My Helper, God, I bless his name;
The same his power, his grace the same;
The tokens of his friendly care
Open and crown and close the year.
- 2 I 'midst ten thousand dangers stand,
Supported by his guardian hand,
And see, when I survey my ways,
Ten thousand monuments of praise.
- 3 Thus far his arm hath led me on;
Thus far I make his mercy known;
And, while I tread this desert land,
New mercies shall new songs demand.

427.

DODDRIDGE.

For a new Year.

- 1 REMARK, my soul, the narrow bounds
Of the revolving year;
How swift the weeks complete their rounds!
How short the months appear!
- 2 So fast eternity comes on,
And that important day,
When all that mortal life has done
God's judgment shall survey.
- 3 Yet, like an idle tale, we pass
The swift-advancing year,
And study artful ways to increase
The speed of its career.
- 4 Waken, O God! my trifling heart,
Its great concern to see;
That I may act the Christian part,
And give the year to thee.
- 5 So shall their course more grateful roll,
If future years arise;
Or this shall bear my smiling soul
To joy that never dies.

DODDRIDGE.

For a new Year.

- 1 GREAT God, we sing that mighty hand,
By which supported still we stand:
The opening year thy mercy shows;
That mercy crowns it till it close.

- 2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still are we guarded by our God,
By his incessant bounty fed,
By his unerring counsel led.
- 3 With grateful hearts the past we own ;
The future, all to us unknown,
We to thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before thy feet.
- 4 In scenes exalted or depressed,
Thou art our joy, and thou our rest ;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.
- 5 When death shall interrupt these songs,
And seal in silence mortal tongues,
Our Helper, God, in whom we trust,
In better worlds our souls shall boast.

WESLEY'S COL

For a new Year.

- 1 COME, let us anew our journey pursue,
Roll round with the year,
And never stand still till the Master appear.
- 2 His adorable will let us gladly fulfil,
And our talents improve,
By the patience of hope, and the labor of love.
- 3 Our life is a dream ; our time as a stream
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay.

- 4 The arrow is flown ; the moment is gone ;
 The millennial year
 Rushes on to our view, and eternity's here.
- 5 O that each, in the day of his coming, may say,
 " I have fought my way through ;
 I have finished the work thou didst give me to do " !
- 6 O that each from his Lord may receive the glad word,
 " Well and faithfully done !
 Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne " !

Time how swift.

- 1 WHILE, with ceaseless course, the sun
 Hasted through the former year,
 Many souls their race have run,
 Never more to meet us here :
 Fixed in an eternal state,
 They have done with all below ;
 We a little longer wait,
 But how little none can know.
- 2 As the wingèd arrow flies,
 Speedily the mark to find, —
 As the lightning from the skies
 Darts, and leaves no trace behind, —
 Swiftly thus our fleeting days
 Bear us down life's rapid stream ;
 Upwards, Lord, our spirits raise ;
 All below is but a dream.

- 3 Thanks for mercies past receive ;
Pardon of our sins renew ;
Teach us, henceforth, how to live
With eternity in view :
Bless thy word to young and old,
Fill us with a Saviour's love ;
And, when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with thee above.

Close of the Year.

- 1 O God! to thee our hearts would pay
Their gratitude sincere,
Whose love hath kept us, night and day,
Throughout another year.
- 2 Of every breath and every power,
Thou wast the gracious source ;
From thee came every happy hour
Which smiled along its course.
- 3 And if sometimes across our path
A cloud its shadows threw,
Thou didst not waft it there in wrath,
But loving-kindness true.
- 4 For joy and grief alike we pay
Our thanks to thee above ;
And only pray to grow each day
More worthy of thy love.

The Autumn Evening.

- 1 BEHOLD the western evening light !
It melts in deeper gloom ;
So calm the righteous sink away,
Descending to the tomb.
- 2 The winds breathe low ; the yellow leaf
Scarce whispers from the tree ;
So gently flows the parting breath,
When good men cease to be.
- 3 How beautiful, on all the hills,
The crimson light is shed !
'Tis like the peace the dying gives
To mourners round his bed.
- 4 How mildly on the wandering cloud
The sunset beam is cast !
So sweet the memory left behind,
When loved ones breathe their last.
- 5 And, lo ! above the dews of night
The vesper star appears ;
So faith lights up the mourner's heart,
Whose eyes are dim with tears.
- 6 Night falls, but soon the morning light
Its glories shall restore ;
And thus the eyes that sleep in death
Shall wake, to close no more.

Funeral Prayer.

- 1 LOWLY and solemn be
Thy children's cry to thee,
Father divine!—
A hymn of suppliant breath,
Owning that life and death
Alike are thine.
- 2 O Father! in that hour
When earth all succoring power
Shall disavow, —
When spear and shield and crown
In faintness are cast down, —
Sustain us, thou!
- 3 By Him who bowed to take
The death-cup for our sake,
The thorn, the rod, —
From whom the last dismay
Was not to pass away, —
Aid us, O God!
- 4 Tremblers beside the grave,
We call on thee to save,
Father divine!
Hear, hear our suppliant breath;
Keep us, in life and death,
Thine, only thine.

Funeral Hymn.

- 1 THOU art gone to the grave, but we will not deplore thee ;
Though sorrows and darkness encompass the tomb,
The Saviour has passed through its portals before thee,
And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.
- 2 'Thou art gone to the grave ; we no longer behold thee,
Nor tread the rough path of the world by thy side ;
But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
And sinners may hope, since the Sinless has died.
- 3 Thou art gone to the grave, and, its mansions forsaking,
Perhaps thy tried spirit in doubt lingered long ;
But the sunshine of heaven beamed bright on thy waking,
And the song that thou heard'st was the seraphim's song.
- 4 Thou art gone to the grave, but 'twere wrong to deplore thee,
When God was thy Ransom, thy Guardian, and Guide ;
He gave thee, and took thee, and soon will restore thee,
Where death has no sting, since the Saviour has died.

Funeral Hymn.

- 1 BROTHER, thou art gone before us,
And thy saintly soul is flown
Where tears are wiped from every eye,
And sorrow is unknown;
From the burden of the flesh,
And from care and fear released,
Where the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary are at rest.
- 2 Sin can never taint thee now,
Nor doubt thy faith assail,
Nor thy meek trust in Jesus Christ
And the Holy spirit fail;
And there thou'rt sure to meet the good,
Whom on earth thou lovedst best,
Where the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary are at rest.
- 3 "Earth to earth," and "dust to dust,"
The solemn priest hath said,
So we lay the turf above thee now,
And we seal thy narrow bed;
But thy spirit, brother, soars away
Among the faithful blest,
Where the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary are at rest.

- 1 CALM on the bosom of thy God,
Young spirit rest thee now!
E'en while with us thy footsteps trod,
His seal was on thy brow.

- 2 Dust, to its narrow house beneath !
Soul, to its place on high !
They that have seen thy look in death
No more may fear to die.
- 3 Lone are the paths, and sad the bowers,
Whence thy meek smile is gone ;
But O, a brighter home than ours,
In heaven is now thine own !

Time and Eternity. Life and Death.

- 1 WITH silence only as their benediction,
God's angels come,
Where, in the shadow of a great affliction,
The soul sits dumb.
- 2 Yet would we say what every heart approveth,
Our Father's will,
Calling to him the dear ones whom he loveth,
Is mercy still.
- 3 Not upon us or ours the solemn angel
Hath evil wrought ;
The funeral anthem is a glad evangel ;
The good die not !
- 4 God calls our loved ones, but we lose not wholly
What he has given ;
They live on earth in thought and deed, as truly
As in his heaven.

Not lost, but gone before.

- 1 ANOTHER hand is beckoning us,
Another call is given ;
And glows once more with angel steps
The path that leads to heaven.
- 2 O, half we deemed she needed not
The changing of her sphere,
To give to heaven a shining one,
Who walked an angel here.
- 3 Unto our Father's will alone
One thought hath reconciled :
That He whose love exceedeth ours
Hath taken home his child.
- 4 Fold her, O Father! in thine arms,
And let her henceforth be
A messenger of love between
Our human hearts and thee.
- 5 Still let her mild rebukings stand
Between us and the wrong,
And her dear memory serve to make
Our faith in goodness strong.

How kind their slumbers are !
From sufferings and from sins released,
And freed from every snare.
- 3 Far from this world of toil and strife
They're present with the Lord ;
The labors of their mortal life
End in a large reward.

Thanks for all Saints.

- 1 For all thy saints, O God !
Who strove in Christ to live,
Who followed him, obeyed, adored,
Our grateful hymn receive.
- 2 For all thy saints, O God !
Accept our thankful cry,
Who counted Christ their great reward,
And strove in him to die.
- 3 They all, in life and death,
With him, their Lord, in view,
Learned from thy Holy Spirit's breath
To suffer and to do.
- 4 For this thy name we bless,
And humbly beg that we
May follow them in holiness,
And live and die in thee.

The Christian's Burial.

- 1 BROTHER, though from yonder sky
Cometh neither voice nor cry,
Yet we know for thee to-day
Every pain hath passed away.
- 2 Not for thee shall tears be given,
Child of God and heir of heaven;
For he gave thee sweet release;
Thine the Christian's death of peace.
- 3 Well we know thy living faith
Had the power to conquer death;
As a living rose may bloom
By the border of the tomb.
- 4 Brother, in that solemn trust,
We commend thy dust to dust;
In that faith we wait, till, risen,
Thou shalt meet us all in heaven.
- 5 While we weep as Jesus wept,
Thou shalt sleep as Jesus slept;
Then with Jesus thou shalt rest,
Crowned and glorified and blest.

The Death and Burial of a Saint.

- 1 WHY do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms?
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to his arms.

- 2 Why should we tremble to convey
Their bodies to the tomb ?
There the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
And left a long perfume.
- 3 The graves of all his saints he blest,
And softened every bed ;
Where should the dying members rest
But with the dying Head ?
- 4 Thence he arose, ascending high,
And showed our feet the way ;
Up to the Lord our flesh shall fly
At the great rising day.
- 5 Then let the last, loud trumpet sound,
And bid our kindred rise ;
Awake, ye nations under ground ;
Ye saints, ascend the skies.

Peaceful Death of the Righteous.

- 1 I LOOKED upon the righteous man,
And saw his parting breath,
Without a struggle or a sigh,
Serenely yield to death :
There was no anguish on his brow,
Nor terror in his eye ;
The spoiler aimed a fatal dart,
But lost the victory.
- 2 I looked upon the righteous man,
And heard the holy prayer,
Which rose above that breathless form
To soothe the mourner's care ;

And felt how precious was the gift
 He to his loved ones gave, —
 The stainless memory of the just,
 The wealth beyond the grave.

- 3 I looked upon the righteous man ;
 And all our earthly trust
 Of pleasure, vanity, or pride,
 Seemed lighter than the dust
 Compared with his celestial gain,
 A home above the sky :
 O, grant us, Lord, his life to live,
 That we like him may die !

Death of a Child.

- 1 FARE thee well, our fondly cherished !
 Dear, dear spirit, fare thee well !
 He who lent thee hath recalled thee,
 Back with him and his to dwell.
- 2 Like a sunbeam through our dwelling
 Shone thy presence, bright and calm ;
 Thou didst add a zest to pleasure ;
 To our sorrows thou wast balm.
- 3 Yet while mourning, O our lost one !
 Come no visions of despair ;
 Seated on thy tomb, Faith's angel
 Saith, thou art not, art not there.
- 4 Where, then, art thou ? with the Saviour,
 Blest, for ever blest, to be ;
 'Mid the sinless little children
 Who have heard his " Come to me."

- 5 Passed the shades of death's dark valley,
Thou art leaning on his breast,
Where the wicked may not enter,
And the weary are at rest.
- 6 Plead, that in a Father's mercy
All our sins may be forgiven;
Angel! plead, that thou mayst greet us,
Ransomed, at the gates of heaven.

Morning.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run ;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.
- 2 Thy precious time, misspent, redeem ;
Each present day thy last esteem ;
Improve thy talent with due care ;
For the great day thyself prepare.
- 3 In conversation be sincere ;
Keep conscience, as the noontide, clear ;
Think how the all-seeing God thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.
- 4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew ;
Scatter my sins like morning dew ;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.
- 5 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design or do or say,
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

Morning or Evening.

- 1 As every day thy mercy spares
Will bring its trials or its cares,
O Father! till my life shall end,
Be thou my counsellor and friend;
Teach me thy statutes all divine,
And let thy will be always mine.
- 2 When each day's scenes and labors close
And wearied nature seeks repose,
With pardoning mercy, richly blest,
Guard me, my Father, while I rest;
And as each morning sun shall rise,
O lead me onward to the skies!
- 3 And at my life's last setting sun,
My conflicts o'er, my labors done,
Father, thine heavenly radiance shed
To cheer and bless my dying bed;
And from death's gloom my spirit raise
To see thy face, and sing thy praise.

KEBLE.

Morning.

- 1 O TIMELY happy, timely wise,
Hearts that with rising morn arise,
Eyes that the beam celestial view,
Which evermore makes all things new!
- 2 New every morning is the love
Our waking and uprising prove;
Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life and power and thought.

- 3 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.
- 4 If, on our daily course, our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.
- 5 O, could we learn that sacrifice,
What lights would all around us rise!
How would our hearts with wisdom talk,
Along life's dullest, dreariest walk!
- 6 The trivial round, the common task,
Would furnish all we ought to ask,
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us, daily, nearer God.

A Morning Hymn.

- 1 GOD of the morning, at whose voice
The cheerful sun makes haste to rise,
And like a giant doth rejoice
To run his journey through the skies.
- 2 From the fair chambers of the east,
The circuit of his race begins,
And, without weariness or rest,
Round the whole earth he flies and shines.
- 3 O, like the sun may I fulfil
The appointed duties of the day!
With ready mind and active will
March on and keep my heavenly way.

- 4 Lord, thy commands are clean and pure,
Enlightening our beclouded eyes,
Thy threatenings just, thy promise sure,
Thy gospel makes the simple wise.

Morning Hymn.

- 1 Now the shades of night are gone ;
Now the morning light is come ;
Lord, may we be thine to-day,
Drive the shades of sin away.
- 2 Fill our souls with heavenly light,
Banish doubt and clear our sight;
In thy service, Lord, to-day,
May we stand and watch and pray.
- 3 Keep our haughty passions bound ;
Save us from our foes around ;
Going out and coming in,
Keep us safe from every sin.
- 4 When our work of life is past,
O receive us, then, at last !
Night and sin will be no more,
When we reach the heavenly shore.

Before Sleep.

- 1 INTERVAL of grateful shade,
Welcome to my weary head ;
Welcome, slumbers, to mine eyes,
Tired with glaring vanities.

- 2 My great Master still allows
Needful periods of repose ;
By my heavenly Father blessed,
Thus I give my powers to rest.
- 3 Heavenly Father ! gracious name !
Night and day his love the same ;
Far be each suspicious thought,
Every anxious care forgot.
- 4 Thou, my ever-bounteous God,
Crown'st my days with various good,
Thy kind eye, that cannot sleep,
These defenceless hours shall keep.
- 5 Blest vicissitude to me !
Day and night I'm still with thee ;
Guarded thus, I sink to rest,
Folded in a Father's breast.

Times and Seasons.

- 1 COME at the morning hour,
Come, let us kneel and pray ;
Prayer is the Christian pilgrim's staff
To walk with God all day.
- 2 At noon, beneath the Rock
Of Ages, rest and pray ;
Sweet is that shelter from the sun
In the weary heat of day.
- 3 At evening, in thy home,
Around its altar pray ;
And finding there the house of God,
With heaven then close the day.

- 4 When midnight veils our eyes,
O, it is sweet to say,
I sleep, but my heart waketh, Lord!
With thee to watch and pray.

In the Night Watches.

- 1 WHILE the stars unnumbered roll
Round the ever-constant pole;
Far above these spangled skies,
All my soul to God shall rise;
- 2 'Midst the silence of the night,
Mingling with those angels bright,
Whose harmonious voices raise
Ceaseless love and ceaseless praise.
- 3 Through the throng his gentle ear
Shall my tuneless accents hear;
From on high doth he impart
Secret comfort to my heart.
- 4 He, in these serenest hours,
Guides my intellectual powers;
And his Spirit doth diffuse
Sweeter far than midnight dews,—
- 5 Lifting all my thoughts above,
On the wings of faith and love:
Blest alternative to me,
Thus to sleep, or wake, with thee!

An Evening Hymn.

- 1 THUS far the Lord has led me on ;
Thus far his power prolongs my days ;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.
- 2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home ;
But he forgives my follies past ;
He gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep ;
Peace is the pillow for my head ;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

BISHOP KENN.

Evening Hymn.

- 1 GLORY to thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light ;
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings,
Under thy own almighty wings !
- 2 Forgive me, Lord, through thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done ;
That, with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
- 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
To die, that this vile body may
Rise glorious at the awful day.

- 4 O, may my soul on thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close! —
Sleep that may me more vigorous make,
To serve my God when I awake.
- 5 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!
Praise him, all creatures here below!
Praise him, ye angels round his throne!
Praise God, the high and holy One!

Evening Aspiration.

God, that madest earth and heaven,
Darkness and light, —
Who the day for toil hast given,
For rest the night, —
May thine angel guards defend us,
Slumber sweet thy mercy send us,
Holy dreams and hopes attend us,
This livelong night.

Nature's Evening Hymn.

- 1 THE heavenly spheres to thee, O God!
Attune their evening hymn;
All-wise, all-holy, thou art praised
In song of seraphim;
Unnumbered systems, suns, and worlds,
Unite to worship thee,
While thy majestic greatness fills
Space, time, eternity.

- 2 Nature, — a temple worthy thee,
 That beams with light and love;
 Whose flowers so sweetly bloom below,
 Whose stars rejoice above;
 Whose altars are the mountain cliffs
 That rise along the shore;
 Whose anthems, the sublime accord
 Of storm and ocean roar, —
- 3 Her song of gratitude is sung
 By spring's awakening hours;
 Her summer offers at thy shrine
 Its earliest, loveliest flowers;
 Her autumn brings its ripened fruits,
 In glorious luxury given,
 While winter's silver heights reflect
 Thy brightness back to heaven.
- 4 On all thou smil'st; and what is man
 Before thy presence, God?
 A breath but yesterday inspired,
 To-morrow but a clod;
 That clod shall mingle in the vale,
 But, kindled, Lord, by thee,
 The spirit to thy arms shall spring,
 To life, to liberty.

Peace be with you.

- 1 PART in peace! is day before us?
 Praise his name for life and light!
 Are the shadows lengthening o'er us?
 Bless his care who guards the night.

2 Part in peace! with deep thanksgiving,
 Rendering, as we homeward tread,
 Gracious service to the living,
 Tranquil memory to the dead.

3 Part in peace! such are the praises
 God, our Maker, loveth best;
 Such the worship that upraises
 Human hearts to heavenly rest.

Morning or Evening.

- 1 MY God, how endless is thy love!
 Thy gifts are every evening new,
 And morning mercies from above
 Gently distil like early dew.
- 2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
 Great Guardian of my sleeping hours;
 Thy sovereign word restores the light,
 And quickens all my drowsy powers.
- 3 I yield my powers to thy command;
 To thee I consecrate my days;
 Perpetual blessings from thine hand
 Demand perpetual songs of praise.

"The Lord is my Light."

- 1 SWEET Saviour, bless us ere we go;
 Thy word into our minds instil,
 And make our lukewarm hearts to glow
 With lowly love and fervent will.
 Through life's long day and death's dark night,
 O gentle Jesus! be our light.

- 2 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release ;
And bless us, more than in past days,
With purity and inward peace.
Through life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus ! be our light.
- 3 Do more than pardon, give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And simple hearts without alloy
That only long to be like thee.
Through life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus ! be our light.

Sabbath Evening Worship.

- 1 Lo ! the day of rest declineth ;
Gather fast the shades of night :
May the sun, that ever shineth,
Fill our souls with heavenly light !
- 2 Softly now the dew is falling ;
Peace o'er all the scene is spread ;
On his children, meekly calling,
Purer influence God will shed.
- 3 While thine ear of love addressing,
Thus our parting hymn we sing :
Father, give thine evening blessing ;
Fold us safe beneath thy wing.

"Abide with us."

- 1 SUN of my soul, thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if thou be near;
Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise,
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes!
- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast!
- 3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.
- 4 If some poor wandering child of thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.
- 5 Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
With blessings from thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.
- 6 Come near, and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take,
Till in the ocean of thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

Prayer at Morning and Evening.

- 1 To prayer, to prayer! for the morning breaks,
And earth in her Maker's smiles awakes :
His light is on all below and above, —
The light of gladness and life and love.
O, then, on the breath of this early air,
Send upward the incense of grateful prayer!
- 2 To prayer! for the glorious sun is gone,
And the gathering darkness of night comes on :
Like a curtain from God's kind hand it flows,
To shade the couch where his children repose.
Then kneel, while the watching stars are bright,
And give your last thoughts to the Guardian of night.

An Evening Hymn.

- 1 ANOTHER fleeting day is gone!
Slow o'er the west the shadows rise,
Swift the soft stealing hours have flown,
And night's dark mantle veils the skies.
- 2 Another fleeting day is gone!
Swept from the records of the year;
And still, with every setting sun,
Life's fading visions disappear.
- 3 Another fleeting day is gone!
But soon a fairer shall arise, —
A day whose never-setting sun
Shall pour its light o'er cloudless skies.

- 4 Another fleeting day is gone!
In solemn silence rest, my soul,
And bow before his awful throne,
Who bids the morn and evening roll.

Evening Devotion.

- 1 SOFTLY now the light of day
Fades upon our sight away;
Free from care, from labor free,
Lord, we would commune with thee!
- 2 Thou, whose all-pervading eye
Nought escapes, without, within,
Pardon each infirmity,
Open fault, and secret sin.
- 3 When, from us, the light of day
Shall on earth have passed away,
Then, from sin and sorrow free,
Take us, Lord, to dwell with thee.

Sabbath and Sanctuary.

- 1 SOFTLY fades the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath day;
Gently as life's setting sun,
When the Christian's course is run.
- 2 Night her solemn mantle spreads
O'er the earth as daylight fades;
All things tell of calm repose
At the holy Sabbath's close.

- 3 Peace is on the world abroad;
'Tis the holy peace of God,
Symbol of the peace within,
When the spirit rests from sin.
- 4 Still the Spirit lingers near,
Where the evening worshipper
Seeks communion with the skies,
Pressing onward to the prize.
- 5 Saviour, may our Sabbaths be
Days of peace and joy in thee,
Till in heaven our souls repose,
Where the Sabbath ne'er shall close.

Evening Worship.

- 1 COME, Jesus, with the coming night,
Refresh and cheer my weary heart;
At evening time it shall be light,
If thou art near, though day depart.
- 2 Welcome this shade that brings release
From hurrying labor's noise and strife;
That calls from restless thought to cease,
And calms the throbbing pulse of life.
- 3 From tedious toil, from anxious care,
Dear Lord, I turn again to thee;
Thy presence and thy smile to share
Makes every burden light to me.
- 4 With thee, of all sad thoughts beguiled,
Peace nestles in my tranquil breast;
And, like a pleased and happy child,
In thy kind arms I sink to rest.

Evening Hymn.

- 1 IN mercy, Lord, remember me,
This instant passing night;
And grant to me most graciously
The safeguard of thy might.
- 2 With cheerful heart I close my eyes,
Since thou wilt not remove;
O in the morning let me rise,
Rejoicing in thy love!
- 3 Or if this night should prove the last,
And end my transient days,
Lord, take me to thy promised rest,
Where I may sing thy praise.
- 4 Thus I am sure to live or die
To thee, the God of love;
In life and death I do rely
On thee who reign'st above.

Evening Worship.

- 1 O HOLY Father! 'mid the calm
And stillness of this evening hour,
We would lift up our solemn psalm
To praise thy goodness, and thy power;
For over us, and over all,
Thy tender mercies still extend,
Nor vainly shall thy children call
On thee, our Father and our Friend!

2 Kept by thy goodness through the day,
Thanksgiving to thy name we pour;
Night o'er us, with its stars, we pray
Thy love to guard us evermore.
In grief, console; in gladness, bless;
In darkness, guide; in sickness, cheer;
Till, in the Saviour's righteousness,
Before thy throne our souls appear.

Benediction.

1 THE peace which God bestows
Through Him who died and rose,
The peace the Father giveth through the Son,
Be known in every mind,
The broken heart to bind,
And bless each traveller as he journeys on.

2 Ye who have known to weep,
Where your beloved sleep;
Ye who have raised the deep, the bitter cry, —
God's blessing be as balm,
The fevered heart to calm,
And wondrous peace the troubled mind supply.

3 Ere daily strifes begin
The war without, within,
The God of love, with spirit and with power,
Now on each bended head
His deepest blessing shed,
And keep us all through every troubled hour.

COVENANT OF FIRST CHURCH.

THIS CHURCH was gathered, Aug. 27, 1630, under the following Covenant:—

In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, and in obedience to his holy will and divine ordinance, —

We, whose names are hereunder written, being by His most wise and good providence brought together into this part of America, in the Bay of Massachusetts; and desirous to unite ourselves into one Congregation or Church under the Lord Jesus Christ, our head, in such sort as becometh all those whom he hath redeemed and sanctified to himself, — do hereby solemnly and religiously (as in his most holy presence) promise and bind ourselves to walk in all our ways according to the rule of the gospel, and in all sincere conformity to his holy ordinances, and in mutual love and respect each to other, so near as God shall give us grace.

HOUSES OF WORSHIP.

THE first House of Worship was erected on State Street, A.D. 1632.

The second was built on Cornhill, A.D. 1639 ; and was consumed by fire, Oct. 2, 1711. Rebuilt on the same spot, A.D. 1713, and for many years known as the "Old Brick."

The fourth Meeting-house was erected in Chauncy Place, A.D. 1808. Services were held in it for the last time, May 10, 1868. The Corner-stone of the fifth, or present, Meeting-house, was laid April 4, 1867.
